FOUR DECADES OF JETS FOOTBALL

NEW YORK JETS 2003 RECORD & INFORMATION BOOK COVER CONCEPT

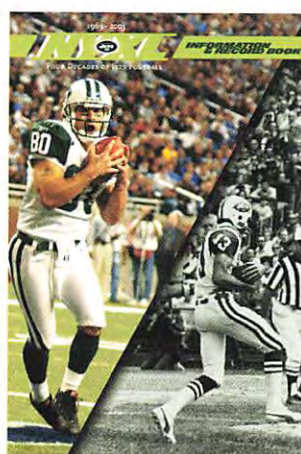

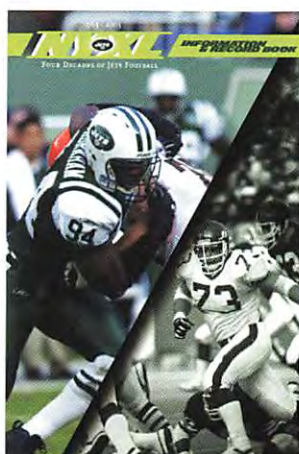

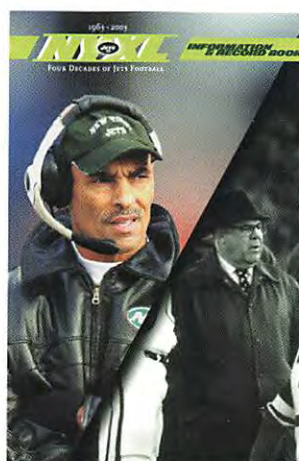

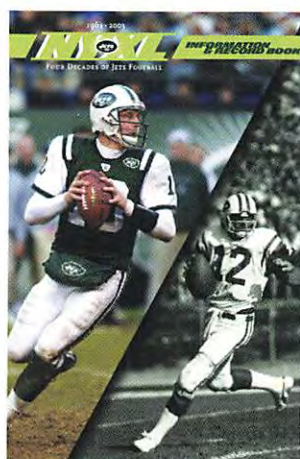

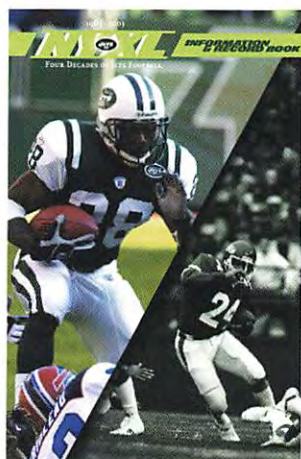

This season the New York Jets will begin their 41st season of professional football. The Club, originally organized in 1959 as the New York Titans, began play in the American Football League in 1960. In 1963 a five-man syndicate purchased the Club and they were renamed the New York Jets. In celebration of the past four decades, highlighted by their improbable Super Bowl III title, the New York Jets will honor their tradition of big plays, prideful performances and excellence both on and off the field. The tradition continues today through our players, coaches and fans.

The defending AFC East Champion New York Jets announced prior to training camp the formation of "NYXL" a campaign designed to allow fans of the Club an opportunity to vote for their favorite players of the past four decades.

The names of 56 players, from two-time Pro Bowl defensive end John Abraham to perennial All-Pro tackle Winston Hill, plus room for write-in candidates, will appear on ballots that will be available at participating Hess Gas Stations, as well as at the Meadowlands for each Jets home game and on the Club's website, www.newyorkjets.com.

The Jets, a unique and exciting franchise throughout the colorful history of the AFL and NFL, are proud to offer another unique concept in the Club's 2003 Information and Record Information Book. The Jets will offer five different record and information book covers, featuring star performers of previous eras with today's star Jets. The following players will be featured on different Information and Record Books: Hall of Fame Coach Weeb Ewbank and Head Coach Herman Edwards; Hall of Fame quarterback Joe Namath and quarterback Chad Pennington; Hall of Fame wide receiver Don Maynard and wide receiver Wayne Chrebet; running backs Freeman McNeil and Curtis Martin; and defensive linemen Joe Klecko and John Abraham.

THE JETS COMING TO A COMMUNITY NEAR YOU

The New York Jets take great pride in playing an active role and making a year-round commitment to the New York Tri-state community. The Jets players, coaches, alumni and front office staff, along with their corporate and community partners, are dedicated to supporting civic and community charities including hunger initiatives, encouraging education and fitness, and reaching out to disadvantaged youth and families to make a lasting impact. The following is a sample of the various New York Jets community programs.

NEW YORK JETS COMMUNITY PARTNERSHIPS

Alliance for Lupus Research

PREVENT. TREAT. CURE.

(www.lupusresearch.org)

The New York Jets organization is deeply committed to supporting the Alliance for Lupus Research (ALR), an independent non-profit organization dedicated to raising the profile of lupus and the scope of lupus research. The ALR was founded in 1999 through the vision of Woody Johnson and the support of the Arthritis Foundation, and has one mission – to prevent, treat and cure lupus through research.

The Jets take an active role in fundraising for the ALR. Events such as the annual New York Jets Season Kickoff Luncheon taking place on Wednesday, August 27, 2003 at the Waldorf=Astoria hotel, along with the Walk with Us to Cure Lupus program, and the "Jets Dream" holiday tree ornament (launched in 2002) are but a few of the ways the Jets are helping the ALR to raise much needed funds which support researchers investigating new approaches in fighting lupus. On Sunday, June 22, 2003, Jets players, coaches and fans joined with the Johnson family and those whose lives have been touched by lupus to walk in the ALR's inaugural New Jersey Walk with Us to Cure Lupus, a 5K fundraising walk at the Meadowlands Sports Complex. The Jets are proud to have been a sponsor of this event.

Lupus, an autoimmune disease in which the body's immune system turns against itself and harms healthy cells and tissue, is characterized by chronic inflammation and can cause life-threatening involvement of major organs such as the kidneys, lungs, heart and nervous system. According to the National Institutes of Health, nine out of ten people with lupus are women. It often appears during the childbearing years of ages 15 to 45, is three times more common in African-American women than in Caucasian women, and is also more common in women of Hispanic, Asian and Native American descent.

Since its inception, the ALR has committed over $24 million to lupus research. Their approach is distinctive – to take advantage of the growing opportunities in the field of lupus and bring about significant new advances faster than ever before – all to help the many individuals and families living with lupus. Together...we can find a cure.

Muscular Dystrophy Association

The New York Jets hosted their first "Jerseys off Their Backs" fundraiser to benefit the Muscular Dystrophy Association (MDA) last season on October 27 at the Meadowlands. The event was geared towards creating public awareness and financial support for MDA.

Beginning two hours prior to the start of the game, MDA volunteers sold scratch-off tickets inside and outside all four-stadium gate areas, the Stadium Club and throughout the stands through the end of the first half. Winners were selected randomly from tickets sold and their names were announced during the third quarter of the game. Each winner received a Jets' jersey autographed by a New York Jets' starter. The winners were recognized at an on-field presentation during the fourth quarter of the game.

The New York Jets will host two "Jerseys off Their Backs" fundraisers; as well as another fundraiser at home games this season to benefit the Muscular Dystrophy Association (MDA). The first "Jersey off Their Backs" drive will be held on September 14, 2003 vs. Miami, with the second one being held on October 12, 2003 vs. Buffalo. Their additional fundraiser, to be determined at a later date, will be held on September 28, 2003 vs. Dallas.

John Abraham, Mo Lewis, and Shaun Ellis

All-pro linebacker Mo Lewis, defensive tackle Josh Evans, Pro Bowl defensive end John Abraham and Shaun Ellis are members of the MDA Muscle Team, which serves as a high profile gala and auction where metro New York's top professional athletes help MDA raise funds to find a cure for neuromuscular diseases. Each of the athletes is paired with an MDA Buddy, a local child affected by neuromuscular disease, to create awareness and raise much needed funds for MDA.

The Muscular Dystrophy Association is a dedicated partnership between scientists and concerned citizens aimed at conquering neuromuscular diseases. MDA is one of the world's leading national health agencies, fostering research and patient care. MDA's programs are funded almost entirely by individual private contributors. The Association does not seek or receive government grants or United Way funds. As part of its worldwide research efforts, MDA currently supports 19 research projects in the Tri-State area.

There are four MDA clinics within Manhattan, as well as 11 additional clinics in the Metro New York area. These clinics offer medical services to children, adults and their families affected with any of the 43 forms of neuromuscular disease covered by the Association. These services include: diagnosis, treatment and rehabilitative care, physical, occupational and respiratory therapy consults, assistance with the purchase and repairs of wheelchairs, leg braces and scooters, flu inoculations, support groups, genetic counseling, recreational activities and summer camp programs.

MDA Summer Camp

Muscular Dystrophy Association sponsored summer camp is a special place where barriers do not exist. MDA provides our youngsters the opportunity to attend a free summer camp, offering a wide range of activities especially designed for children who have limited mobility or use wheelchairs. For young people with neuromuscular diseases, MDA camp is a magical place. Children within Metro New York attend Camp Pa-Qua-Tuck located in Center Moriches, Long Island.

For more information on the Muscular Dystrophy Association please visit their Website at <http://www.mdausa.org/>.

Ronald McDonald House of Long Island

To accommodate the ever-growing number of families in need the New York Jets have formed a community partnership with the Ronald McDonald House of Long Island (RMHLI) to assist in the fundraising for a $5 million expansion construction to the current Ronald McDonald House of Long Island. The expansion consists of 24-bedroom extension and bathrooms; additional play areas, bigger kitchens, pantries, laundry rooms and additional parking.

The proceeds from the Jets annual Alumni Golf Outing, held during Jets Alumni Weekend, will benefit the Ronald McDonald House of Long Island. Proceeds from the event will go directly to RMHLI's Capital Campaign.

With the Capital Campaign as the vehicle, the proceeds from the Golf Outing will be earmarked for the naming of the Jets' Playroom in the new facility. This room will become a place where New York Jets' players will visit regularly and members of the Jets Women's Organization (JWO) will volunteer.

The relationship between the Jets and RMHLI kicked off at the 2002 Business Cares for Kids Sports Festival in which the Jets participated in the grand finale "Celebrity Challenge" softball game. The Jets annually field a celebrity team to compete against the winner of RMHLI business softball tournament.

"This is the most significant relationship the House has ever had with a sports franchise," said Silvana LaFerlita Gullo, Executive Director of the Ronald McDonald House. "Not only has the management team made a commitment to support our expansion campaign and help increase awareness of the vital role the House plays in the Long Island healthcare community, the players and their wives have also agreed to participate by getting hands-on-involved with our families and sports events. We look forward to creating a bond that will last for many years to come."

The Ronald McDonald House of Long Island is a home-away-from-home for families of seriously ill children undergoing critical medical treatment in area hospitals. Parents and guardians stay in a warm and supportive environment, a two-minute walk from their child's bedside. They sleep in comfortable beds, shower in their private bathroom and prepare meals together in a fully equipped kitchen. They can also come and go as needed for appointments with specialists and surgeons.

Since opening in 1986, the House has served more than 7,000 families from across the United States and more than 62 countries worldwide. The majority of the families served are from Nassau and Suffolk counties and the boroughs of Queens, Brooklyn, Staten Island, the Bronx and Manhattan. For more information on the Ronald McDonald House of Long Island please visit their Website at <http://www.rmhlongisland.org/>

United Way

On May 1 the United Way of New York City recognized Jets guard Dave Szott as the organization's first "Hometown Heroes" for their outstanding contributions off the field. The Hometown Hero awards were created to recognize the outstanding generosity of volunteers within the NFL and to encourage volunteerism. The awards were given at the Annual United Way of New York City/NFL Partnership dinner, in the Imperial Ballroom at the Sheraton New York Hotel and Towers. This year's event celebrates the 30th year of the partnership between the National Football League and United Way of America, the national training and development organization for local United Ways such as United Way of New York City. The partnership between United Way and the NFL, which began in 1974, remains the longest-running sports/charity relationship of its kind. The NFL furnishes the airtime at no cost to United Way – a gift that over the past quarter century has exceeded $1 billion. The event drew more than 700 supporters and raised $1 million for United Way of New York City's Community Fund.

In 2002 the New York Jets initiated a charitable ticket turn-back program with the United Way of New York City called "Tix For Kids." The program provides a vehicle for season ticket holders to release unused game tickets, which are then made available to underprivileged children in one of their mentoring agencies. Accompanied by a mentor the child is granted an opportunity to attend a New York Jets football game. Thanks to season tickets holders, in the first year of the program, 550 underprivileged mentor/mentee pairs from a variety of non-profit organizations were able to spend recreational time together at a New York Jets football game.

Season ticket holders can donate their tickets by placing them in one of two self-addressed stamped envelopes provided by the Jets and mailing them no later than two weeks prior to the date of the game they are returning. Upon receipt of the tickets, the United Way will issue a written letter of confirmation recognizing your charitable donation for tax purposes. The United Way of New York City network of mentoring agencies include Mentoring USA, The Mentoring Partnership of New York, The Children's Aid Society, Boys and Girls Clubs, Big Brothers Big Sisters and more.

The New York Jets also participate in the Hometown Huddle, a League wide initiative with the United Way. The Hometown Huddle is a program in which all 32 NFL teams simultaneously work in the community through its United Way partnerships. Two-time pro bowl defensive end John Abraham serves as the Club's United Way Spokesman.

Public School Athletic League

In 2001 the New York Jets formed a community partnership with the Public School Athletic League to provide support to New York City public school's football programs. During the course of the year the Jets and the PSAL team-up on numerous events including the Club's Youth Football Clinic in Central Park. PSAL football coaches assist the Jets coaching staff in providing 250 kids with a day of football and fun.

Public School Athletic League Champions

Throughout the season high school coaches from the PSAL are invited to attend weekly Jets practices. This provides coaches the opportunity to view a professional practice and pick-up valuable coaching techniques from the Jets coaching staff.

Each December the Public School Athletic League football champions are recognized with an on-field halftime presentation at a Jets home game. For this game the PSAL receives tickets along with lunch and hats for players and coaches.

NEW YORK JETS COMMUNITY PROGRAMS

Jets Academy

In one season Jets Academy has become the linchpin of the New York Jets community relations program. An education initiative, the primary goal of Jets Academy is to provide elementary school students with enjoyable learning experiences that enhance their literacy, math skills, creativity, community awareness, and self-esteem. The program provides students with personalized attention from caring and creative teachers, and a 50% increase in learning time each day.

On October 1, 2002 Jets Chairman and CEO Woody Johnson along with Club President Jay Cross presented Donna Santarsiero, Executive Director of the Brooklyn Bureau of

Jerald Sowell

Community Service with a $50,000 check to kickoff the first Jets Academy site located at public school 306 in East New York, Brooklyn. The program at PS 306 is a collaborative education initiative with the Brooklyn Bureau's Gary Klinsky Children Centers. "We are blessed with being able to go into an existing program without having to start from scratch," said Club President Jay Cross. "It's a perfect complement to the Jets overall community platform which by definition is very youth-oriented and focuses on academics and athletics." In a continuing effort to implement Jets Academy throughout the New York Metropolitan region, the Jets plan to open two new sites in Manhattan in September 2003, the first will be at public school 315 and the second will be at public school 163.

Jets Kickoff Luncheon

In its third year, the Jets Kickoff Luncheon is held at the world famous Grand Ballroom at the Waldorf=Astoria in New York City. The event serves as a fundraiser for a specific Jets charity or program every year. The luncheon is the only yearly event that is attended by every coach and player in the organization.

In 2003, the proceeds from the Jets Kickoff Luncheon will benefit the Alliance for Lupus Research (www.lupusresearch.org). NFL Network's lead anchor Rich Eisen will be the Master of Ceremonies and will kick the event off at 12:00 noon on Wednesday, August 27, 2003.

Former Jets' QB Boomer Esiason

Former Jets quarterback and current CBS football analyst Boomer Esiason served as the Master of Ceremonies for the 2002 Jets Kickoff Luncheon that benefited Jets Academy and the Touchdown Club of America. The event also saw Jets owner Robert Wood Johnson IV receive the David A. "Sonny" Werblin Award as an individual who is a distinguished role model for succeeding generations.

New York Jets Youth Football Clinic

In its second year the New York Jets Youth Football Clinic hosts over 250 kids from City of New York Parks and Recreation, Police Athletic League and Jets Academy in Central Park.

In 2003 the event was held at the North Meadow in Central Park. Head Coach Herman Edwards and his coaching staff, assisted by coaches from the Public School Athletic League, offered instruction and encouraged fitness and sportsmanship to the kids throughout the clinic. "We teach the kids life skills as well as football skills," said Coach Edwards. "Football is really a microcosm of life and for us to go out to Central Park is a tribute to our owner Woody Johnson, our coaching staff and our organization on what we are trying to do in giving back to the community. It's a great day for us to go out and be involved with a bunch of kids and teach them some football, but more importantly, teach them the principles of life related to football like dedication, work ethic and teamwork. Football teaches you all those things and puts you in situations where you have to trust, not only in yourself, but also in people you are playing with and trying to achieve a goal."

Head Coach Herman Edwards at Central Park Clinic

The New York Jets "Taste of New York"

The New York Jets hosted the first-ever "Taste of the New York" on Tuesday, April 15 at the New York Hilton. The event helped to raise awareness and dollars in the fight against hunger for thousands of families who struggle every day to simply feed their children. The "Taste of the NFL" is a mainstay of the National Football League during Super Bowl and features top restaurants and chefs from around the country representing their respective cities.

New York City's finest chefs volunteered their time, culinary expertise and food, and teamed up with current Jets stars such as defensive backs Sam Gaines, Ray Mickens and Jon McGraw, along with linebackers Marvin Jones and Sam Cowart. The Jets' offense was represented by running back Jerald Sowell, tight end Anthony Becht, offensive linemen Kevin Mawae, Jason Fabini, Kareem McKenzie, Dave Szott and Tom Nutten.

The Jets and New York City's best chefs at the Taste of the NFL fundraiser

In addition, former Jets Marty Lyons, Freeman McNeil, Emerson Boozer, Ken Schroy, Randy Beverly, and John Nitti also lent their time for the cause. This year's successful "Taste of New York" was a strolling food and wine extravaganza that brought chefs from some of the finest New York restaurants: Beacon, Blue Smoke, Heartbeat, Hilton New York, Monkey Bar, NOBU, Olives, Strip House, Tao and Tribeca Grill and benefited the Partners in Caring Food Bank, which works in conjunction with the Second Harvest Foodbank Network. The event, which was sponsored by Jets' marketing partners Kraft, Nabisco and Shoprite, culminated an effort to try to eliminate childhood hunger in New York.

"We were pleased with the turnout and the enthusiasm that was clearly evident throughout the evening," said New York Jets' Vice President of Public Relations Ron Colangelo. "The players thoroughly enjoyed themselves and it was fascinating to hear them telling their teammates the following day about the duck confit, tuna sashimi, to name but a few dishes. The Jets' organization recognizes the need to take a leadership position in fighting hunger in New York and we were glad to aid the cause."

One of the highlights of the evening was the individual player silent auction for their personalized autographed helmets. As prices climbed over $1,500 dollars per helmet, the players actively played a game of "one-upsmanship" with each other. Dave Szott offered to take a party of four turkey hunting, four excellent seats to the Jets' Thursday Night NFL opener at Washington, and also mow someone's yard, wearing his Jets jersey, for a $3,000 donation to Second Harvest. Anthony Becht's offer of two round-trip tickets, two nights stay at the team hotel, two game seats and a limousine were snared for $3,000 to any game of their choice. Tickets to the event were $200 a piece and close to 200 participants took part in the event. In addition, there was a silent auction featuring Jets' memorabilia, as well as items from the sports and entertainment world.

Newspaper in Education Programs (NIE)

Jets Geography with the New York Daily News, entering its 11th season, is a geography-based lesson plan that incorporates the cities of Jets opponents. The program is supported by player visits throughout the season and is open to students in all five New York City boroughs, Long Island, and Northern New Jersey. Every Tuesday teachers are provided with lesson plans that correspond with the full-page feature in the Daily News that meets mandated education standards. The program has averaged over 11,000 student participants over the past ten seasons.

Jason Glenn, Sean Ellis, and Jason Ferguson, interview that is published in the Tuesday edition of the Star Ledger. More than 25,000 students participate in the program each year.

The Jets Readers Club is an NIE program; know in its third year between the Jets, Newsday and PC Richard & Son. The Jets Readers Club is a reading incentive program that runs from November through January and is open to grades 4-8 in Nassau, Suffolk, Queens and Brooklyn. The program features five pages printed during the season for educators. Five classes are selected as winners and are invited to attend an afternoon of reading and trivia with programs spokesman Mo Lewis and other Jets players at The Scholastic Store located in Manhattan, NY. Classes that are unable to attend the event in New York City receive a separate class visit from a Jets player.

Jets Women's Organization (JWO)

The Jets Women's Organization is an organization comprised of the wives, fiancées and significant others of New York Jets players, coaches and select football support staff members. The Jets Community Relations Department oversees this organization with the assistance of the Head Coach's wife Lia Edwards. Founded in 2001, the mission of the organization is to build goodwill in the Tri-State community through active volunteer participation.

JWO was an instrumental part of the Jets Community Relations initiatives during the 2002 season. Their contributions included hosting Breast Cancer Awareness Day at the Meadowlands, hosting underprivileged children during training camp, participating in St. Mary's Children and Family Services' annual Fashion Show to benefit St.

Mary's, a United Way agency dedicated to helping children who suffer from abuse and neglect, hosting a Harvest/Halloween party for children at Schneider's Hospital followed by a visit to families at the Ronald McDonald House of Long Island, volunteering to serve meals at the Interfaith Nutrition Network soup kitchen in Hempstead, NY, and hosting a Holiday party for clients of Nassau County Coalition against Domestic Violence and their families.

Members of the Jets Women's Organization

Jets Alumni

In 2002, the Jets announced a partnership with JPMorganChase to build the Jets Alumni Network. The goal of the initiative is to provide organizational infrastructure and marketing support that will enhance the notoriety of the New York Jets Alumni and to provide a platform for fans to embrace our team's history.

"All of us at JPMorganChase are thrilled to be associated with the New York Jets Alumni Association," said Andy Parton, vice president/director of marketing, middle market banking for JPMorganChase. "It provides us with a unique opportunity to entertain our clients and at the same time be a part of recognizing some of the great stars from the Jets past. JPMorganChase has had a storied history of involvement with sports at all levels from the pros to the pee-wees, we've been proud to be a part of the action."

As a result of the relationship fans can join former Jet players in the Club's Alumni Oasis prior to every home game, located in the Meadowlands parking lot.

In addition, JPMorganChase also served as the game sponsor for the Jets December 8, 2003 contest against the Denver Broncos. On that day, the company hosted a 20-year reunion of the vaunted New York Sack Exchange that culminated with a halftime tribute.

Entering its eighth year the Jets Alumni weekend consists of a Golf Outing, a Jets Family barbecue after a Jets practice and a tailgate party prior to a preseason game. For the first time in 2002, the Jets Alumni Golf Outing benefited the Ronald McDonald House of Long Island. With the Capital Campaign as the vehicle, the proceeds from the Golf Outing will be earmarked for the naming of the Jets' Playroom in the RMHLI extended facilities.

Jets Community Quarterback

The Community Quarterback Award recognizes outstanding volunteers in the 32 NFL markets and awards nearly $1 million to the charitable organizations that they serve. This program honors individuals who exemplify leadership, dedication, and a commitment to improving the communities in which they live through volunteerism. The local award is given to a resident of the Tri-State area, age 16 and over, who provide volunteer services for a non-profit organization. Nominees may only serve in a volunteer capacity and may not receive any compensation, monetary or otherwise for their efforts.

The program recognizes 10 finalists, two runners-up and one team winner and awards $1,000, $2,500 and $10,000 respectively to the individual charity served.

In 2002 the New York Jets awarded the Community Quarterback Award to Sandy Ahman of Manhattan, NY. As the award winner NFL Charities through the New York Jets made a $10,000 grant to The Children's Aid Society, a non-profit organization which Ahman serves.

Ahman has been an active and dedicated volunteer with the Society for over ten years both as a direct service volunteer and a leader on the Associates Council (the leadership and fundraising arm of their volunteer corps). She has also dedicated herself to one-on-one interaction with children as well as being present behind the scenes raising money, providing leadership, and recruiting new volunteers.

Retired Colonel John Johnson of the Salvation Army Suffolk County Service Extension and Sister Margaret Kilpatrick of St. John's Bread of Life Food Pantry finished as runners-up and were granted $2,500 for each of their charities.

High School Coach of the Week

A League wide initiative, the High School Coach of the Week Program aids in the development of youth football. It gives high school coaches the recognition they deserve, and provides high schools financial assistance in maintaining and upgrading their football programs.

The 2003 season will mark the eighth season that the Jets have participated in the High School Coach of the Week Program. Locally, the Jets award is given weekly during the season to a coach in the Tri-State area who serves the best interests of the game through the teaching of sound football fundamentals, the motivation of young players to achieve, and the promotion of youth football by way of dedication to his community, his school and his student-athletes. High school football reporters Mike Quick of the MSG Network, Gregg Sarra of Newsday and a member of the New York Jets Community Relations department select the winner. Each winner is announced at Head Coach Herman Edwards Wednesday morning press conference and on MSG's High School Sports Weekly on Wednesday nights as well as being awarded $1,000 for his High Schools football program from NFL Charities. At the end of the high school football season a Coach of the Year is selected. The winner of the Coach of the Year is awarded $2,000 for his high school's football program.

In 2002, Fred Olivieri of Curtis High School in Staten Island, NY was named the New York Jets High School Coach of the Year. Coach Olivieri completed his 21st season as the head coach of Curtis High School with a victory over Fort Hamilton 30-6 to win his third PSAL championship. Coach Olivieri has compiled 133 victories including three PSAL city championships, six consecutive semi final appearances and 10 consecutive years in the playoffs, the Warriors finished 11-1 in 2002.

Coach Olivieri is a graduate and former member of Curtis High School's football team. He has taught Earth Science at Curtis High School since 1972. Coach Olivieri and his football team were acknowledged at halftime of the Jets division winning game versus Green Bay.

New York Jets Blood Drive

The New York Jets in partnership with Long Island Blood Services (LIBS) host two Blood Drives a year. The first of the two blood drives is held during the Club's off-season. The second drive is held during training camp.

Long Island Blood Services is a division of the New York Blood Center (NYBC). 100 percent of the blood received by the LIBS goes to hospitals on Long Island, NY.

NEW YORK JETS GAME DAY CHARITY EVENTS

Coin toss on Breast Cancer Awareness Day

Breast Cancer Awareness Day

The Jets and the Jets Women's organization will host Breast Cancer Awareness Day on October 12 at their home game vs. the Buffalo Bills.

Since 2001, the New York Jets have hosted a pink ribbon distribution at a home game during October, Breast Cancer Awareness Month, to create public awareness and education about the issue of breast cancer and the early detection steps to take for disease prevention.

Members of JWO also film a PSA about Breast Cancer that airs at the stadium throughout the month.

Last season, Robert Wood Johnson University Hospital, The Breast Cancer Research Foundation (BCRF), Davis Vision and the Jets Women's Organization (JWO) hosted Jets Breast Cancer Awareness Day on October 6, 2002 at the Meadowlands. The event's theme was "Breast Cancer Doesn't Just Affect Women."

The Jets presented Evelyn Lauder of The Breast Cancer Research Foundation with a $25,000 dollar check during halftime. Broadway performer Linda Eder sung the National Anthem prior to the game. Evelyn Lauder of BCRF, Barbara Jones of the RWJ University Hospital, Broadway performer Linda Eder and Lia Edwards of JWO were all on the field for the coin toss. Prior to the start of the game, BCRF volunteers and JWO members at stadium gates, and in the bubble distributed 30,000 pink ribbons and bookmarks.

Jets Food Drive

Every season the New York Jets host a non-perishable foods drive to benefit the Interfaith Nutrition Network (INN). This year's drive will be held on November 2 for the Club's home game vs. the New York Giants. The INN is a not-for-profit, volunteer-based organization that runs soup kitchens and emergency shelters on Long Island. It was organized to address the problem of hunger and homelessness with empathy and understanding.

Jets Coat Drive

The New York Jets host an annual coat drive in the second half of the season to benefit the annual New York Cares coat drive. This year the Coat Drive will be held November 23 for the Club's home game vs. the Jacksonville Jaguars. New York Cares has created opportunities for tens of thousands of busy New Yorkers to give their time each year through fulfilling, flexibly scheduled volunteer projects.

Jets Toy Drive

The New York Jets partner with the US Marines to host the annual Toys for Tots drive at a home game in December. This year the Toys for Tots drive will be on December 14 for the Club's home game vs. the Pittsburgh Steelers. Members of the U.S. Marine Corps collect toys and money at each of the stadium's four gates beginning two hours prior to the game.

NEW YORK JETS PLAYER COMMUNITY INITIATIVES

Marvin Jones

The Marvin Jones Charitable Foundation, Inc. was founded in 2000 and strives to support and motivate children towards success by engaging them in positive experiences through sports, community involvement and academics.

For the 2002 season, the foundation partnered with select Boys & Girls Clubs in Florida and New York City to provide outreach. In New York, the organization teamed up with a flagship youth organization in the Bronx, the Kips Bay Boys & Girls Club.

As a result of the long-term partnership initiated by Jones between the youth organization and The Marvin Jones Charitable Foundation the National Football League Grassroots Program granted 100,000-dollar towards the 2.2 million dollar Kips Bay Boys and Girls Club Sports Complex. The grant was presented at the first annual Marvin Jones Day on October 29, 2002.

During the season, through his Marvin Jones Charitable Foundation, Inc., Jones hosted Thanksgiving Dinner and a holiday party for 250 children of the Kips Bay Boys and Girls Club. The dinner included 30 turkeys with all the trimmings while every child in attendance at the holiday party received a gift from Marvin Jones.

Kevin Mawae

Kevin serves as the spokesperson and Honorary Board Member for The David Center, a Long Island based, multi-service center for autism and related disorders. Kevin has organized Bowling with the Jets, a tournament to benefit The David Center. To date, Kevin has helped to raise over $250,000 for The David Center through Touchdowns for Special Kids and Bowling with the Jets.

Mawae also participates in religious outreaches through Athletes in Action. He appears at schools, community centers and events sharing his testimony.

Santana Moss

Santana Moss believes that life is based on a ripple effect of people reaching out to each other. Without the encouragement and nurturing of people, who cared enough to make a difference in his life, he would not have become as dedicated and motivated as he is today.

For the third year through the Santana Moss Foundation and Paradise Christian School, Santana hosted his Community Fair to benefit the young people of the Myrtle Grove Park area in Florida. Amidst the fun and games, there are valuable life lessons taught such as commitment, loyalty and that through hard work and dedication dreams can become a reality.

In 2003, the Santana Moss Community Fair hosted 1,000 young members of the Myrtle Grove Park, FL area.

Dave Szott

Inspired by his brother Kevin, a gifted athlete who has competed in the Paralympic Games while legally blind, Dave and his wife, Andrea, started the Szott for Tots Foundation to bring awareness to the special needs community. For the past eight years, after their son, Shane, was born with Cerebral Palsy, Dave and Andrea have been tirelessly dedicated to raising awareness and funds for programs such as the Children's Therapeutic Learning Center and the Jardine Academy while reaching out to families facing similar challenges.

The annual Szott for Tots Golf Outing is held every fall to raise money for the Jardine Academy. The Jardine Academy is part of the Cerebral Palsy League, an organization dedicated to assisting individuals of all ages with severe to moderate physical and/or developmental disabilities, in attaining their optimal level of functional independence, while maintaining the highest quality of life through the provision of accessible quality education, rehabilitation, health, social work, transportation and family support services.

Player Ticket Donations

New York Jets players donated 549 tickets to eight games in 2002 to children. Here is the breakdown of the donations:

- Cornerback Donnie Abraham hosted 10 children from his hometown in Orangeburg, South Carolina at every New York Jets home game.
- Cornerback Aaron Beasley hosted 24 children from the Variety Boys & Girls Club of Queens, NY at every New York Jets home game.
- Strong safety Sam Garnes hosted four children from the College Opportunities Through Assistance (COTA) Program to every New York Jets home game.
- Linebacker Marvin Jones hosted 25 children from the Kips Bay Boys and Girls Club of the Bronx, NY to every New York Jets home game.
- Running back Curtis Martin hosted 45 members of Long Island's Roosevelt High Schools football team at the New York Jets' Division clinching victory over the Green Bay Packers.

NEW YORK JETS PERFORMANCE-BASED DONATIONS

Defensive Line

Every member of the Jets' defensive line will participate in a performance-based charitable program to benefit the Muscular Dystrophy Association. For every sack, the linemen will donate $200 to the MDA. The New York Jets organization will match the $200 per sack.

Offensive Line

The offensive line will continue their performance based charitable program called Touchdowns for Special Kids this season to benefit The David Center. For every touchdown the Jets score during the regular season, the offensive line will make a contribution. In 2002 Touchdowns for Special Kids raised over a $100,000 for The David Center.

Santana Moss

This season for every yard Santana Moss gains from scrimmage, North Fork Bank will make a $20 contribution to the Special Olympics.

At each Jets' home game, Santana's participation in this charitable endeavor will be recognized with a video feature displaying the tally of dollars donated to date.

HOW THEY BECAME THE JETS

On March 28, 1963, a five-man syndicate composed of David A. (Sonny) Werblin, Leon Hess, Townsend B. Martin, Donald C. Lillis and Philip H. Iselin purchased the New York Titans of the American Football League for the price of $1 million.

Less than a month later, on April 15, Werblin, the team's President and CEO renamed the team the "Jets." The reasons were twofold. At the time, the United States was entering the "space age" or "Jet Age." Commercial airlines were filling the skies and soon there would be men walking on the moon. Also, the Jets' new stadium, Shea Stadium, would be located in Flushing Meadows, NY, between LaGuardia and Idlewild (later renamed John F. Kennedy Airport) Airports. Hence the name, the New York Jets.

WOODY JOHNSON

Woody Johnson was approved by the NFL as the owner of the New York Jets in January 2000. A long time Jets fan, Johnson became only the third owner of the Jets when he purchased the team from the estate of the late Leon Hess. During his tenure as owner, the Jets have had three winning seasons, won a division championship, and have gone to the playoffs the past two seasons.

Following the resignations of Head Coach Al Groh, and Director of Football Operations Bill Parcells, Johnson laid the foundations of the team's current success by quickly making a number of key decisions. In January of 2001, he named Terry Bradway general manager and Herman Edwards the team's head coach. Johnson completed his management team in March of 2001 when he elevated Jay Cross to president.

Johnson's ownership has been marked by his desire to lead a first-class franchise on the playing field and in the community, and he has emphasized his commitment to build a long standing winning tradition.

Johnson is also chairman and CEO of the Johnson Company, Inc., a personal investment enterprise. Johnson is a member of the founding family of Johnson & Johnson, the worldwide health-care company, and is a trustee of the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation, which is the nation's largest philanthropic organization devoted to health and health care.

In response to the illness of a family member, Johnson founded the Alliance for Lupus Research, Inc., and serves as its chairman. The ALR is a unique institution dedicated to support research to prevent, treat, and cure lupus.

Besides the Alliance for Lupus Research, the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation International has also been a focal point of Johnson's interest since he learned about his daughter's diabetes condition. He serves as Chairman of the JDRD International.

Woody serves as a member of the NFL's television and broadcasting committee.

Woody has three daughters and lives in New York City. He received his BA from Arizona State University.

JAY CROSS

Jay Cross loves a challenge, and he's been meeting challenges head-on all his life. From sailing for his native Canada in the 1976, 1980 and 1984 Olympics, to changing career courses, to building the Air Canada Centre in Toronto, to the Miami Heat and the AmericanAirlines Arena in Miami.

Cross' vision for this franchise has no boundaries with his biggest challenge looming ahead. He envisions a new home for a storied Jets franchise in America's largest sports market. Cross was named president of the New York Jets LLC by Chairman and CEO Woody Johnson on March 1, 2001. Cross knows this is a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity, and has set the wheels in motion to meet this enormous challenge.

Cross and Johnson have set their sites on Manhattan's West Side where they are developing a proposal that can serve as both an expansion of the Jacob Javits Convention Center and an Olympic Stadium for the 2012 games.

Cross came to the Jets on July 25, 2000, with the assignment of exploring the development of a stadium for the Jets, who have never had a "home" of their own in their 42 years of existence. He splits his energies to developing a stadium site for the Jets, and overseeing the Jets business affairs, which includes marketing, sponsorships, financing, community relations, merchandising, the Internet and broadcast opportunities.

With an eye on the future, Cross has planned and implemented new initiatives including extensive community research; the creation of a dynamic marketing and sales department; emphasizing the Jets brand locally, nationally and internationally; overhauling team retail operations; creating new fan amenities at the Meadowlands and training camp complex; developing new media opportunities; building a new team website; and overseeing numerous improvements at the Meadowlands, including a new Jets' locker room.

Cross came to the Jets directly from the Miami Heat of the National Basketball Association, where he was president of business operations.

He was the driving force behind the AmericanAirlines Arena, having shepherded the project from a controversial referendum to reality in just four years. It was Cross who created the unique public-private partnership between the Heat and Miami-Dade County.

Cross, a veteran real estate developer, is no stranger to arena development, having also led the Air Canada Centre team—home for the NBA's Toronto Raptors and the NHL's Toronto Maple Leafs where he was the point person for all aspects of the planning stages. He led the project from site selection, re-zoning, and procurement through the design elements and to the beginning of construction. The complex is a 22,500-seat, one million square foot sports and entertainment complex in the heart of urban Toronto connected to Union Station.

Prior to working on the Toronto project, Cross was senior vice president responsible for the Urban Development Group of Markborough Properties Inc., a leading Canadian real estate development firm with projects in San Francisco, Chicago and London. He also worked as a general manager, real estate, for the Prudential Insurance Company of America in Toronto and at the architectural firm Crang + Broake, Inc., where as project manager he developed a business and architectural plan for a downtown Toronto baseball stadium subsequently developed as SkyDome, home of the Toronto Blue Jays.

Cross holds a master's degree in architectural technology from Columbia University and a bachelor's degree in nuclear engineering from the University of Toronto. He is a member of the Urban Land Institute, a board member of the New World Symphony and the Wolfsonian Museum, and is on the President's Advisory Committee of the International Sailing Federation. He is also a member of the New York Yacht Club.

An accomplished sailor, Cross was on the Canadian Olympic Yachting teams in 1976, 1980, and 1984 and designed and built world champion international 14-foot dinghys. He and his wife, Devon, live in Manhattan and have two daughters, Hadley and Avery.

TERRY BRADWAY

Terry Bradway enters his third season with the New York Jets as the Club's general manager. Under Bradway's leadership, the Jets have reached the postseason each of the two past seasons and have won 20 games, including a home playoff victory, and a division championship last year, the second in Club history.

This past offseason, Bradway gave the directive to trade up in the NFL Draft as the Jets secured the fourth pick in the first round by trading their two first round picks. In turn, the team selected DT Dewayne Robertson, coveted by many teams prior to the draft.

Prior to the start of last season, Bradway addressed the current roster, by signing RB Curtis Martin to a contract extension, and re-signing Pro Bowl C Kevin Mawae and veteran WR Wayne Chrebet. This offseason, he re-signed free agent FB Jerald Sowell.

During his tenure, Bradway has aggressively jumped into the free agent market and signed several key players to bolster the defense including S Sam Gaines, CBs Aaron Beasley and Donnie Abraham, and LB Sam Cowart.

Bradway has built a foundation for the future through the annual draft. Overall, Bradway has selected 18 players through the draft, 17 of which are currently with the Jets. The only exception is G Siitupе Peko, who is currently with Indianapolis. Players in the 2002 Draft have made contributions including first round selection DE Bryan Thomas, starting FS Jon McGraw, TE Chris Baker and G Jonathan Goodwin. Bradway's first draft in 2001 included starting T Kareem McKenzie, WR Santana Moss, RB LaMont Jordan, S/CB Jamie Henderson and DT James Reed.

Bradway was hired on January 11, 2001 by Jets' Chairman and CEO Woody Johnson, after having worked for the Kansas City Chiefs for the previous nine seasons in the team's player personnel department. Bradway's first order of business was hiring Herman Edwards to be head coach of the Jets. From there, Bradway and Edwards set forth to formulate a winning chemistry and revitalize the Jets' organization.

Bradway has earned a reputation as one of the top talent evaluators in the NFL after having served as KC's vice president of player personnel (2000), director of player personnel (1997-99) and director of college scouting (1992-96). He played a major role in KC's success from the time of his arrival in 1992, in particular assisting Carl Peterson, the Chiefs' president and GM with the drafting of highly productive talent, including Pro Bowl TE Tony Gonzalez and G Will Shields, S Jerome Woods, Pro Bowl LB Donnie Edwards, T John Tait and Victor Riley, CB Eric Warfield, Pro Bowl WR Joe Horn and DB Greg Wesley.

Bradway also gained valuable experience evaluating professional talent and helped the Chiefs with input regarding trades and free agent acquisitions. He was part of a personnel department which acquired key talent such as RB Marcus Allen, QB Elvis Grbac, CB James Hasty, WR Derrick Alexander, LB Marcus Patton, WR Andre Rison and DE Duane Clemons and worked to locate rookie FA talent such as DE Eric Hicks and LB Mike Maslowski, both starters.

He joined the Chiefs after spending seven years (1986-92) as a scout with the New York Giants, where he served as a valued member of the Giants' personnel department for General Manager George Young and Head Coach Bill Parcells (through the 1990 season). He was part of a personnel department which helped the Giants to Super Bowl XXI and XXV championships.

Before joining the Giants, Bradway spent three seasons (1983-85) as assistant director of player personnel for the USFL's Philadelphia/Baltimore Stars. He was part of a personnel staff which helped guide the club to a league-best 48-13-1 overall record, three championship game appearances and two USFL titles.

Bradway started his football career by serving as a wide receivers coach at the University of Cincinnati in 1978 and as a running backs coach at the United States Merchant Marine Academy in 1979. Bradway earned his master's degree in health and physical education from Glassboro State (now Rowan College) in 1982. He was a former collegiate defensive back at Trenton (NJ) State (now the College of New Jersey), and he earned three letters before graduating from Rowan College with a degree in health/physical education in 1978. He graduated from Holy Spirit HS in Abescon, NJ (a suburb of Atlantic City).

Bradway serves as a member of the NFL's Diversity Committee and NFL Europe's Advisory Committee.

Bradway was named Pro Football Executive of the Year last season by the New Jersey Sportswriters' Association. He also hosts a weekly call-in radio program "Jets Insider" on 1050 AM ESPN Radio during the season.

In his spare time, Bradway is an avid runner and has run in four half-marathons and also enjoys playing golf. Bradway and his wife, Kathy, have two sons, Mike, 17, and Tommy, 9, and a daughter, Jenny, 14. Bradway was born May 19, 1955 in Atlantic City, NJ.

Head Coach

3rd season with Jets

25th season in NFL

3rd season as Head Coach in NFL

HERMAN EDWARDS

New York Jets Head Coach Herman Edwards, whose endless passion for the game of football combined with a relentless work ethic, has guided the Jets to back-to-back AFC playoff berths and the 2002 AFC East title.

His now famous mantra, "You Play to Win The Game," was one of the most lasting memories of the 2002 NFL season and became the Jets' rallying cry for their remarkable second half of the season comeback, turning a tumultuous 2-5 start into a stretch where the Jets captured seven of their last nine games and clinched the division title.

As the head coach of the Jets, Edwards has piloted the Green and White to a 19-13 regular season record (.594 winning percentage) and an overall mark of 20-15 (.571 winning percentage). In 2002, Edwards' Jets conquered the AFC East after a hard-fought battle all season long against division foes such as the defending Super Bowl champion New England Patriots, the Miami Dolphins and the upstart Buffalo Bills.

Edwards, a model of consistency and class, became the first coach in Club history to lead the Jets to the postseason in his first year with the Club. He followed up the accomplishment by once again guiding the Jets to the postseason in 2002 and a convincing first round 41-0 playoff victory over the Indianapolis Colts at the Meadowlands. The Jets were then eliminated by the eventual AFC Champion Oakland Raiders. The AFC East title marked the Club's second division title since the AFL-NFL merger in 1970 and the Jets' back-to-back playoff appearances were the first for the organization since the 1985-86 seasons.

Edwards was one of just two AFC coaches to take his Club to back-to-back playoff appearances (2001-2002), joining Pittsburgh's Bill Cowher (the Oakland Raiders also accomplished the feat, in 2001 under Jon Gruden and in 2002 under Bill Callahan).

As the head coach of the Jets, Edwards has guided the Jets to the NFL's best regular season road record the past two seasons (11-5) and has already accumulated the sixth most regular season wins in Club history, while his .594 winning percentage places him second best in Club record books.

In addition, Edwards' Jets teams have been penalized the fewest times for the fewest amount of negative yardage in the past two seasons, a direct testament to the discipline he has instilled in the team.

Edwards was the only coach out of six newcomers in their first year with their respective teams in 2001 to earn a playoff spot. In Edwards' first season with the Jets in 2001, he oversaw the implementation of new offensive, defensive and special teams philosophies. Edwards kept a forceful hand on the controls and guided the Jets to their first playoff appearance since 1998. Besides his 10-win season, perhaps the most indicative statistic supporting the effectiveness and diligence of Edwards' coaching style was the discipline the team displayed, garnering an NFL-low 63 penalties for a league low 507 yards.

Relying on a respect-based managing style, keen preparation and a belief in his players and coaching staff, Edwards pushed a diverse roster featuring solid experienced and youthful players into believing in a common goal of reaching the post-season.

The Jets set a franchise mark for most road wins in a season going 7-1, which topped their 5-2 record in 1968. Additionally, the Green and White's 7-1 road record tied them with Philadelphia for the second most wins in 2001 (STL, 8-0).

Besides the Jets' hustle and grit, Edwards' squad also showed a penchant for fourth quarter comebacks in 2001, with five come-from-behind victories in the fourth quarters, highlighted by the team's thrilling 24-22 season finale win at Oakland on place kicker John Hall's 53-yard field goal with just 59 seconds left in the game.

Edwards' 2001 Jets led the NFL in turnover differential with a +18, a margin of one over their closest rival, Edwards' former club, Tampa Bay, who finished with a +17 ratio. The Jets produced the second most take-aways (39) in the AFC and tied with the Bucs for second most in the NFL behind Cleveland's 42. The Jets also proved to be frugal in turning the ball over, relinquishing it just 21 times all season, tied for the fewest in the AFC with Seattle and Pittsburgh and trailing only San Francisco's 19 in the NFL.

Edwards received numerous accolades throughout his first year as a head coach, mostly for his cooperation with the media. He was also awarded the Staples "NFL Coach of the Week Award" following the Jets' 21-17 comeback win over the Miami Dolphins on October 14, 2001.

Following his first season as head coach, Edwards was rewarded by Jets' Chairman and CEO Woody Johnson, President Jay Cross and General Manager Terry Bradway, with a one-year contract extension, thus extending his contract through the 2005 NFL season.

Edwards was named the Jets' 13th full-time head coach on January 18, 2001. The former NFL standout defensive back earned the reputation as an excellent communicator and one of the best teachers during his time spent as assistant head coach/defensive backfield coach of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1996-2000), where he worked closely with current Indianapolis Colts and former Bucs' Head Coach Tony Dungy, with the day-to-day administrative dealings associated with the head coach's role. Edwards' hiring by the Jets marked the first time a member of the NFL's Minority Coaching Fellowship was hired as an NFL head coach.

While with the Bucs, Edwards helped the secondary become one of the NFL's consistently top-ranked units. In 2000, CB Donnie Abraham (team-high 7 INT) and FS John Lynch (3 INT) each earned Pro Bowl recognition and, collectively, the group recorded 25 interceptions, which tied for first in the NFC, and third in the NFL, and the Bucs' 41 take-aways tied for second in the NFC, and fourth in the NFL. The Bucs' defense also finished +17 in the plus/minus category, tops in the NFC, and tied for 3rd best in the NFL. The Bucs defense finished fourth in the NFC in total defense, allowing 300.0 yards per game (ninth in NFL) and under his tutelage, the Bucs finished in the top 10 in pass defense in four of the five seasons Edwards' was there, and Edwards had a major hand in overseeing the NFL's second ranked pass defenses in both 1998 and 1999.

Under Edwards' mentoring, Lynch earned three Pro Bowl berths (2000, 1999 and 1998) and Abraham earned one (2000), thus marking the first Pro Bowl appearances by a member of the Tampa Bay defensive backfield since Wayne Haddix in 1990. In 1999, Edwards' troops turned in a stellar effort in the playoffs, holding the second ranked Washington Redskins' passing attack to a mere 121 passing yards and the top-ranked St. Louis offense to just 258 yards through the air. His 1998 group, despite battling through a rash of injuries and the integration of young players, managed to surrender an average of just 172.6 yards per game, the club's best single-season showing since 1982.

In 1997, the Bucs' secondary completed its second consecutive stellar performance under Edwards, finishing in the top 10 in pass defense. While in his first season with TB (1996), Edwards led the group to a fourth place ranking in pass defense by limiting opponents to just 182.8 passing yards per game.

Edwards joined the Buccaneers after having worked the previous six years (1990-95) in several different capacities with the KC Chiefs. In 1995, he worked as a scout in the pro personnel department and from 1992-94, he served as the Chiefs' defensive backs coach and was credited with the development of CB Dale Carter, the AFC's Defensive Rookie of the Year in 1992, and S Charles Mincy, while also coaching Pro Bowlers S Kevin Ross and CB Albert Lewis. In each of his three seasons as the Chiefs' defensive backfield coach, KC ranked in the NFL's top three in take-aways and in the top 10 in pass defense. The 1992 season saw the Chiefs lead the AFC and finish second in the NFL in pass defense, surrendering a mere 158.6 yards per game.

In 1990-91, Edwards was a talent scout for the Chiefs while also serving as an assistant to Tony Dungy, then the Chiefs' DB coach. It was also at that time Edwards had the opportunity to closely work with the Jets' General Manager, Terry Bradway, who was also working in the personnel department of the Chiefs. Edwards initially worked for the Chiefs in the summer of 1989 as the recipient of the team's Minority Coaching Fellowship Program.

Edwards began his coaching career at San Jose State as the DB coach from 1987-89 and during each of his three seasons at SJSU, the Spartans' opponents completed less than 50% of their passes.

As a player, Edwards played 10 seasons in the NFL, including nine with the Philadelphia Eagles (1977-85), after signing as a rookie free agent following his collegiate career. He was signed as a rookie by current Chiefs' President and General Manager Carl Peterson, who at the time was the Eagles' director of player personnel and went on to earn a starting CB position in his first preseason game as a rookie at CB and proceeded to start the next 135 regular season games during his stellar Eagle career. His career was highlighted by second team all-NFC honors in 1980 and 1982 and an appearance in Super Bowl XV, a 27-10 Raiders' win over the Eagles. He departed Philadelphia with 33 career interceptions, which currently ranks second behind current Jets' Defensive Backs Coach Bill Bradley and Eric Allen's team-record 34. In addition, he recorded five postseason interceptions, and combined with his regular season interception total, his 38 interceptions stand as a team-record.

Edwards gained fame for one of the most memorable plays in Meadowlands history when he recovered a fumble by NY Giants' QB Joe Pisarcik, and returned it 26 yards for a score with 31 remaining in Philadelphia's 19-17 "Miracle in the Meadowlands" win on November 19, 1978.

In his final NFL season as a player, Edwards played in four games for the Los Angeles Rams and three for the Atlanta Falcons before announcing his retirement during the season on November 11, 1986.

Edwards began his college playing career at the University of California-Berkeley and played there in 1972 and 1974, earning Pac-8 (now Pac-10) honors and set a Golden Bears' record with four interceptions in one game. He played the 1973 season at Monterey Peninsula Junior College and his senior season at San Diego State.

He earned his bachelor's degree in criminal justice from San Diego State and was recently named as a charter member of the Fritz Pollard Alliance, which serves as a conduit between NFL minority coaches and executives in an effort to ensure minorities receive equal consideration for all NFL job openings.

Herman Edwards is a strong proponent of being a positive role model and is one of the organization's most active participants in off-the-field outreach programs. In 2002, he served as a national spokesperson for the National Sportsmanship Day, an event promoted through the Institute for International Sport, which serves as a forum for students, teachers, coaches, parents and fans to discuss pertinent issues of ethics, fair play and sportsmanship. He also was recognized by the One Hundred Black Men, Inc. and The Association For A Better New York in 2003 for his outstanding contributions to society.

Together with his wife, Lia, they work closely with the American Diabetes Association chapter in New York City. Additionally, Edwards has been a supporter of the Jets' annual golf tournament with New York State Troopers Survivors Foundation to raise funds for the families of state troopers who lost their lives in the line of duty.

He and his wife, Lia, were guests of President George W. Bush at the White House in February 2002 celebrating Martin Luther King's birthday and was part of a national campaign that encouraged all United States citizens to work on improving the country through volunteerism on the national holiday. In the spring of 2003, Edwards was cited by Sports Illustrated as being the 60th most influential minority in sports. His ranking placed him highest among minority NFL head coaching.

Edwards hosted a youth football clinic for 250 children in New York City's Central Park in June of 2002 and 2003 and also conducted a Coaches Clinic for 300 area football coaches. In addition, Edwards has twice been named the recipient of the Staples "NFL Coach of the Week" honor (once in 2001 and again in 2002). Additionally, Edwards was named the recipient of the New York Sports Award as the area's Coach of the Year.

A frequent motivational speaker at area schools, Edwards eschews the power of positive thinking, teamwork, family values, and religion in his speeches. He was named the 2002 winner of the Horrigan Award, given annually to the most cooperative member of the NFL community, as voted by the Professional Football Writers Association.

He is also a proponent of the New York Jets' Women's Foundation, founded by his wife, Lia, which supports the Salvation Army, The INN (Interfaith Nutrition Network) and the Nassau County Coalition of Domestic Violence, St. Mary's Children and Families Foundation, and the Breast Cancer Research Foundation.

Edwards has also served as a featured speaker at his alma mater, San Diego State, at their annual clinic for high school and college coaches.

With Tampa Bay, Edwards and the Buccaneers' secondary implemented a youth enrichment program called "Focus and Finish," in which they encouraged high school athletes to excel in academics, athletics and as citizens in their communities through volunteering, tutoring and mentoring and were rewarded for their work with tickets to a game.

Edwards has hosted the Herman Edwards Football Camp for underprivileged children in the Monterey Peninsula for the past seven years and has also hosted the Annual Herman Edwards Charity Golf Classic, which benefits the Boys and Girls Club in Seaside, CA. He graduated from Monterey HS.

Herman Edwards was born in Monmouth, NJ on April 27, 1954 and was raised in Seaside, CA. Wife, Lia, and son, Marcus, 20, is a scholar-athlete at San Diego State University.

In 2002, Edwards became the first coach from the coaching class of 2001 to lead his team to the playoffs in consecutive seasons. He is the only member of his coaching class to have won a playoff game and now owns an overall winning percentage of .571 in regular season and postseason games (20-15-0).

NEW YORK JETS HEAD COACH HERMAN EDWARDS CHOSEN AS JACK HERRIGAN AWARD WINNER

New York City - New York Jets Head Coach Herman Edwards was named the recipient of the 2002 Jack Herrigan Award, an honor annually bestowed upon an NFL member whom writers deem as the best and most cooperative interview subject. Members of the Pro Football Writers' Association vote on the prestigious award each season at the Super Bowl.

"It's an honor to receive the Jack Herrigan Award and I appreciate the committee recognizing me," said Edwards. "Personally, I feel the media played an important role in helping me become a head coach in the National Football League. When I was an assistant coach with Kansas City and at Tampa Bay, stories were written about me, saying I would one day be a head coach. I appreciated their support. And now, with the New York Jets, we emphasize to everyone in our organization the importance of cooperating with the media. We will continue to try and help others do their jobs better, whether it's through gaining the necessary access or teaching them more about the game."

"I don't know if you'll find another coach who explains things as thoroughly and as in-depth as Herman Edwards," said Bob Glauber, a member of the Pro Football Writers of America board and the NFL national writer/columnist for Newsday. "Herman Edwards is the consummate professional in everything that he does and that includes his dealings with the media."

NEW YORK JETS HEAD COACH HERMAN EDWARDS "QUOTABLES"

"My father taught me a long time ago that your handshake is your bond."—January 17, 2001

"I just tell players all the time: If you want credit, go to the bank. I didn't take this job for people to pat me on the back. I took this job because I want to win the world championship."

—December 2, 2001

"I always tell the players about putting their name in the stone. The more you win, the deeper in the stone your name is embedded."—December 28, 2001

"The amazing thing about this football team is, the more you win, the more the ghosts go away. Every time you do something, they tell you, 'Well, they haven't done that since I don't know when.' It's good for the organization and for the team and the fans."—January 6, 2002

"I told the players when I arrived here that I wanted to earn their trust by how we were going to go about doing things and how I treated them. I told them I would treat them like men and I wanted them to act like men. I wanted them to be accountable. They have learned that I'm a very disciplined man. I don't have a short fuse, but I have a long memory."—January 12, 2002

"I believe in chemistry in the football team. That's something you can't coach, you can't buy; it's just kind of something that just happens."—October 12, 2002

"You play to win the game! Hello? You play to win the game!"—October 28, 2002

"There is perception and then there is reality. Some people have a habit of confusing the two. It's my job as the head coach of the Jets to point out to the players what the reality of a given situation is."—December 9, 2002

"What we think determines who we are. Who we are determines what we do."—May 30, 2003

Assistant General Manager/
Director of Pro Personnel

7th season with Jets
10th year in NFL

MIKE TANNENBAUM

Mike Tannenbaum enters his seventh season with the New York Jets. He was promoted to assistant general manager/director of pro personnel on May 18, 2001, after having served as the team's director of pro player development/contract negotiations during the 2000 season.

Tannenbaum oversees the team's pro personnel department, professional scouting, and is the team's lead negotiator for player contracts, and is responsible for the management and strategic planning of the Jets' salary cap. He handles financial forecasting and predicting trends of the CBA. He has done extensive research of player movement and contract developments in order to ascertain market value and trends.

He has been responsible for signing all the player contracts from 1997-present. In addition, he has restructured contracts of numerous players throughout the course of the past six off-seasons to help the organization remain in compliance with the NFL's Collective Bargaining Agreement.

Prior to the start of last season, Tannenbaum prepared and negotiated the contract extensions for RB Curtis Martin, Pro Bowl C Kevin Mawae, and WR Wayne Chrebet. Tannenbaum also negotiated the signing of 2002 number one draft pick DE Bryan Thomas, as well as all 2002 draft selections.

In 2000, Tannenbaum signed all of the Jets' unprecedented four first round draft selections and re-signed Pro Bowl LB Mo Lewis and restructured the contracts of CB Ray Mickens and SS Victor Green.

In 1998, Tannenbaum signed restricted free agent RB Curtis Martin to a long-term contract widely considered one of the most innovative structured under the collective bargaining agreement. In addition, he also re-negotiated the contracts of WR Wayne Chrebet, QB Vinny Testaverde and Victor Green. He re-negotiated several key players who were set to become unrestricted free agents at the conclusion of the 1997 season including LB Marvin Jones, CB Aaron Glenn and RB Richie Anderson.

Tannenbaum was hired by the Jets on February 2, 1997, after having served with the New Orleans Saints in 1996 as a player personnel assistant. He was a player personnel assistant with the Cleveland Browns in 1995. He worked as an intern with the Pittsfield (NY) Mets of the New York-Penn League (Class A) in 1991.

Tannenbaum has had three works published regarding sports management: "An Overview of Relations Between Major League and Minor League Baseball" (The Sports Lawyers Newsletter), "The Tax Consequences of Earning an Athletic Scholarship" (The Sports Lawyers Newsletter), and "A Comprehensive Analysis of Recent Anti-Trust and Labor Litigation Involving the National Basketball Association and the National Football League" (The Sports Lawyers Annual Journal).

He graduated Cum Laude from Tulane Law School where he earned his certificate in sports law. He is a member of the American Bar Association, as well as their Sports and Entertainment division, and is also a member of the Sports Lawyers Association. He graduated from the University of Massachusetts with a degree in accounting and a minor in sports management. He was a 1987 graduate of Needham High School in his hometown of Boston. Tannenbaum enjoys golf, running, playing basketball, and chess. Married to Michelle, he was born February 14, 1969 in New York City.

RON COLANGELO

Ron Colangelo enters his second season with the Jets and 14th year in professional sports, after being named to his current position on March 5, 2002. He oversees all public and media relations initiatives and operations, and serves as the Club's spokesperson on football and business-related matters.

Prior to joining the Jets, Colangelo was vice president of communications and broadcasting for Major League Baseball's Florida Marlins from 1999-2002. With the Marlins, he was responsible for overseeing media relations, broadcasting, community affairs, creative services, and in-game entertainment.

From 1996-1999, Colangelo was the Marlins' director of baseball information and publicity. He directed the media operations during the 1997 Division Series, National League Championship Series, and the Marlins' World Series Championship run. He also served as a public relations representative for Major League Baseball during the 1997 and 1998 All-Star Games.

Colangelo was assistant director of media relations for the National Hockey League's Florida Panthers (1993-96) which included the initial start-up of their media relations department. He worked as a public relations representative for the National Hockey League during the 1994 Stanley Cup Final and 1995 Eastern Conference Final.

He served as the radio play-by-play voice of the West Palm Beach Expos of the Florida State League from 1990-92, which included a Florida State League Championship in 1991. In addition, Colangelo oversaw the team's media relations and sales and marketing efforts.

A graduate of William Paterson University (NJ), Colangelo, is an avid runner who finished the Chicago Marathon last year and has run two half marathons. A native of Newark, NJ, he makes his home on Long Island. Born February 22, 1964, he and his wife, Deanna, have a son, Ryan, 3.

BOB PARENTE

EXECUTIVE STAFF

Bob Parente enters his 27th season as a member of the New York Jets' front office, after being promoted to vice president of business operations on May 22, 2001. He is responsible for creating the Jets' overall business department, which now employs 14 full-time staff members, in addition to numerous seasonal interns.

In his current capacity, Parente oversees all front office business functions, including broadcasting, game operations, publications, community relations, tickets, merchandise, Internet and special events. In addition, Parente works closely with WCBS-TV Ch. 2 on "24/7 with Herman Edwards," the team's weekly television show, as well as being the executive producer of "Jets Journal," which airs on the MSG Network throughout the season. He is also responsible for "Jets Insider" with General Manager Terry Bradway, a weekly call-in program on 1050 AM ESPN Radio.

Prior to his promotion to vice president, he served as executive director of business operations from 1993. He was originally hired in 1977 as the Jets' assistant ticket manager, and a year later, was promoted to ticket manager, and was named the team's first director of business relations in 1990. He began working for the team as a summer intern in the team's New York City office as an office assistant, and also worked the summer of 1975 and 1976 in the ticket office.

A 1977 graduate of Villanova University with a degree in political science, he also has an MBA from Pace University in Manhattan, which he earned in 1983.

He has been a Jets' season ticket holder since 1964, and has been to every home game since he was nine years old, except while attending college. In his spare time, the Jackson Heights, Queens native enjoys golfing, fishing and has served as an administrator, fundraiser and coach in the Long Island Junior Soccer League. He and his wife, Carmen, have two daughters, Diana, 20, and Victoria, 18. Parente was born on October 27, 1955 in Jackson Heights, NY.

THAD SHEELY

Thad Sheely enters his third season with the New York Jets. Sheely assists Team President Jay Cross in the organization's quest to build its first true "home field." His duties focus on developing the architectural, financial, and political structure of a new stadium proposed to be built on Manhattan's West Side adjacent to the Javits Convention Center.

Sheely is currently working with the NYC 2012 Olympic Bid Committee to ensure the stadium could also host the Summer Olympics in 2012. Sheely also assists Mike Kensil in the renovation and expansion of the Hofstra training facility and the opening of the Club's executive and sales offices on 57th Street in Manhattan. In addition, Sheely spearheaded the team's efforts to improve the fan experience on gamedays in the Meadowlands parking lots, including developing and executing the Oasis Tailgate concept and creating the "Green Stadium" signage program.

Sheely joined the Jets in January of 2001, after having worked for the NBA's Miami Heat and the AmericanAirlines Arena. As the Miami Heat's vice president of business development, he contributed to the effort to build the new AmericanAirlines Arena and managed the team's diverse interests in sports, entertainment and facility development. Sheely was also the point person for the team's real estate development plans for the arena district, which included a marina as well as telecommunications, retail and residential projects.

Before completing his MBA at the Stanford Graduate School of Business in 1998, he was an investment banker with Prudential Securities' Sports Facility Finance Group, which was responsible for structuring financing solutions for a number of professional sports teams.

Sheely is a graduate of Columbia College with a degree in Urban Studies/History and a three-year letterman in Varsity Heavyweight Crew. Sheely spent his childhood in Youngstown, Ohio and graduated from The Rayen School. He is single and was born on June 14, 1971 in Columbus, Ohio.

Vice President,
Sales and Marketing
3rd season with Jets

LEE STACEY

Lee Stacey is entering his third season as vice president of sales and marketing for the New York Jets. Stacey was hired to lead the revitalization of all aspects of the Jets' sales and marketing efforts and assist in leading the initiative to build a new stadium in New York City.

Stacey has more than 20 years of experience in sales and marketing, and joined the Jets directly from the position of vice president of corporate sales and broadcasting for the Cavs/Gund Arena Corporation in Cleveland, Ohio. He oversaw sales and marketing initiatives for the Cleveland Cavaliers (NBA), the Cleveland Rockers (WNBA), the Mid-American Conference (MAC) and the Gund Arena.

Prior to working in Cleveland, he was director of corporate marketing from 1993-96 with Washington Sports and Entertainment, overseeing the sales initiatives of the Washington Bullets (NBA) and Capitals (NHL).

Stacey began his career in radio sales in Boston in 1979 working for seven years with CBS Radio in local, regional and network sales. In 1986, he opened Cablevision's New England office as Eastern Regional Sales Manager for SportsChannel.

While in Cleveland, Stacey served on the Board of Trustees for the Greater Cleveland YMCAs. He sits on the board of the Westport (CT) YMCA.

A native of Peabody, MA, Stacey earned a B.S. in mass communications from Boston's Emerson College. Enjoys golf, running, and collecting sports cards. Stacey and his wife, Gretchen, have two children, daughter, Caroline, 7 and son, Devin, 4.

TED COTTRELL

In 2002, Cottrell's second season with the Jets, Cottrell worked diligently to help turn around the fortunes of a defense that began the season in inconsistent fashion...the Jets' surrendered an average of 90.1 yards on the ground the last eleven games despite facing some of the NFL bests backs (Ricky Williams, Clinton Portis, Ahman Green, Charlie Garner, LaDainian Tomlinson and Travis Henry)...under Ted Cottrell's leadership the Jets' defensive unit went from a unit that allowed an average of 32.4 points over their first five games to a unit that only allowed 15.8 points per game in the final eleven contests...over the final eleven regular season games, Cottrell's unit forced 18 takeaways...in his first season with the Jets in 2001, Cottrell fielded a unit which led the National Football league in FR and ranked second in the league and first in the AFC in FF...his unit finished tied for second in the NFL in total take-aways with 39...his unit also ranked fifth in the AFC when opponents entered the Jets' red zone only allowing them to score a TD 44.2% of the time...after a disheartening loss to the Rams, the defense responded with a four-game stretch in which they allowed only 20 points, shutting out the Dolphins in Miami (the first time MIA was shut out at home since 1970) and only allowing a late TD to Kansas City in the Meadowlands...Cottrell joined the Jets as the defensive coordinator on 1/23/01 after spending the previous six seasons (1995-2000) with the Buffalo Bills...served as BUF's defensive coordinator from 1998-2000...in his three seasons as the coordinator of BUF defense, they ranked sixth (1998), first (1999) and third (2000) overall total in defense...was instrumental in successfully guiding the defense through a youth movement by blending young players with veteran players who were soon leaving the organization...helped develop young and promising playmakers such as Marcellus Wiley, Antoine Winfield, John Holeccek, and Sam Cowart...BUF defense finished second in the conference against the run and second in average yards passing per game...in 1999 his defense set club records for fewest points allowed (229), touchdowns (23), total yards (4,045) and total first downs (244) allowed in a 16-game season...the 1998 season saw the defense improve from ninth overall to sixth overall under the tutelage of Cottrell...the most dramatic change was in the run defense, which skyrocketed from 15th to fifth overall...Cottrell began his second stint with the Bills in 1995 as a LB coach, before being named the defensive coordinator prior to the 1998 season...served as the DL coach with ARZ from 1990-93, and their LB coach in 94, and the USFL's New Jersey Generals (1984 85)...Cottrell's first stint with BUF came as the defensive line coach 1986-89, the Bills defense was ranked first in the AFC during the 1988 season...his first pro coaching experience came as the linebackers coach in KC for Marv Levy...sandwiched around his KC stop, Cottrell had two stints with Rutgers as the defensive coordinator in 1983 and 1980, previously he coached the DL with the Scarlet Knights...in 1976 Rutgers led the nation in total defense, rushing defense and scoring defense...attended Rutgers for his post-graduate work and graduated from Delaware Valley College (PA) where he played LB (1965-1969) and was an all-league pick for three consecutive seasons...selected in the seventh round of the 1969 draft by ATL...played two seasons in the NFL before moving on to the CFL, and finishing his career with the Winnipeg Blue Bombers (1972)...born June 13, 1947.

Linebackers

4th season with the Jets
4th year coaching in NFL

BOB SUTTON

Bob Sutton, a veteran of 30 years in the coaching business, begins his fourth season coaching the Jets' linebackers...in 2002, Sutton's linebackers led the defensive turn-around during the teams' final ten regular season games in which the defense gave up an average of 91.8 yards rushing a game despite facing some of the NFL best backs (Ricky Williams, Clinton Portis, Ahmann Green, Charlie Garner, LaDainian Tomlinson and Travis Henry)...only one of these elite backs was able to break 100-yards rushing, DEN Clinton Portis (24-104)...in the team's 41-0 victory over IND in the playoffs, Sutton's linebackers contributed 15 tackles and one INT to help the Jets to what became the second most lopsided shutout in NFL postseason history...in 2002 Sutton's third season as the Jets' linebackers coach, his group recorded 463 tackles, four INT's, 18 PD's, four FF and two FR (numbers taken from coaches stats)...in 2001, his second season, the Jets were the only team to place three linebackers in the top 25 in tackles...all three starters finished with over 100 tackles...his group was responsible for 383 total tackles (50.2% of the team's total tackles), 278 solo, five sacks, six INT, 16 PD, seven FF, three FR and scored one TD while being directly responsible for another...in his first-year with the Jets in 2000, Sutton oversaw a Jets' 3-4 defense which was led consistently by play from Marvin Jones' career-high 135 tackles (team leader), and Mo Lewis' 88 tackles and team-high ten sacks, which earned Lewis his third consecutive Pro Bowl appearance...also had a major hand in the development of LB John Abraham, who had four and a half sacks through six games before being lost to injury...was named linebackers coach on Feb. 9, 2000...prior to joining the Jets, Sutton spent nine years as the head coach at Army (1991-99) and achieved remarkable success, including guiding the Cadets to just their fourth Bowl appearance in school history...his nine seasons at West Point placed him second in tenure by any head coach, trailing legendary Earl "Red" Blaik, who guided the Cadets for 18 seasons...finished his career with a mark of 44-54-1...rattled off 11 straight victories from 1995-96, the longest winning streak at the school in five decades...during his tenure his offensive unit captured three national rushing titles...the Cadets finished as the nation's top ranked units in 1993, 1996 and 1998, and only once in those years did the Cadets not finish in the top rushing attacks in the country...in 1998 the Cadets made their debut into Conference USA ending 108 years as a Division I-A independent school...in 1996 Sutton led the Cadets to one of their finest seasons in history notching an Academy record ten victories, earning a spot in the Independence Bowl...the Cadets steamrolled right out of the gates winning their first nine contests, to equal the best start in school history...by November Army found its way into the top 25 for the first time in eight years...his offense set a school record for total offense in a single season, while the defense was ranked ninth in total defense and sixth in rushing defense...he also continued the bragging rights as Army won its fifth straight against Navy and held the Commander-in-Chief's Trophy from 1992-96 making Sutton the first Army coach to defeat Navy five consecutive times...his efforts were recognized as he won the Bobby

Dodd Coach of the Year Award, making him the first Army coach since Tom Cahill in 1966 to earn such an award...was also one of six finalists for the Bear Bryant Coach of the Year Award, was named the Metropolitan Football Writers Division I Coach of the Year and the GTE Regional Coach of the Year by the American Football Coaches Association...the Cadets finished the season ranked in the top 25 for the first-time since 1985...before becoming the head coach, he was at West Point from 1983-1991 as the team's defensive coordinator and helped the Cadets to three bowl games...in 1982 he served as the RB coach at North Carolina State under Monte Kiffin...had a pair of turns at Western Michigan under Elliott Uzelac (1980-81) and 1975-76, serving first as defensive coordinator and later as the offensive coordinator...was a defensive coordinator and LB coach at Illinois (1977-79) under Gary Moeller...in 1974 he was the linebackers coach at Syracuse for Frank Maloney...in 1972-73 Sutton had his first coaching job as a graduate assistant at the University of Michigan for Bo Schembechler...born Jan. 28, 1951 in Ypsilanti, MI...earned his physical education degree from Eastern Michigan...he and his wife, Debbie, have a son, Andrew and a daughter, Sarah.

HOW OBTAINED

- Signed with the Jets as a free agent on April 24, 2002 after being released by TB on March 14, 2002. Was selected in the third round of the 1996 draft (71st player overall) by Tampa Bay and signed with the Buccaneers on July 13, 1996.

CAREER

- A veteran of 108 regular season games, Donnie Abraham has made 94 starts throughout his career. He has also started all seven postseason games in which he has appeared.
- Owns 35 interceptions in the regular season, which is the most in the NFL the past seven years, while the 35 interceptions currently place him tenth among active NFL defensive players.
- Was a starting cornerback for the NFC in the 2000 Pro Bowl.
- Has registered 408 tackles (268 solo tackles), 136 passes defended, six fumble recoveries, two forced fumbles and two sacks in his first seven NFL seasons.
- Ranks first in Bucs' history with 31 career interceptions.
- His seven picks in both 1999 and 2000 tied him with CBs Wayne Haddix (1990) and Jeremiah Castille (1985) for the third-best single-season effort in TB history.

2002 SEASON (JETS)

- Started all 16 regular season games at LCB and finished ninth on the team in tackles with 64 stops.
- His four interceptions led all Jets defenders, while his 17 passes defended tied starting RCB Aaron Beasley for the most on the team.
- Started both of the Jets' postseason contests and collected four tackles and one pass defended.
- Tallied a PD in the AFC Divisional Playoff loss at OAK.
- Had an exceptional game, holding All-Pro WR Marvin Harrison to just four catches, and tallied four tackles in the 41-0 win over IND in the AFC Wild Card playoff game.
- Recorded three solo tackles and two PD in the game 16 win over GB.
- Picked off his fourth pass of the season, returning the Tom Brady attempt 23 yards in the fourth quarter to go along with his four tackles (three solo) and one PD in the game 15 win at NE.
- Had four tackles at CHI in game 14, including his 400th career stop.
- Tallied a season-high eight tackles and a PD in game 12 at OAK.
- Registered two solo tackles and his three PD tied a season-high against BUF in game 11.

- Recorded his third INT of the season, picking off Chargers' QB Drew Brees and adding three tackles in the game eight win at SD, his 100th career game played.
- Notched five tackles and a PD against CLE in game seven.
- Was rewarded with a defensive player of the game award for his effort against the Vikings after recording an INT of QB Daunte Culpepper, seven solo tackles and three PD.
- Recorded four tackles from his starting LCB spot in game five vs. KC.
- Turned in two tackles and limited Pro Bowl WR Jimmy Smith to only one catch for 10 yards in game four at JAX.
- Had one tackle and two PD from his starting LCB spot in game three at MIA.
- Recorded four solo tackles in game two loss to NE.
- Made a splash in his Jets debut in game one at BUF, picking off a Drew Bledsoe pass and returning it 13 yards, his 32nd career INT. Also added six tackles and a PD.

2001 SEASON (TB)

- Played in 15 games (all but at DET) with five starts and made five starts at LCB.
- Totaled 45 tackles, six interceptions for 98 yards, one fumble recovery and 17 passes defended. The 17 passes defended ranked second on the Bucs.
- Helped defense finish among the NFL's Top 10 (sixth) for the fifth straight year.
- Recorded four tackles in NFC Wild Card playoff game at PHI.
- Had one interception, two passes defended and four tackles against PHI in season finale.
- Became club's all-time INT leader at CHI with 30th career INT in the second quarter and also contributed five tackles and three passes defended.
- Recorded his 29th career INT at CIN, moving him into a tie for first (with Cedric Brown) on the Bucs' all-time interception list.
- Came off the bench at STL and posted one tackle, one pass defended and one interception.
- Was declared inactive at DET due to lower back contusion.
- Had a 46-yard INT return in the second quarter at GB.
- Had first INT of the year against GB on the first series of the game.
- Contributed four tackles and one FR at DAL.

HOW OBTAINED

- Selected with the 13th overall pick in the 2000 draft, which was acquired in a trade with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. In exchange for wide receiver Keyshawn Johnson, the Jets obtained first round draft choices #13 and #27 (TE Anthony Becht). Abraham was the third linebacker taken (WAS LaVar Arrington and CHI Brian Urlacher) overall.

CAREER

- A two-time starter (2001-2002) for the AFC Pro Bowl squad, John Abraham has quickly earned the reputation as one of the NFL's most feared and athletic defensive linemen.
- Has started 31 of the 38 regular season games in which he has appeared in and racked up 176 tackles, 27.5 sacks, nine forced fumbles, three fumble recoveries and two passes defended.
- Tied a franchise record (Joe Klecko and Mark Gastineau) for the most sacks in a game, when he sacked New Orleans' Aaron Brooks four times on November 4, 2001 at the Superdome in a Jets win.
- Has played, and started, three postseason games in his young career and has recorded 11 tackles, one sack and a pass defended.

2002 SEASON (JETS)

- Started all 16 games at DE and recorded a team-high 10 sacks. Also tallied 82 tackles (52 solo), two PD, and a FF. Earned his second consecutive selection to represent the AFC at the Pro Bowl.
- Led Jets' defensive linemen with seven tackles (four solo), including a seven-yard sack of Raiders' QB Rich Gannon, and added a tipped pass in the AFC Divisional Playoff loss at OAK.
- Recorded his first career postseason sack, dropping Colts' QB Peyton Manning for a 13-yard loss in the second quarter of the 41-0 win over IND in the AFC Wild Card game. He totaled four tackles (three solo) and an additional QB pressure on the day.
- Tallied six tackles (three solo), a batted pass and a QB pressure in the division-clinching 42-17 win over GB in game 16.
- Kept his games with a sack streak alive, tallying one and a half sacks of QB Tom Brady, and had six tackles (five solo) in the 30-17 win at NE in game 15. He reached 10 sacks for the season, making him the first Jet to record back-to-back double-digit sack seasons since Mark Gastineau in 1983-85.

- Recorded a sack for the third consecutive game, totaling one and a half sacks of QB Chris Chandler, and six tackles (five solo) at CHI in game 14.
- Registered his seventh sack of the season, tackling Broncos' QB Brian Griese for a six-yard loss along with totaling six tackles (four solo) and two additional QB pressures in the game 13 win over DEN.
- Had five tackles (one solo), including a one-yard sack of QB Rich Gannon at OAK in game 12.
- Recorded a season-high eight tackles (five solo), including one for a loss in the 31-13 win over BUF in game 11.
- Tallied five tackles (three solo), including one behind the line, and a QB pressure in the game 10 win at DET.
- Turned in his first two-sack game of the year, dropping Dolphins' QB Ray Lucas twice for a total of seven yards and forcing a fumble on the second sack. He totaled four tackles (two solo) in the game nine win over MIA.
- Made two tackles (one solo) and tipped a Drew Brees pass attempt in the game eight win at SD.
- Had three tackles (two solo), including a six-yard sack of QB Tim Couch in game seven against CLE.
- Recorded four tackles (three solo) in game six against MIN.
- Notched his second sack of the year, a seven-yard sack of QB Trent Green, and also drew two holding penalties during his two-tackle day against KC in game five.
- Turned in six tackles (four solo) and a QB pressure in game four at JAX.
- Tallied seven tackles (all solo), including a stop of RB Ricky Williams for a seven-yard loss in game three at MIA.
- Recorded six tackles (three solo) from his starting DE spot in game two against NE.
- Returned to action for the season opener at BUF, recording six tackles (three solo), one tackle for loss, and a six-yard sack of QB Drew Bledsoe.
- Suffered a second-degree sprain of the MCL in his left knee during a training camp practice on 8/3, forcing him to miss all four preseason contests.

2001 SEASON (JETS)

- Played in all 16 regular season games, making 15 starts at RDE.
- Produced 82 tackles (seventh on the team), a team-high 13 sacks, six forced fumbles (team-high), three fumble recoveries (team-high).
- Voted as the starting LDE for the AFC squad at the annual Pro Bowl, his first such honor and just the sixth Jets' defensive linemen in team history to earn the all-star designation.
- Abraham became the first Jets defensive lineman voted to the annual all-star game since DE Mark Gastineau and DT Joe Klecko were elected to represent the Jets following the 1985 season.
- His 13 sacks tied for the ninth-most in Jets' history and were tied for the second most sacks in the AFC in 2001 (P. Boulware-BAL 15, J. Miller-CLE 13, M. Wiley-SD 13) and tied for the sixth most in the NFL.
- In the AFC Wild Card game at OAK, Abraham made his first career postseason appearance when he started at RDE and recorded two tackles before being forced out of the game late in the first quarter with a stomach virus and didn't return to action.
- During the Jets' memorable and thrilling game 16 win at OAK, he returned to his starting DE position and had four tackles and recorded his 13th sack of the season.

- Game 15 vs. BUF, Abraham didn't start because of a strained groin muscle but played quite a bit throughout the game and had three tackles.
- Game 14 at IND, had four tackles, recorded his 12th sack of the season and had a big play when he tackled RB Dominic Rhodes in the backfield, stripped him of the ball and pounced on the fumble, setting up a John Hall FG that put the Jets ahead 19-17 in the third quarter.
- In game 11 vs. NE, he had four tackles, sacked QB Tom Brady for a seven-yard loss and forced Brady to fumble, although the ball was recovered by NE C Damien Woody.
- Named the AFC Defensive Player of the Month for the month of November, marking his first career POM honor and in the process became the third Jets defensive player since the inception of the award to earn the distinction (CB Bobby Humphery-Sept. 1988, LB Mo Lewis-Nov. 1993). Incredibly enough, Abraham's feat was garnered in just three games (compared to the majority of his competition's four games), as the Jets had their bye weekend on November 25.
- In his three November games, he totaled 24 tackles, six and a half sacks and a forced fumble.
- In game 10, a 24-0 shutout win at MIA, Abraham recorded seven tackles, including one for a loss and sacked QB Jay Fiedler and was part of a defensive unit that shut out the Dolphins in MIA for the first time since 1970.
- In game nine win vs. KC, recorded a career-high 11 tackles, along with a sack and a half and forced a fumble in the fourth quarter when he sacked QB Trent Green and stripped him of the ball.
- In game eight win at NO, caused major disruptions in the Saints' offensive attack and was rewarded with AFC Defensive Player of the Week honors after he racked up six tackles, four sacks, including sacking Saints QB Aaron Brooks on a fourth-and-17 from the Jets' 20-yard line with under a minute to play and the Jets clinging to a 16-9 lead, thereby ending the game. He also added three QB pressures.
- His four sacks tied a team-record for most sacks in a game and (Mark Gastineau registered four sacks on the opening day of the 1984 season at IND, vs. BAL in 1983 and on Sept. 27, 1981 at HOU).
- In game seven win at CAR, he had five tackles and sacked QB Chris Weinke.
- In game five vs. MIA, he was involved in a key play early in the game on a third-and-goal at the Jets' one-yard line when he came down the line and tackled RB Lamar Smith for no gain and, in the process, stripped him of the ball, leading to a DE Rick Lyle fumble recovery.
- In game four at BUF he had four tackles, scored his first career touchdown in the first quarter after picking up a QB Rob Johnson fumble that was caused when Mo Lewis sacked and stripped the QB of the ball and Abraham scooped up the ball and scampered seven yards for the score, putting the Jets ahead 21-6. The touchdown was his first ever defensive touchdown (on any level of play). Also caused a fumble on the Bills' first possession when he tackled RB Sammy Morris after a three-yard gain at the BUF 49 and CB Marcus Coleman recovered the loose ball, setting up a Jets' TD.
- In game two at NE, Abraham was a force throughout the day, registering nine tackles, sacking QB Drew Bledsoe once, stripping FB Marc Edwards of the ball and recovering it late in the fourth quarter at the Jets' 36-yard line.
- Started at LDE against IND in the season opener in the Jets' 4-3 defense and had five tackles and had the team's only sack on the day, a nine-yard tackle of QB Peyton Manning in the fourth quarter. He also had two tackles for losses. The start marked his first start on the NFL level.

2000 SEASON (JETS)

- Finished his rookie year with 12 tackles, four and a half sacks, two FF, and four special teams tackles in six games.
- Showed a propensity for getting to the QB in the fourth quarter of games with two and a half of his four sacks coming in the fourth quarter.
- Rookie campaign came to an early conclusion when he sustained a "sports hernia" in the sixth game of the season at NE. He was a force during that game, making three tackles, forcing a fumble, recording two sacks and forced two holding penalties in three quarters of play.
- Sealed the Jets' comeback victory in the fourth game of the season by sacking QB Shaun King and stripping him of the ball, thus halting TB's final chance to win the game.
- Recorded his first NFL sack against NE to insure a Jets' victory and added four tackles.

COLLEGE

- Shifted to OLB in his senior year after playing DE his first three seasons.
- Ranks second on the school's career-record list with 23.5 quarterback sacks and led the team in sacks all four years with the Gamecocks.
- As a senior, he earned all-America Dream Team selection and was rated the best athlete in the country at his position by SportsPage.com.
- Was an all-SEC first-team choice.
- Received the Joe Morrison Memorial Award for defense and was named team MVP and was the recipient of the Captain's Cup Award when he played and started ten games, recorded 60 tackles, six sacks, five FF, a FR a PD and blocked a field goal attempt.
- Played DE from his freshman through junior seasons and totaled 108 tackles, 17.5 sacks, three FF, a FR and two blocked field goal attempts.

HOW OBTAINED

- Was the second TE selected overall in the 2000 draft, behind GB's selection of Miami's Bubba Franks (14th overall). He was selected by the Jets with the 27th pick overall which was obtained along with the 13th pick overall (DE John Abraham) from TB in exchange for WR Keyshawn Johnson in an April 2000 trade.

CAREER

- A veteran of 46 regular season games, with 42 career regular season starts, Becht has recorded 80 receptions for 708 yards for an 8.9 average and 12 touchdowns.
- Has started every game the past two seasons and enters the 2003 season with 40 consecutive regular season starts.
- Has also played in and started three postseason games and registered four receptions for 22 yards (5.5 average) with a long gain of eight yards.
- Owns a career-long reception of 30 yards, which he accomplished in his rookie season (2000) vs. DEN.

2002 SEASON (JETS)

- Was the starting TE for all 16 regular season games, totaling 28 receptions for 243 yards and tying a career-high with five TD receptions.
- Tallied three receptions for 14 yards in the AFC Divisional Playoff loss at OAK.
- Caught one pass for eight yards and served as a key blocker in the 41-0 win over IND in the AFC Wild Card playoff game.
- Caught one pass for nine yards in the game 16 win over GB.
- Recorded two receptions for 21 yards at NE in game 15.
- Caught one pass for six yards in the loss at CHI in game 14.
- Had two receptions for 22 yards in the game 13 win over DEN.
- Was held without a catch in the game 12 loss at OAK.
- Totaled two catches for 25 yards in the game 11 win over BUF.
- Caught two passes for eight yards in the game 10 win at DET, including a one-yard TD catch, his fifth TD grab of the season.
- Had one catch for five yards against MIA in game nine.

- Pulled in four catches for 26 yards, including a one-yard TD grab in the second quarter of the 44-13 win at SD in game eight.
- Caught one pass for four yards in the game seven loss to CLE.
- Was held without a catch, but blocked well in the running game, recorded a tackle on special teams, and recovered an onside kick late in the game six win against MIN.
- Caught his third TD pass of the year, a two-yard strike from Chad Pennington, and also added a tackle on special teams in game five against KC.
- Had two receptions for 25 yards in game four at JAX.
- Caught one pass for 21 yards in game three at MIA.
- Scored his second TD of the season and ninth of his career in totaling four receptions for 33 yards in game two against NE.
- Had four receptions for 36 yards and a touchdown in the 37-31 overtime win at BUF in the season opener.
- Scored the first Jets TD of 2002 when he pulled in a one-yard toss from QB Vinny Testaverde in the second quarter of the opener.
- Added a two-point reception on a pass from Testaverde, pushing the Jets' lead to 31-24 late in the fourth quarter.

2001 SEASON (JETS)

- Started all 16 games at TE and tied former Jets TE Kyle Brady for the sixth most receptions among AFC TE, hauling in 36 passes for 321 yards (8.9 avg.) and five TDs.
- His five scores were topped by only IND TE Marcus Pollard's eight and KC TE Tony Gonzalez's six.
- His 36 receptions were the most by a Jets TE since 1995 when Johnny Mitchell recorded 45 catches.
- Recorded back-to-back game-winning touchdown receptions in games 13 and 14.
- For the season, he was a consistent performer on the blocking front as well, paving the way for RB Curtis Martin's club-record 1,513 yards rushing (second most in the NFL).
- Made his first career post-season appearance in the AFC Wild Card game at OAK when he started at TE and helped in the blocking department, aiding in Curtis Martin's 16-106-6.6 avg. rushing effort.
- In game 14 at IND, Becht scored the game-winning TD with :58 left in the fourth quarter when he caught a six-yard pass from Vinny Testaverde that put the Jets ahead 29-28 (following XP conversion) and had four receptions for 22 yards with a long of 11 yards vs. the Colts.
- Game 13 vs. CIN, Becht scored the game-winning TD with 6:57 left in the fourth quarter on a two-yard pass from Testaverde to put the Jets ahead 15-14 (two-point conversion failed) to stay, capping a fourth quarter comeback.
- In game nine win over KC, Becht was a major factor in Martin's 113-yard rushing day and three TD, throwing several key blocks and also factored into the passing game, recording two receptions for 22 yards with a long gain of 14 yards.
- In game eight win at NO, Becht made two big catches, including a diving 24-yard grab early in the fourth quarter and later following it up with a 10-yard reception on a third-and-two that helped set up the Jets' final score of the day, a John Hall 23-yard FG.

- Posted career-highs in game six vs. STL when he caught five passes for 35 yards and recorded the first multiple TD game of his career, the first on a five-yard pass from Testaverde in the first quarter and then hauling in a seven-yard pass from Chad Pennington in the fourth quarter.
- Was second on the team in receptions in game five win over MIA when he hauled in four passes for 31 yards (7.8 avg.) with a long reception of 14 yards and helped open holes for Curtis Martin's third 100-yard rushing day of the season in the team's 21-17 comeback win.
- In just his fifth game of the season, Becht matched his receiving totals from his rookie season (16) and eclipsed his receiving yardage totals (144 vs. 158 in 2001).
- In game four win at BUF, Becht had three receptions for 21 yards (7.0 avg.) with a long of 17 yards and scored his first TD of the season on a diving three-yard pass from Testaverde to put the Jets ahead 35-22 and helped pave the way for Martin's 135 yards rushing.
- Tied for the team lead with three receptions for 24 yards in game three vs. SF.
- In game two at NE, Becht started and was a factor in both the running game (Martin 24-106-4.4 avg.-1 TD) and receiving with two receptions for 24 yards and a long reception of 14 yards. Both of his receptions were for first downs and converted a third-and-four situation for the Jets with a 14-yard reception from Testaverde late in the second quarter, which helped the Jets tie the score at 3-3 going into halftime.
- Started at TE in the season opener vs. IND and had four receptions for a career-high 58 yards (14.5 avg.) with a long gain of 24 yards and helped the Jets churn out 135 yards on the ground on 29 carries (4.7 avg.) and a score.

2000 SEASON (JETS)

- Earned Pro Football Weekly all-rookie team honors in 2000.
- Played in 14 games, missing two games (games seven and eight with a sprained knee).
- Drew the starting assignment in 10 contests and hauled in 16 passes for 144 yards, a 9.0 avg. and two TD.
- His 16 receptions placed him third among NFL rookie TE (Franks-34 and CLE's Aaron Shea-30).
- Nine of his 16 receptions were good for first down conversions and he also showed powerful in-line blocking ability throughout the season.
- Started the final eight games of the season following his return to the line-up and scored his second TD of the season on a two-yard pass from Testaverde vs. CHI in game 12.
- Had his best game statistically in game nine vs. DEN when he had three receptions for 41 yards (13.7 avg.) and his first career touchdown on a one-yard toss from Testaverde in the third quarter and also registered his longest reception of the season, a 30-yard grab.

HOW OBTAINED

- Wayne Chrebet was signed as a rookie free agent by the NYJ on April 25, 1995.

CAREER

- Wayne Chrebet enters the 2003 season with the third most receptions (507) in New York Jets history, trailing Hall of Famer Don Maynard's 627 receptions and Al Toon's 517 catches.
- Enters the season fourth on the Club's all-time receiving yardage list with 6,526 yards for a 12.9 career average. He needs 80 yards to pass Toon (6,605), 1,781 yards to pass Wesley Walker (8,306) and 5,207 yards to pass Maynard (11,732).
- Owens two of the top 10 spots for most receptions in a season in Club history: sixth place on 84 receptions in 1996 and a tie for tenth place with 75 receptions in 1998.
- Has played in 121 career regular season games, with 99 starts, and snared 39 career touchdown receptions, including a career-high nine in 2002.

- Chrebet has caught at least one pass from 10 different Jets passers: Boomer Esiason, Frank Reich, Glenn Foley, Neil O'Donnell, Ray Lucas, Vinny Testaverde, Curtis Martin, Rick Mirer, Tom Tupa and Chad Pennington.
- Has only missed seven games during his career (five in 1999 with a broken bone in his foot, one game in 2001 due to post traumatic migraines and one game in 2002 from a severe leg contusion).
- Has also started five postseason contests and made 19 catches for 269 yards (14.2 avg.) and two touchdowns.
- In the 126 (regular season and postseason combined) games he has appeared in, Chrebet has recorded at least one reception in 123 of the contests.
- Established the NFL mark for most receptions by a player during his first two seasons in the league with 150 and his 208 catches over the course of his first three seasons were the sixth-most by anyone during their first three years in the NFL.
- In 1997 he was the leading third down receiver in the NFL (29-397-13.7 avg.-1 TD) and was third in the AFC and sixth in the NFL in third down catches in 1998 (26-412-15.8 avg.-4 TD).

2002 SEASON (JETS)

- Had one reception for seven yards in the AFC Divisional Playoff loss at OAK.
- Caught two passes for 44 yards in the AFC Wild Card playoff game win over IND.
- Started and played in 15 games on the season, missing the KC game due to injury, and totaled 51 receptions for 691 yards and a career best nine TDs.
- Matched his career high with two TD catches (seventh time) in the AFC East Division-clinching win over GB in game 16. He totaled three receptions for 37 yards on the day.
- Hauled in four receptions for 61 yards and his seventh TD catch of the season in the 30-17 win at NE in game 15.
- Totaled three catches for 30 yards and a five-yard TD reception in the game 14 20-13 loss at CHI. Recorded his 500th career reception in the fourth quarter, but lost the ball on the play, which would be the Jets' last offensive play of the game.
- Tallied five receptions for 69 yards in the 19-13 win over DEN in game 13. All five of his catches resulted in Jets' first downs, earning him a game ball for the day.
- Caught five passes for 66 yards and a 13-yard TD in the game 12 loss at OAK.
- Had one catch for 15 yards, coming on a key third down conversion in the third quarter of the game 11 win against BUF.
- Turned in the sixth two-TD game of his career, catching four balls for 46 yards with scores in the second and third quarters of the game 10 win at DET.
- Grabbed two catches for 30 yards in the game nine 13-10 win over MIA.
- Recorded three receptions for 47 yards against SD in game eight.
- Caught four passes for 40 yards and his second TD of the year on an eight-yard slant from QB Chad Pennington in game seven against CLE. Was also incomplete on his first career pass attempt and fumbled for the first time in his last 324 receptions, dating all the way back to December 22, 1996.
- Returned to the lineup in game six against MIN and caught four passes for 53 yards.
- Was IA for game five against KC as a result of the leg injury suffered at JAX, marking just the seventh game he has missed in his eight year career.

- Passed the 6,000-yard receiving mark for his career with his first catch against the Jaguars, an 18-yard pass from Chad Pennington in the first quarter.
- Caught two passes for 42 yards in game four at JAX before leaving the game with a leg injury.
- Led the team with five receptions for 64 yards in game three at MIA.
- Started at WR in game two against NE, totaling one catch for 33 yards.
- Pulled in a team-leading five catches for 58 yards and a TD in the team's season-opening 37-31 win at BUF, including an 18-yard strike from QB Vinny Testaverde to put the Jets ahead 31-24 late in the fourth quarter.

2001 SEASON (JETS)

- Started 15 regular season games at WR, missing game seven at CAR due to post traumatic migraines.
- Finished second on the team in receptions (56) and second in receiving yardage (750) for a 13.4 avg. and a touchdown.
- On third downs, Chrebet was once again a consistent and reliable option, recording 19 receptions for 261 yards for a 13.7 avg. and a long of 34 yards.
- In the AFC Wild Card game at OAK, Chrebet had four receptions for 52 yards (13.0 avg.) and scored on receptions of 17 yards and four yards on passes from Vinny Testaverde.
- Tied for the team-lead in game 16 win at OAK with five receptions for 83 yards (second-most on the team) and had a long reception of 25 yards. Made several spectacular catches throughout the course of the game.
- In game 15 vs. BUF, Chrebet had four receptions for 38 yards with a long of 17 yards.
- In game 14 win over IND, he recorded the first 100-yard receiving day by a Jet in 2001 when he hauled in a team-high eight receptions for a team-high 118 yards (14.8 avg.) with a long of 29 yards.
- He had a 16-yard reception on the Jets' go-ahead drive late in the fourth quarter and moved past Wesley Walker and Mickey Shuler into third place on the Jets' career receptions list in game 13 vs. CIN.
- Scored his first TD of the season and the 30th of his career in game 12 at PIT when he hauled in an 18-yard RB option pass from Curtis Martin in the second quarter.
- In game 10, a 24-0 win over the Dolphins in MIA, Chrebet started despite playing with a sore shoulder. The game marked his 100th career regular season NFL game, but didn't record a reception on the day, making it just the third time in his career that he didn't record at least one reception in a game.
- Led the team in both receptions, six, and receiving yardage, 67 yards, in game nine win over KC. He suffered a shoulder injury early in the third quarter and could have returned, but with the game all but decided at the point, he heeded the coaching staff's decision and watched the remainder of the team's 27-7 win from the sidelines.
- Returned to the starting lineup in the Jets' 16-9 win at NO in contest eight and led the team in receptions with four catches and receiving yardage (55 yards).
- Was IA for game seven at CAR due to post-traumatic migraines.
- In game six vs. STL, Chrebet had one reception for six yards. He was subsequently forced out of action after taking a hard hit to the helmet and didn't return to action.

- In game two at NE, Chrebet started at WR and led the team in receptions and receiving yards by virtue of his five for 53 yard outing.

2000 SEASON (JETS)

- Started all 16 regular season games, led the team in receiving yardage (937) and finished third on the team in receptions (69).
- Had a catch in all 16 games and his eight TD tied his career-high, which he also accomplished in 1998.
- Earned two DIRECTV "NFL PLAY OF THE WEEK" awards: in week two vs. NE for his game-winning TD catch in the fourth quarter and in week four at TB for his 18-yard TD catch with :52 left in the game on a HB option from RB Curtis Martin.
- Had five receptions for 97 yards (19.4 avg.) with a long gain of 41 yards in the season finale at BAL., and the reception turned out to be his 400th career reception.
- Moved past George Sauer (4,965 yards) and into fourth place on the Jets' all-time receiving yardage list in game 15 vs. DET.
- Moved past TE Mickey Shuler and into fifth place on the team's all-time receiving yardage list in game 12 vs. CHI.
- Had a huge night with eight receptions for 140 yards in game ten at IND. The 140 yards marked the second time in 2000 he went over the 100-yard mark and the 10th time in his career he accomplished the feat. The 140 yards were the second most in his career and included a long gain of 50 yards, his longest reception of the season.
- Recorded his first 100-yard game of the season in the Jets' thrilling 40-37 OT win vs. the Dolphins on MNF in game seven when he had six receptions for 104 yards-17.3 avg.-28 long and two touchdowns. His second TD came on a 10-yard TD pass from Vinny Testaverde in the second quarter on a diving over-the-shoulder 24-yarder with 3:55 left in the game to knot the score at 30-30, capping a 23-point deficit erased in the fourth quarter by the Jets. He then helped set up John Hall's game-winning 40-yard FG in OT with a 28-yard catch-and-run. In the game, he moved ahead of TE-WR Richard Caster for seventh place among Jets receivers in receiving yardage on the night.
- Scored the game-winning TD in the team's 21-17 comeback win over the Bucs at Raymond James Stadium in game four at TB on an 18-yard pass from RB Curtis Martin with :52 left in the fourth quarter, capping a 14-point comeback in the fourth quarter. He finished with two receptions for 32 yards and a TD.

1999 SEASON (JETS)

- Had 48 receptions for 631 yards in the 11 games he played and started in, to go along with three TD.
- Was second on the team in each respective category (receptions and receiving yardage).
- Was 1A for games one through five after suffering a broken bone in his foot during the team's preseason finale vs. MIN that required the insertion of a pin to aid in the healing.

- Moved into fifth place on the team's all-time reception chart when he hauled in his first catch (326th reception) in game 15 at MIA. He tied for the team high in receptions with three and had a team-high 62 yards in the Jets 38-31 win.
- Put the Jets up for good in the fourth quarter when he hauled in a 50-yard TD pass from QB Ray Lucas and eclipsed the 4,000-yard mark for his career on the evening.
- Had his first 100-yard receiving day of the season in game 14 at DAL and the first since game 14 of the '98 campaign when he had a team-high eight receptions for 108 yards in the 22-21 win.
- In game 12 at NYG, he moved from eighth place into sixth place on the team's all-time receptions list, passing Rob Moore and George Sauer, on the heels of his 7-84-2 TD performance.
- Had three receptions for 37 yards in the team's 17-7 win over BUF (his first reception of the day was the 300th of his career).
- Returned to the starting line-up in game six vs. IND and had five receptions (tied for team-high) for a team-high 51 yards.

1998 SEASON (JETS)

- Recorded his first 1,000-yard season receiving when he was 75-1083-14.4 avg.-63t long-8 TD.
- His five 100-yard games were second most in the AFC and his 75 receptions placed him eighth in the club record books for most catches in a season.
- Also caught 26 passes on third downs for 412 yards, a 15.8 avg. and four TD, placing him third in the AFC and sixth in the NFL in that category.
- Teamed with WR Keyshawn Johnson to lead the league in receptions as the tandem finished with 158-2,214-14.0-18 TD.
- Found himself back in a starting role and played and started all 16 games.
- Had a stellar performance leading the team in receptions and yards going 8-121 in the AFC Championship game at DEN.
- Snared four passes for 45 yards in his first career playoff game in the AFC Divisional Playoffs vs. JAX.
- Recorded his fifth 100-yard receiving game going 5-105-1 TD in game 14 at MIA and his totals put him over 1,000 yards on the season, the first time in his career he accomplished the feat.
- Had a big day with 7-107-2 TD, his fourth 100-yard game of the season and sixth of his career in game 12 vs. CAR.
- Had four catches, and a team-high 112 yards in game ten at IND, including a 63-yard TD catch, the longest scoring play of his career.
- Had his second 100-yard game of the season, when he was 6-101 in game eight win at KC, including the third longest reception of his career, a 56-yard grab from Testaverde (his sixth catch tied him with Richard Caster tied for ninth place on the team's all-time reception list with 245 at KC).
- Started the season off by hauling in six catches for 125 yards and a TD at SF.

1997 SEASON (JETS)

- The Jets' trio of WR (K. Johnson, Chrebet and Jeff Graham) tied for the third most receptions in the AFC in 1997 with 170-2,304-13.6-10 TD, trailing only the JAX and BAL receiving trios.
- Played in 16 games with one start and was 58-799-13.8 avg.-3 TD with his career long reception (70 yards).

- Had his streak of at least a reception in each game snapped at 45 when he was shut out in game 14 vs. IND.
- Started at WR in place of Graham in game 11 at CHI and had two receptions for 12 yards.
- Also recovered the Bears' attempted on-side kick with the Jets holding onto a 23-15 lead.
- Had the longest reception of his career in the first quarter of game seven vs. MIA when he caught a 70-yard pass from QB Neil O'Donnell and took it to the MIA one-yard line, setting up Leon Johnson's first career rushing TD.
- Was involved in a controversial play at the end of the game (contest nine at MIA), when on a fourth-and-five situation from the MIA 30, he caught a six-yard pass from QB Glenn Foley and stretched for extra yardage. The official ruled it wasn't a catch and that Chrebet didn't have possession of the football.
- In game nine vs. MIA, had his first 100-yard day of the season when he caught four passes for 104 yards.
- Was 3-73-2 TD receiving in 41-3 opening day win at SEA, the first multiple TD game of his career. The first TD came on an over-the-shoulder 35-yard grab from O'Donnell on the team's first possession and his second TD came on a 31-yard catch and run in the third quarter.

1996 SEASON (JETS)

- Continued to build on the success of his rookie season with team-leading 84-909-10.8-3 TD receiving.
- Finished sixth in the AFC and tied for 13th in the NFL in receptions and was 14th in the AFC and 28th in the NFL in receiving yards despite starting just nine games, and playing in 16.
- His 84 receptions placed him third in team history for most receptions in a season.
- Started the final three games in place of the injured Graham (turf toe).
- Had a team-high 10 receptions for 75 yards in game 12 at BUF, four of the catches going for first downs.
- Started vs. BUF in game eight and was 6-73 receiving, including a diving TD grab with time winding down to tie the score at 22 and force OT.
- Had the best day of his career with 12-162 in game seven at JAX.
- He produced eight first downs in that game.
- His totals were the most by a Jet since Al Toon's 14-181 vs. MIA on 11/27/88.
- Saw duties as the team's punt returner and had 28 returns for 133 yards for a 4.8 avg. and 16 fair catches.

1995 SEASON (JETS)

- Earned all-rookie honors from College & Pro Football Newsweekly.
- Finished second among all NFL rookies in receptions (SEA's Joey Galloway had 67) with 66-726-11.0-4 TD.
- Was fourth among all rookies in yards gained, fourth in average gain and third in TD receptions.
- The receptions were the most ever by a Jets rookie and the yards were second only to Wesley Walker's 740 yards in 1977.
- His four TD tied him for second behind Rob Moore's six in 1990.

- Was one of two Jets offensive players to start all 16 games and finished ninth in the AFC in receptions and 18th in receiving yards.
- Led the team in receiving yards and was second in receptions to Adrian Murrell's 71.
- Became Jets' all-time rookie receptions leader (broke record of 56 set by Matt Snell in 1964) with 4-45 in game 14 at NE.
- Broke Toon's team record for receptions by a rookie WR (46 in 1985) with 8-98 performance in game 13 vs. STL.
- Turned in a highlight film play when he beat four Falcon defenders to turn a five-yard pass into a 32-yard gain to the ATL goal line in game four.
- Caught his first NFL TD on a five-yard pass from QB Boomer Esiason in game two vs. IND.
- Earned his first NFL start in game one at MIA and responded with 3-43 receiving, including his first career reception and a diving grab of a 27-yard Esiason pass in the first quarter.

COLLEGE/HIGH SCHOOL

- Tied Jerry Rice's NCAA record for TD receptions in a game with five vs. Delaware as a senior.
- Was a two-year starter and four-year letterman who set school records for TD in a game (five), season (16) and career (31) and the single game yardage mark (245 vs. Delaware).
- At the time of his departure from school, was second on the Pride's all-time receptions and yards list.

HOW OBTAINED

- Signed with the Jets as a free agent on March 20, 2003 after being released by the San Diego Chargers on February 27, 2003. Signed as an unrestricted free agent with the Chargers on February 22, 2000. Was originally selected with the seventh overall selection in the 1993 NFL Draft by the Chicago Bears after declaring himself eligible following his junior season at USC. He went on to play seven seasons (1993-1999) prior to experiencing NFL free agency.

CAREER

- A veteran of 135 regular season games, with 124 starts, Conway has racked up 510 career receptions for 7,187 yards for a 14.1 average with 47 touchdown receptions. In addition, has recorded 24 career receptions of over 40 yards.
- Has three 1,000-yard receiving seasons to his credit, including a career-high 1,125 yards in 2001 with the Chargers.
- Has had six seasons, out of a possible 10, in which he has recorded at least 50 receptions.
- Has only missed five games the past three seasons (two in 2000 and three in 2002 due to a broken collarbone) and has recorded 181 receptions for 2,689 yards for a 14.9 average and 16 touchdowns.
- Owns 50 career rushing attempts for 465 yards for a 9.3 average and three touchdowns.
- Has played in two postseason games, both starts for the Bears in 1994, and caught seven passes for 81 yards for an 11.6 average.
- Has 21 100-yard receiving games throughout his career.

2002 (SD)

- Started 13 games for the Chargers and finished the season as the Chargers' receiving yardage (852) leader and his 57 receptions placed him second on the team to RB LaDainian Tomlinson's 79.
- Missed games 12, 13 and 16 due to a fractured scapula and battled through the injury to see limited playing time in games 14 and 15.
- Surpassed 7,000-career yard mark with season-high 152-yard effort on seven catches against SF.
- The 152 yards were four yards shy of his career-high, and didn't include a 35-yard touchdown pass that was nullified due to an illegal touching penalty.

- Caught the 500th pass of his career against STL.
- Caught his fifth TD pass of the season against the NYJ.
- Had 129 yards on eight receptions against KC.
- Also scored a TD on an 11-yard reverse against the Chiefs.
- Had a season-long 52-yard TD pass against NE.
- Had a team-high 113 yards and a touchdown against HOU.
- Posted a 35-yard touchdown catch on the opening series of the season and added a three-yard touchdown run on reverse in the first quarter against CIN in the season opener.

HOW OBTAINED

- Signed with the Jets as a free agent on March 5, 2002.

CAREER

- A second round draft choice of the Buffalo Bills in 1998 (39th player selected overall), Cowart has played in 61 career regular season games, making 56 starts, and has recorded 641 tackles, 18 passes defended, eight-and-a-half sacks, four interceptions for 27 yards, four forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries.
- Has eclipsed the 100-tackle plateau in four out of the five seasons that he has played in the NFL, including a team-high 154 tackles in 2002, his first season with the Jets.
- Missed the final 15 games of the 2001 season after suffering a torn Achilles tendon.
- Has played both inside linebacker (in a 3-4 set in Buffalo in 1998-2000), and outside (2001-present) during his career.

- A veteran of four NFL postseason contests, Cowart has collected 38 tackles and a pass defended during the playoffs.

2002 (JETS)

- Tallied seven tackles (three solo) and a PD in the AFC Divisional Playoff loss at OAK.
- Recorded two solo tackles in the 41-0 win over IND in the AFC Wild Card game.
- Started all 16 games at WLB and led the Jets in tackles in 10 of those games. He led the team for the season with 154 tackles (104 solo), also recording two sacks and eight PD.
- Tallied nine tackles (four solo) and a PD in the game 16 win over GB.
- Tied for the team lead with nine tackles (eight solo) in the win at NE in game 15.
- Repeated his season best and led the team with 14 tackles (eight solo), including a sack of Leon Johnson on RB option pass in the second quarter at CHI in game 14.
- Tallied a season high 14 tackles (eight solo) in the win over DEN in game 13, including his 600th career stop.
- Totaled nine tackles (four solo), including one for loss and a PD in game 12 at OAK, going over the 100-tackle mark for the season.
- Shared the team lead with ten tackles (four solo), including one for a loss, in the win over BUF in game 11.
- Had seven solo tackles and a PD in the game 10 31-14 win at DET.
- Received co-defensive player of the game honors when he recorded 10 tackles (seven solo) against MIA in the game nine 13-10 win. Two of those tackles came behind the line, including a stop of RB Ricky Williams for a six-yard loss, and he added two PD on the night.
- Tied for the team lead with seven tackles (five solo) in the game eight win at SD.
- Turned in a team high 11 tackles (10 solo), including one for a loss and a PD in the game seven loss to CLE.
- Led the team with 10 tackles (seven solo) in game six against MIN.
- Had six tackles (four solo) and broke up a pass in the end zone in game five against KC, his 50th career game played.
- Recorded five tackles (four solo) and a seven-yard sack of WR Patrick Johnson on a reverse pass play in game four at JAX.
- Tied for the team lead with 10 tackles (all solo), including one for loss in game three at MIA.
- Turned in his second consecutive double-digit tackle day, recording 10 stops (eight solo) in game two against NE. Two of his tackles came behind the line of scrimmage, including dropping TE Daniel Graham for a loss of six yards on a screen pass.
- Had an impressive showing in his Jets' debut in game one at BUF, his former team, totaling 13 tackles (six solo), one tackle for loss, and a PD.
- Recorded his 500th career tackle in the fourth quarter of game one at BUF.

HOW OBTAINED

- Selected by the Jets in the first round (12th overall) in the 2000 NFL Draft. He was the first of the Jets' unprecedented four first round draft choices in 2000 and was joined by DE John Abraham (#13), QB Chad Pennington (#18) and TE Anthony Becht (#27). The 12th overall pick was obtained by the Jets from the Carolina Panthers through Washington and San Francisco for the Jets' first round draft choice (#16) and their second round draft choice (#48 overall).

CAREER

- Shaun Ellis enters the 2003 season having not missed one game over the course of his first three NFL seasons. The former Tennessee Volunteer has played in all 48 regular season contests and made 33 starts, primarily at the LDE spot in the Jets' four-three defensive front.
- He has recorded 161 career tackles, along with 17.5 sacks, 10 passes defensed, four forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries.
- His 17.5 sacks over the last three seasons are the second most on the team in that time span, trailing only John Abraham's 27.5 sacks.
- Has also started all three postseason contests he has appeared in with the Jets and racked up 11 tackles in postseason duty.

2002 SEASON (JETS)

- Tallied five tackles in the AFC Divisional Playoff loss at OAK.
- Recorded three tackles in the AFC Wild Card game win over IND.
- Started all 16 games at DE and recorded 49 tackles, four sacks, six PD and a FF on the year.
- Closed the regular season with a fine performance, totaling four tackles including a seven-yard sack of Packers QB Brett Favre in the first quarter of the division-clinching 42-17 win over GB in game 16.
- Spent time in the Patriots' backfield, teaming with John Abraham on a six-yard sack of QB Tom Brady in the first quarter, and added four tackles and two QB pressures in the 30-17 game 15 win at NE.
- Notched a three-yard sack of QB Chris Chandler, his lone tackle to go along with a tipped pass at CHI in game 14.
- Had three tackles in the game 13 win over DEN.

- Was very active in game 12 at OAK, leading all Jets' defensive linemen with six tackles, including a first quarter seven-yard sack of QB Rich Gannon and adding a PD.
- Tallied three tackles and had two QB pressures against BUF in game 11.
- Had two tackles, one for a loss, and two QB pressures in the win at DET in game 10.
- Totaled three solo tackles, including one for a loss and two QB pressures in the game nine win over MIA.
- Named co-defensive player of the game by the team against SD.
- Recorded two solo tackles, including one for a loss, forced a fumble, had a QB pressure and batted a pass in the game eight win at SD.
- Registered one tackle, two PD and a QB pressure against CLE in game seven.
- Had two tackles and batted a pass in game six against MIN.
- Turned in four tackles against KC in game five.
- Totaled five tackles in game four loss at JAX.
- Recorded four tackles and a QB pressure in game three at MIA.
- Had two solo tackles in game two against NE.
- Started the season opener at BUF at DE and recorded three solo tackles and teamed with DT Jason Ferguson on a 10-yard sack of QB Drew Bledsoe in the third quarter.

2001 SEASON (JETS)

- Began the 2001 training camp experimenting at defensive tackle in the team's re-vamped four-three defensive front but was switched back to defensive end after the season opener.
- Played in all 16 games and made 15 starts (missed game five start vs. MIA due to a strained hip muscle) and made 59 tackles, five sacks (second most on the team), two forced fumbles and one pass defended.
- In the AFC Wild Card game at OAK, he started at LDE and recorded three tackles.
- Game 16 win at OAK, Ellis played well throughout the game, collecting five tackles and applying good pressure on QB Rich Gannon on numerous opportunities.
- Had a season-high eight tackles and sacked Steelers QB Kordell Stewart for a three-yard loss in game 12 at PIT.
- In game 11 vs. NE, Ellis had three tackles, a PD and recorded his fourth sack of the season when he sacked QB Tom Brady for a seven-yard loss.
- Started at LDE in the team's dominating 24-0 win over the Dolphins in game 10 and had three tackles and two hits on the QB, helping the defense force five takeaways on the day and was part of a defensive unit that shut out the Dolphins in MIA for the first time since 1970.
- Game nine vs. KC, Ellis recorded six tackles and spilt a sack on Trent Green with fellow DE John Abraham in the team's 27-7 win over the Chiefs.
- Game eight win at NO, Ellis had five tackles, sacked QB Aaron Brooks for a three-yard loss and was instrumental in limiting the Saints to 246 yards of total offense and keeping RB Ricky Williams in check carrying the ball (19-58-3.1 avg.).
- Despite suffering a strained hip muscle in the pre-game stretching in game five vs. MIA that kept him out of the starting lineup, Ellis turned in perhaps his finest performance of the young season when he made six tackles, and forced a Lamar Smith fumble on the Dolphins' first play of the third quarter that was recovered by Marvin Jones at the MIA 27 yard-line. The Jets capitalized on the next play with a 27-yard TD run by Curtis Martin to close the team's deficit to 17-14. He was credited with a sack and a half on the day, teaming with DT Steve Martin and then bringing Jay Fiedler down for a three-yard loss on the Dolphins last drive and was credited with two QB pressures on the day.

- In game two at NE, Ellis moved back to LDE and had responded with four tackles and a forced fumble in the team's win.
- Started the season at LDT in game one and had two tackles.

2000 SEASON (JETS)

- Led all DL in sacks with eight and a half sacks which places him second among all-time Jets rookie sack leaders behind only Hugh Douglas' 10 in 1995, and tackles with 53 despite only starting the final two games and played in more plays than any other Jets defensive lineman.
- Had 16 tackles and two sacks in his two starts.
- Broke through the so-called "rookie wall" at MIA in game 11 with two tackles, a sack, an INT and two PD.
- Recorded two tackles, a sack and a FR at NE in game six.
- Helped the team rally from behind vs. NE in the second game of the season with two fourth quarter sacks.
- Registered his first professional sack in the season opener at GB when he stripped Brett Favre of the ball and he finished the game with three tackles, a FF, and a FR.

COLLEGE/HIGH SCHOOL

- Finished his collegiate career with 105 tackles, 12.5 sacks, three FF, a FR and an INT which he returned 90 yards and a TD.
- Was selected all-SEC first-team as a senior at Tennessee when he started every game at LDE and recorded 42 tackles and led the team with eight-and-a-half sacks for minus 82 yards and 11 stops for losses of 25 yards.
- Also had a PD and two FR.
- In his junior year he recorded 40 tackles, a sack, and six stops for losses of 25 yards and had a FR, an INT and a PD.
- Advanced a FR 65 yards to set up a TD drive vs. UAB.
- Named SEC Defensive Player of the Week after he returned an INT 90 yards for a touchdown, the fourth-longest INT return in school history.
- Academic all-SEC pick in his sophomore year.
- Ranked among the nation's top 100 prospects by Scholastic Coach Magazine, adding all-state honors twice and all-region accolades three times at Westside (Anderson, SC) HS.
- His team went 12-2 his senior season, reaching the state semifinals.
- In his senior season, he had 174 tackles, including 35 sacks.
- Against Dorman HS, he had 19 tackles and seven sacks.
- A four-year starter who played DE, OLB, DT and TE.
- All-state selection in basketball as a junior.

OFF-THE-FIELD

- Sociology major at Tennessee.
- Enjoys playing video games and listening to R&B and rap music.

- Nicknamed the “Big Cat.”
- Enjoys watching basketball, and cites the LA Lakers as his favorite team and Shaquille O’Neal as his favorite player.
- Has teamed up with the Muscular Dystrophy Association’s “Muscle Team” the past three seasons.
- Shaun Ellis is a member of the Muscular Dystrophy Association’s Muscle Team. As a member of the Muscle Team he is paired with an MDA Buddy, a local child affected by neuromuscular disease, to create awareness and raise much needed funds for MDA. Shaun has formed a special bond with his buddy who attends games and practices.

HOW OBTAINED

- Selected by the Jets in the fourth round (111th selection overall) of the 1998 NFL Draft.

CAREER

- Jason Fabini, a mainstay on the Jets' offensive line since his arrival via the draft in 1998, has been a key component in the Jets' offensive success the past five seasons and has been an invaluable part of running back Curtis Martin's team-record five consecutive 1,000 yard rushing seasons.
- Has started every game he has played in on the pro level (73 regular season games) after beginning his career as a RT (1998 and 1999) and then switching to LT prior to the team's 2000 training camp.
- Has also started five postseason contests in his career.
- Was named the winner of the 2000 Ed Block Courage Award in vote by his teammates after he battled back from a serious knee injury that cost him the second half of the 1999 season.
- Started the first 24 games of his career at RT and the 25th at LT before suffering a season-ending knee injury in game nine at NE (1999).
- As a rookie in 1998, he did an excellent job of stepping into a starting role, starting all 16 games, plus the team's two postseason games (including AFC Championship game at DEN).
- In doing so, he became the first Jets rookie offensive lineman to play and start in all 16 games since LT Chris Ward in 1978, and became the first rookie RT to start in all 16 games since Marvin Powell accomplished the feat in 1977.

2002 SEASON (JETS)

- Started at LT and blocked for the team's 120 yards on the ground in the AFC Divisional Playoff loss at OAK.
- Was the starting LT and played a part in the team's 180 rushing yards in the 41-0 win over IND in the AFC Wild Card playoff game.
- Started at LT in all 16 games, starting every game for the fourth time in his five career seasons.
- Led the way for Curtis Martin's 106 rushing yards and kept Chad Pennington sack-free in the 30-17 win at NE in game 15.
- Helped lead the way for Curtis Martin's season-best 127 yards rushing at CHI in game 14.
- Played a role in blocking for Curtis Martin's second consecutive 100-yard game in the game 11 win over MIA.

- Was part of a line that led the way for Curtis Martin's 112-yard day and the team's season high 189 yards rushing in the game 10 win at DET.
- Part of an offensive line that paved the way for the team's 165 yards on the ground and RB LaMont Jordan's first career 100-yard game in the game eight win at SD.
- Started at LT and moved to RT in the second half of the game seven loss to CLE following an injury to starting RT Kareem McKenzie.
- Started at LT against KC in game five and helped to lead Curtis Martin to his first 100-yard game of the season.
- Started games one through four at LT.

2001 SEASON (JETS)

- Started all 16 games at LT and the Jets' postseason game at OAK and provided a consistently high level of play all season.
- Was a key component to the team's dominance in the running game, as Martin rushed for a club-record 1,513 yards.
- Also part of an offensive line that surrendered the fewest sacks in the AFC (19) and were second in the NFL only to CHI's 16 sacks allowed.
- The Jets' offensive line shut-down opposing pass rushers on seven different occasions in 2001, including a streak of four straight games late in the season (games 12-15).
- In the AFC Wild Card game at OAK he started at left tackle and helped the Jets offense to 410 yards of total yardage (136 rushing & 274 passing).
- Game 16 win at OAK that propelled the Jets into the postseason, Fabini helped the Jets offense to 302 yards of total offense and a 46% third down conversion rate.
- In game 15 vs. BUF, he and the rest of the offensive line helped the Jets to 375 yards of offense and kept Vinny Testaverde sack free for the fourth consecutive game, the longest streak in team history without a sack.
- In game 14 win at IND, Fabini and the rest of the O-line performed exceptionally well on the night, keeping Testaverde sack free for the third straight game in the Jets' 29-28 win.
- From his starting left tackle spot in game 13 win over CIN, Fabini and the rest of the offensive line helped the Jets to 309 yards of offense and shut out the Bengals pass rush, he matched up often with impressive rookie DE Justin Smith and held him without a sack and limited his production.
- Started at LT in game 12 at PIT and was part of an offensive line that didn't allow a sack against the formidable Steelers defense.
- In game 10 24-0 win over the Dolphins in MIA, was part of an offensive line that didn't allow Testaverde to be sacked despite playing against the formidable MIA pass rush.
- In game nine win over KC, Fabini matched up against DE Duane Clemons and virtually shut down the defensive end, allowing him just one assisted tackle.
- Played and started in his 50th career regular season game against KC.
- Helped lead the Jets' offense to 353 yards of total offense, including opening holes for Martin's 113 yards and three TD rushing day, Martin's fifth century-mark day of the season.
- The offensive line didn't allow a sack on the day and passed for 179 yards.
- Game eight win at NO, Fabini helped power the Jets rushing attack to 142 yards on 34 carries (4.2 avg.) against the highly-regarded Saints defensive front.

- In game seven win at CAR, Fabini and the offensive line teamed up for Curtis Martin's fourth 100-yard game of the 2001 season, (27-159-5.9 avg.) and helped the Jets offense to 386 yards of total offense.
- In game five, a comeback win over MIA, Fabini matched up with DE Jason Taylor and helped power the Jets to a 21-17 win with outstanding pass protection (Testaverde (15-22-168-2 TD-0 INT) and opened holes for Curtis Martin's third 100-yard game of the season (22-120-5.5 avg.-1 TD).
- From his starting LT spot in game four at BUF, Fabini helped power the way for Martin's 135 yards rushing on 26 carries (5.2 yards) and two TD and helped keep Testaverde sack-free on the day and time to throw for 173 yards and a pair of scores in the team's 42-36 win.

GLENN'S SPECIAL DELIVERY: Jason Glenn displayed his versatility when the Jets played the Bears in Champaign, Illinois on Dec. 15, 2002. After boarding the team buses on Saturday, the 14th at 12:15 p.m. at the Jets' Weeb Ewbank Hall training complex in Hempstead, N.Y. en route to LaGuardia Airport in Queens, Glenn found out that his wife, Terrika Glenn, had gone into labor. Upon the team's arrival at the airport, Glenn borrowed the car of Jets' Vice President of Operations Mike Kensil and drove to a Long Island hospital, where his wife delivered their first child, daughter Kaidance Glenn, at 11:25 p.m. The youngest Glenn weighed in at six pounds, ten ounces and measured 20 inches long.

Glenn departed New York's LaGuardia Airport on the first flight to Chicago the following morning (8:30 a.m.) and arrived at Chicago's O'Hare International Airport at 9:40 a.m. central. He made the 10:40 a.m. connecting flight to Champaign's Willard Airport and landed at 11:15 a.m. A local police officer met him at the airport and transported him to Memorial Stadium.

Glenn sprinted down the field on the opening kickoff and made the dropped return man Ahmad Merritt at the Bears' 17 yard line after a 13-yard kickoff return.

- Converted 10 of 12 third-and-one rushing situations and also produced 87 first downs, second in the AFC to Holmes' 92 and third in the NFL to Marshall Faulk's 98.
- AFC Wild Card game at OAK, Martin started at RB and rushed the ball 16 times for 106 yards (third career 100-yard rushing game in the postseason, second time as a Jet) and added six receptions for 34 yards with a long gain of 20-yards.
- Battled hard throughout the day in game 16 at OAK on 16 carries for 50 yards and three receptions for eight yards receiving in the Jets' thrilling 24-22 comeback win over the Raiders. The win propelled the Jets into the playoffs in the face of a must-win situation and lost just his second fumble of the season in the season-finale after being stripped by Eric Allen at the OAK 29 after a four-yard run.
- Game 15 vs. BUF, Martin rushed for his seventh 100-yard game of the season via his 20-123 yards performance. He broke off his longest run of the season in the second quarter when he scampered 47-yards and then added five receptions for 47 yards in the receiving department, giving him 170 yards from scrimmage on the day.
- Game 14 at IND, Martin was one of the stars of the game, rushing for his sixth 100-yard game of the season (23-122-5.3 avg. with a long of 29 yards) and had six receptions for 47 yards.
- Involved in a key play late in the game when he took off and followed a scrambling Vinny Testaverde and just before Testaverde was going to be hit, took a lateral from the QB after he had picked up 12-yards, and scampered an additional 11-yards, putting the Jets at the IND 21. Three plays later the Jets scored the game winning TD.
- In game 13 vs. CIN, Martin toted the ball 24 times for 78 yards (3.3 avg.) with a long of 19 yards and added two receptions for 31 yards with a long of 27 yards, coming on a second-and-25 which he turned into a first down. The 27-yard reception was his longest catch of the season.
- Moved into second place on the team's all-time rushing list, passing Emerson Boozer in game 13.

- Game 12 at PIT, Martin picked up 58 yards on 18 carries against the number one ranked run defense in the NFL and added four receptions for 29 yards in the receiving department and was responsible for the Jets' lone TD strike of the day when he took a RB option and threw a perfect strike to WR Wayne Chrebet who had snuck behind Steeler defenders and snatched an 18-yard pass to narrow the scoring to 9-7. Late in game 12, Martin became just the fourth player in NFL history to rush 250 times in seven consecutive seasons.
- Became just the third player in NFL history to begin his career with seven straight 1,000-yard seasons when he rushed the ball 20 times for 99 yards in game 11 vs. NE. The 1,000-yard season was his fourth straight as a Jet, the first time in franchise history a player has posted four straight 1,000-yard seasons. And went over the 5,000-yard rushing mark in a Jets uniform, joining Freeman McNeil and Emerson Boozer as the only players in Jets history to have accomplished that feat.
- Hit the 1,000-yard mark on his 218th carry, which was the third fewest in club history.
- In game ten, a 24-0 win over MIA at Pro Player Stadium, Martin had 18 carries for 66 yards rushing, with a long of 20-yards and led the team in receptions, with five, for 13 yards with a long of four yards and helped the Jets play mistake free football against the Dolphins.
- Had his fifth 100-yard game of the season in game nine win over KC when he carried the ball 20 times for 113 yards (5.7 avg.) and three TD. The three TD matched a career-high (accomplished one other time in the regular season (vs. MIA, 10-15-00) and in 1996 in playoff game vs. PIT (w/ NE) and passed Jim Taylor to move into 16th place on the NFL's all-time career rushing list.
- Once again proved to be the Jets' work-horse in Jets game seven win at CAR when he carried the ball 27 times for 159 yards, a 5.9 avg. with highlight film runs of 30 and 36 yards. He moved into 17th place on the NFL's all-time rushing list, moving past Joe Perry and Marshall Faulk. The 100-yard game was his fourth of the season, 35th career and 21st as a Jet. He added seven receptions (tying him for team-high with Laveranues Coles) for 39 yards with a long of 17-yards.
- Pounded out his third 100-yard game of the season when he rushed 22 times for 120 yards (5.5 avg.) with a long gain of 27-yards and a TD in game five vs. MIA and added two receptions for 16 yards with a long of nine yards in the receiving area. He ripped off a 27-yard TD run in the third quarter to pull the Jets to within three points after trailing 17-0 at the half. The 100-yard game was the 34th of Martin's career, his 20th as a Jet and the yardage moved him into the NFL's top 20 rushers of all-time, passing Roger Craig, Herschel Walker and Earnest Byner.
- Rushed for his 33rd career 100-yard game in game four at BUF when he had 26 carries for 135 yards (5.2 avg.) with a long of 17-yards and two TD and added two receptions for 18 yards. The two TD came on runs of 16 yards to begin the scoring at 7-0, and followed it with a four-yard score to put the Jets up 28-9 in the second quarter and moved from fifth place into third during the course of the game on the team's all-time rushing list, passing Johnny Hector and Matt Snell, respectively.
- In game three vs. SF, Martin had 20 carries for 76 yards, a 3.8 average and scored on TD runs of two yards and one yard and went over the 8,000-yard mark for his career in the MNF contest vs. the 49ers.

- In game two at NE against his former team, Martin was the star of the game, rushing 24 times for 106 yards and recording three receptions for ten yards and scored the deciding TD on an eight-yard rush in the third quarter when he sliced through the middle of the line and dragged defenders into the end zone. The 106-yard game marked the 32nd career 1,000-yard game of his career and his 20th with the Jets. He eclipsed the 10,000-yards from scrimmage mark late in the game.

2000 SEASON (JETS)

- Voted Jets' MVP by his teammates for the second straight year, making him just the third player in team history to win the award in consecutive seasons.

- Set a NE franchise record with his sixth consecutive game with a TD when he scored against DEN.
- That TD marked the 30th TD of his career, in 27 contests, and marked the fourth quickest start in NFL history after Gayle Sayers (23 games), Steve Van Buren (23) and Jim Brown (26).
- Scored a TD the following week vs. IND to extend his scoring streak to a franchise-record three games.
- Tied a franchise record, shared by Mosi Tatupu, Tony Collins and Sam Cunningham, by rushing for three TD in win over MIA.
- His three TD effort set a club-record for most consecutive games with a TD.
- Had a season-high 164 yards on 17 carries vs. WAS.
- Tied a franchise record by scoring three TD (one rushing and two receiving) in 31-0 win over ARZ when he was 27-90 rushing and 5-33 receiving and chipped in with a two-point conversion (the first of his career).

1995 SEASON (NE)

- Regarded by most as the biggest surprise of the 1995 season.
- Was the 74th player selected overall in the 1995 draft, after having to sit out his fourth season at Pittsburgh due to an ankle injury.
- Of the nine RB selected before him that season, only Rashaan Salaam (CHI) eclipsed the 1,000-yard mark rushing as a rookie.

- By the end of the season, Martin was widely regarded as the most dominant AFC RB.
- Rushed 368 times for 1,487 yards and 14 rushing TD and set franchise records in each category. He produced the best rookie rushing performance in the NFL since Eric Dickerson of the LA Rams in 1983.
- Only Dickerson (1,808), George Rogers (1,674 in 1981) and Ottis Anderson (1,605 yards in 1979) rushed for more yards in their rookie campaigns than Martin, and only Dickerson (18) and Ickey Woods (15) rushed for more TD.
- Earned Rookie of the Year honors and was the only rookie chosen to represent the AFC in the Pro Bowl.
- Set franchise rookie rushing records in every major category and tied an NFL rookie record by eclipsing the 100-yard mark in nine games.
- Started 15-of-16 games.
- His 103-yard outing in the season finale tied the NFL mark and also marked the fifth consecutive 100-yard game for Martin.
- Led the AFC in rushing and trailed only Emmitt Smith (1,773) and Barry Sanders (1,500) in the NFL.
- Only Smith (25) and SEA RB Chris Warren (15) rushed for more TD, and only Smith (377) rushed more times than Martin.
- His 1,487 yards out-distanced nine other AFC teams in total rushing yards.
- Became the first rookie to lead the AFC in rushing since Curt Warner in 1983.
- Earned virtually every award possible, including Associated Press and Pro Football Writers' Association Rookie of the Year honors.
- Was a consensus all-rookie team selection and received multiple all-AFC team honors.
- Was voted to the Pro Bowl as a second team selection.
- Closed out the season at IND with his fifth consecutive 100-yard day when he had 24 carries for 103 yards, the most yards allowed rushing by IND all season.
- Returned to his hometown of Pittsburgh and rushed 20 times for 120 yards, the most yards allowed by PIT all season and just the third time they allowed a 100-yard rusher all season.
- In the team's second meeting with the NYJ he toted the ball 31 times for 148 yards and two TD.
- Was 27-148 in win over BUF.
- Followed up with 31-112-2 TD vs. NO.
- Totaled 187 net yards of offense, including a 142 yard, two TD rushing performance on 30 carries in win over MIA.
- Vs. NYJ, he rushed for a season-high 166 yards and two TD on 35 carries and caught one pass for 22 yards. His 36 attempts placed him second in team history to Jim Nance's 38 carries in 1966.
- Vs. BUF he carried the ball 36 times in a Monday night game for 127 yards, including a 20-yard TD run in the first quarter.
- Became the first Patriot to rush for 100 yards in his professional debut.
- Also became the first Patriots RB to eclipse the 100-yard mark since Leonard Russell accomplished the feat on 12/26/93.
- Began his career in fine fashion vs. CLE when he took the opening hand-off and scampered 30 yards before being pushed out of bounds.
- Scored the game-winning TD in that contest on a second-effort dive with just 19 seconds remaining and closed out the scoring at 21-17 and finished with 19 carries and 103 yards.

COLLEGE/HIGH SCHOOL

- Lettered three years at Pittsburgh.
- Voted preseason All-America and All-Big East Conference entering his senior season, but suffered a season-ending ankle injury in his second game of the season vs. Ohio (9/10) and was red-shirted.
- Totaled 282 yards and a TD on 36 carries prior to his injury.
- Opened the season with a 251-yard effort on 28 carries vs. Texas.
- Against Ohio was 8-31 rushing before he severely sprained his ankle.
- Declared himself eligible for the 1995 draft instead of returning for his red-shirt senior season.
- As a junior earned honorable mention All-America honors from Football News.
- Also earned first team all-Big East honors after starting 10 games and rushing for 1,075 yards and seven TD.
- Was the first Pittsburgh RB to break the 1,000-yard mark since Curvin Richards gained 1,282 in 1989.
- Eclipsed the 1,000-yard mark on a spectacular run in the season finale vs. Temple when he broke free on an 80-yard TD scamper that clinched the victory.
- Led all Pittsburgh receivers with 33 receptions for 249 yards and a TD.
- Averaged 128.5 all-purpose yards per game.
- In the season finale vs. Syracuse, Martin erupted for 206 yards and a TD on 37 carries.
- As a sophomore, he started four of 10 games and finished the season with 158 carries-730 yards and five TD.
- Also caught 33 passes for 317 yards and a TD.
- As a freshman rushed for 566 yards and two TD on 114 carries and caught 20 passes for 179 yards.
- Didn't play high school football until his senior year, when he rushed for 1,705 yards and 20 TD on 229 carries.
- Rushed for over 200 yards four times.
- Earned all-state recognition and was voted the City League Player of the Year (1990) by The Pittsburgh Post-Gazette and The Pittsburgh Press.
- Named MVP of the Pennsylvania-Maryland "Big 33" all-star game following his senior season of high school.
- Was named Taylor-Allderdice H.S. Athlete of the Year as a senior.

OFF-THE-FIELD

- An avid art collector, Curtis has amassed an inspiring collection of work with some pieces dating back as far as the 17th century.
- Believes that the scale is the object the best represents his personality because of its balance.
- Was active in the Club's community relations programs in 2002.
- Met with and spoke to Maurice Ashley's 2002 New York State Champion Dark Knights chess team of Mott Hall Middle School in Harlem.
- Talked to the Roosevelt High School football team after they suffered a loss of one of their own, when a former student died of gunshots wounds.
- Purchased 45 tickets for the members of Roosevelt's football team to attend the Club's 42-17 division clinching victory over the Green Bay Packers.
- Majored in public administration at Pittsburgh.

HOW OBTAINED

- Signed with the Jets as an unrestricted free agent on February 29, 1998.
- Selected by SEA in the second round (36th overall) of the 1994 draft.

CAREER

- Has earned four consecutive Pro Bowl (1999-2002) starts for the AFC squad, a testament to his consistently outstanding play.
- Is one of the most fleet-footed offensive linemen in the game and possesses the longest current streak of games started among NFL C (139 games) entering the 2003 season.
- Has been selected to 12 All-Pro teams in the past three seasons (AP, Pro Football Weekly, College & Pro Football Newsweekly, Football Digest, Football News, and The Sporting News).
- A tenacious, smart and dependable professional who takes equal pride in pass protection and run blocking, who has shown excellent durability throughout his first nine years in the league, missing only 51 possible snaps throughout his career.
- Made a smooth transition from RG to C during his rookie campaign, and has started the past 139 regular games (59 with SEA and 80 with the Jets).

2002 SEASON (JETS)

- Started all 16 games at C for the eighth season in a row, running his consecutive games started streak to 139 games, including all 80 regular games since signing with the Jets in 1998. He also earned his fourth start in the Pro Bowl in as many years.
- Started at C and helped the team to 120 rushing yards in the AFC Divisional Playoff loss at OAK.
- Was the starting C in the 41-0 win over IND in the AFC Wild Card playoff game, helping to lead the way for the team's 180 rushing yards on the day.
- Blocked for Curtis Martin on his way to 106 rushing yards and helped to keep QB Chad Pennington sack-free in the game 15 win at NE.
- Helped pave the way for Curtis Martin's second consecutive 100-yard rushing day in the game 11 win over BUF.
- Was part of a line that paved the way for Curtis Martin's 100-yard game and the team's season-high 189 yards rushing in the game 10 win at DET.

- Earned offensive player of the game honors in the game nine win over MIA.
- Led the way for RB LaMont Jordan's first 100-yard rushing game as a professional and the team's 165 yards and three TDs on the ground in the game eight win at SD.
- Anchored the offensive line as they helped Curtis Martin to his first 100-yard performance of the year in game five against KC.
- Underwent off-season shoulder surgery to repair damage to his left rotator cuff. Missed two preseason games, but kept his consecutive games started streak alive by making his 124th consecutive start (65th for the Jets) at C in game one at BUF.

2001 SEASON (JETS)

- Mawae started the AFC Wild Card game at OAK (1/12/02) at C and helped to power the Jets offense to 410 total yards (136 rushing and 274 passing).
- In game 16, a win at OAK that propelled the Jets into the postseason, Mawae helped the Jets offense gain 302 yards and a 46% third down conversion rate.
- In game 15 vs. BUF, he and the rest of the offensive line helped the Jets to 375 yards of offense and kept Vinny Testaverde sack-free for the fourth consecutive game, the longest streak in team history without a sack.
- In game 14 win at IND, Mawae and the rest of the O-line performed exceptionally well on the night, keeping Testaverde sack-free for the third straight contest and opening holes for Curtis Martin's sixth 100-yard rushing day of the season (122), also allowing the Jets offense to pile up 451 yards and hold the ball for 34:54 in the 29-28 win.
- Helped the Jets to 309 yards of offense in game 13 vs. CIN and was part of an offense that didn't allow a sack for the fifth time that season.
- Started at C in game 12 at PIT and was part of an offensive line didn't allow a sack against the formidable Steelers defense (the fourth time in 2001).
- In game 11 vs. NE, Mawae started at C and helped the Jets offense gain 282 yards and hold the ball for 32:57 in T.O.P.
- Started at C in game 10, a 24-0 win over the Dolphins in MIA, and was part of an offensive line that didn't allow Testaverde to be sacked despite playing against the formidable MIA pass rush.
- In the game nine win over KC, Mawae helped to guide Curtis Martin to his fifth 100-yard game of the season (20-113-5.7 avg.-3 TD), and the offense to 353 yards of total offense without allowing a sack throughout the game.
- Game eight win at NO, Mawae helped power the Jets rushing attack to 142 yards on 34 carries (4.2 avg.) against the highly-regarded Saints defensive front.
- In game seven at CAR, Mawae helped lead the way for Curtis Martin's fourth 100-yard game of the season (27-159-5.9 avg.), and assisted the Jets in churning out 358 yards of total offense and an incredible 36:37 in T.O.P. in the team's 13-12 win.
- Started at C in game six vs. STL and helped the Jets to 266 yards of offense and two scores.
- In game five vs. MIA, Mawae helped power the Jets to a comeback win by opening holes for Martin's 22-120-5.5 avg., one-TD ground game and allowing Vinny Testaverde time to throw for 168 yards and two scores from his starting C spot.

- In game four at BUF, Mawae helped lead the way for Curtis Martin's 135 yards rushing on 26 carries (5.2 avg.) and two TD, and helped keep QB Vinny Testaverde sack free on the day providing time to throw for 173 yards and a pair of scores in the team's 42-36 win.
- Started at C and helped the Jets offense garner 268 yards in game three vs. SF.
- Started at C in game two vs. NE and was instrumental in guiding the Jets to a 10-3 win by opening holes for Curtis Martin's 24-106 and one TD rushing performance and allowing Vinny Testaverde time to complete 16 of 32 passes for 137 yards.
- Started at C in the season opener vs. IND and helped the Jets average 4.7 yards on 29 carries (135 yards rushing) and allow Jets passers time to throw for 199 yards on 18 of 31 passing with two INT.
- Helped the Jets offensive line pick up where it left off last season when they tied for the league-low in sacks allowed, permitting just one sack on the day to the Colts.

2000 SEASON (JETS)

- Started all 16 games at C and didn't miss a snap during the season.
- Earned his second straight starting assignment as the AFC's C for the Pro Bowl squad and anchored an offensive line which tied IND for the fewest sacks allowed during the regular season (20), helping the Jets offense become one of the most dangerous in the NFL, averaging 337.2 yards per game (12th best in the NFL); the passing offense, which averaged 245.3 yards per game, was sixth best in the league.
- The offensive line shut out opposing defenses five times in the sack category, the best mark in the league.
- In game 16 at BAL he helped the Jets offense rack up 524 yards of total net offense (473 passing and 51 rushing) in the season finale at PSINet Stadium. The Jets offensive line surrendered only one sack in 69 pass plays against the top-ranked defense in the NFL.
- In game 13 vs. IND he and the rest of the offensive line helped to open holes for Curtis Martin's club-record 203 yards rushing and helped the Jets' offense hold the ball for an astounding 41:25 in T.O.P. and rack up 491 yards of total offense.
- Was a central figure in the Jets' dramatic 40-37 OT thriller over the Dolphins, helping spearhead the remarkable 30-point fourth quarter which saw the Jets come back from 30-7 and tie the score at 30, and later tie it at 37-37 with :42 left in the game. Helped the Jets to 455 yards of total offense.
- Mawae helped the Jets' offense to 296 yards of total offense and kept the dangerous Bucs' pass rush with only one sack on the day in the team's thrilling 21-17 win over TB at Raymond James Stadium in game four.
- Aided the Jets to an auspicious start in the season opener and helped the Jets to 379 yards of total offense in the team's 20-16 win at Lambeau Field, opened holes for Martin's 30-110 yards rushing and kept Vinny Testaverde sack-free on the day.

1999 SEASON (JETS)

- Named to his first Pro Bowl on December 22, started every game and anchored the Jets O-line.
- Didn't miss a play for the second straight season, paved the way for Martin's then club-record 1,464 yards rushing, and snapped to four different QB during the season (Testaverde, Tupa, Mirer, Lucas).
- Started at C in each game and helped two new guards (Randy Thomas and Kerry Jenkins) fit into the team's offensive set.
- Cleared the way for Martin's 34-158-4.6 avg., one-TD day in the team's season-ending 19-9 win over the Seahawks, helped the team tally 379 yards of total offense, and kept Lucas sackless.
- Was key performer in the team's 22-21 win at Texas Stadium in game 14. With the rest of the offensive line, kept Ray Lucas free of any sacks and helped to open holes for Martin's 26-113-4.3 rushing day. He helped pave the way for three straight Martin 100-yard rushing days in games six through eight, helped pave the way for the team's first win of the season in game four at DEN and to 334 yards of total offense (224 passing and 110 rushing) and helped hold the ball for 33:18.
- Started at C and helped the team to 368 yards of total offense (257 passing and 111 rushing) in the season opener vs. NE while playing with three different QB (Testaverde, Tupa and Mirer).

1998 SEASON (JETS)

- Played and started all 16 games at C in his first season as a Jet.
- Didn't miss a snap all season.
- Was an integral member of an offense that averaged 357.2 yards per game (second-best in the AFC and fourth-best in the NFL), while controlling the ball for an average of 32:17 minutes per game (second-best in the AFC and third-best in the NFL). The offense also was one of the highest scoring units in the NFL.
- Helped Martin run for a club-record eight 100-yard rushing days en route to a 1,287 yards rushing campaign.
- Helped keep Testaverde untouched and allowed the offense to total 370 yards in the AFC Championship game at DEN.
- Had a big day as he again helped the offense control the ball for 39:16 and tally 429 yards of offense in the Divisional Playoff game vs. JAX.
- Did an outstanding job of keeping the pressure off Testaverde allowing him to attempt 63 passes (second-most in NFL history) at the time without being sacked in game 13 vs. SEA.
- Had two key blocks in the game, one springing Martin for a 60-yard TD and the other on Keyshawn Johnson's 35-yard end-around for a TD in game 12 vs. CAR.
- Paved the way for four straight Martin 100-yard rushing days in games three through six, helped lead the way for the rushing game to post 302 yards (the third-most in team history), in game three vs. IND.

1997 SEASON (SEA)

- Took part in 99.5% of the Seahawks' offensive plays (missing only five snaps all season), while starting all 16 games at center.
- Directed an offensive line which helped achieve club records for total yards and passing yards; the Seahawks' 4,187 yards through the air led the NFL.
- Line allowed just 36 sacks in 645 attempts (one every 18 attempts) to rank fifth in the league.

GAME ONE: JETS 37 AT BUFFALO BILLS 31

SEPTEMBER 8, 2002. Orchard Park, NY - (Sunny, Hot) Jets' RB/KOR specialist Chad Morton didn't want to look back to see if anyone was chasing him. Now the New York Jets can look forward after squeaking out a dramatic victory to open their season. Morton ran back two kickoffs, including a 96-yarder to start overtime, lifting the Jets to a 37-31 victory over Buffalo on Sunday and spoiling Drew Bledsoe's debut with the Bills. He became just the second player in NFL history to return an overtime kickoff for a touchdown. On Nov. 27, 1980, Chicago's Dave Williams took the opening OT kickoff for a score, leading the Bears past the Detroit Lions 23-17. "I knew it was going to be a foot race. I didn't know if I had enough gas to make it to the end zone," Morton said. "I was thinking to myself, 'Please, don't get caught. But I made it into the end zone. Game over.'" Morton caught Mike Hollis' kickoff along the right sideline and cut toward the middle of the field. He broke a tackle at the 30, then outran Shawn Bryson into the end zone. He became the first player in NFL history to return a kickoff for a score in regulation and overtime. He also became the first Jets player and fifth player in NFL history to return two kickoffs for scores. New Orleans' Tyrone Hughes was the last player to run back two kickoffs for scores, accomplishing the feat in 1994. After running back a 98-yarder -- the third-longest in franchise history -- in the second quarter, Morton had enough in him for one more big return. It came after Bledsoe forced overtime by hitting Eric Moulds with a 29-yard TD pass with 26 seconds remaining. The Jets won even though Curtis Martin was forced from the game late in the first half with a sprained ankle. Vinny Testaverde finished 24-of-30 for 210 yards and two touchdowns. Anthony Becht, with a one-yard reception, and Wayne Chrebet, with an 18-yarder, also scored for the Jets. Bledsoe, acquired in a deal with New England last April, finished 26-of-39 for 271 yards, with a touchdown and two interceptions. "It was very surreal," Bledsoe said, as he watched the game end from the sideline. "It took me a while to settle down." Buffalo's Travis Henry rushed for a career-high 149 yards and three touchdowns. The close finish should not have come as a surprise. The two teams' previous three meetings were decided by six points or less. Jets Head Coach Herman Edwards, while displeased with the team's 10 penalties, was nonetheless impressed with his team's heart. "Their will to win," Edwards said. "That is something you don't measure. It's something that is inside. The guys just kept fighting." The Jets overcame a 10-0 deficit in the first half, and rallied back after the Bills took a 24-20 lead on Henry's two-yard plunge late in the third quarter. The Jets' special teams units made big plays all afternoon, as evidenced by linebacker Jason Glenn's blocked punt, which led to Hall's 33-yard field goal that cut Buffalo's lead to 24-23 early in the fourth quarter.

GAME TWO: NEW ENGLAND PATRIOTS 44 AT JETS 7

SEPTEMBER 15, 2002. East Rutherford, NJ - (Overcast, Rainy) The defending champion New England Patriots invaded the Meadowlands in the Jets' home opener and took home a 44-7 win at the hands of the New York Jets. Less than a week after a decisive win over Pittsburgh, the Patriots erupted for 34 second half points. New England led 10-0 at half-time, but took control of the game early in the third quarter and didn't look back. The Patriots (2-0) put on a show on both sides of the ball, outgaining New York 432-200 in total yards and controlling the ball for 38 minutes, 4 seconds. Tom Brady hit 25 of 35 passes for 269 yards, including touchdown passes of one yard to Cam Cleeland and 49 to Deion Branch. The Patriots defense, which limited the Jets (1-1) to one first-half first down, broke the game open with two third-quarter touchdowns. Safety Tebucky Jones scored on a 24-yard fumble return after sacking Vinny Testaverde and forcing a fumble, and former Jet Victor Green tallied on a 90-yard interception return late in the quarter for a 27-0 lead. Adam Vinatieri added three field goals and Kevin Faulk scored on a two-yard run as the Patriots won their 11th straight game dating to last season, a string that includes a team-record tying eight regular-season contests and three in the postseason. For the Jets, little went right against the Patriots. The Jets didn't get their second first down until punter Matt Turk ran for 14 yards on a fake late in the third quarter. While that seemed to spark the offense, the pick-me-up lasted two plays. One play after connecting with Santana Moss on a 35-yard catch and run, Testaverde saw Green step in front of his pass to Richie Anderson en route to the fourth-longest return in Patriots' history. "I am disappointed in how good we are and how we played today because I know we are a whole lot better than 44-7," said Jets halfback Curtis Martin. Jets coach Herm Edwards put the loss in perspective. "We have to go to Miami and get our swagger back," Edwards said. "We had a good swagger coming out of the preseason and then winning on the road. We have to be very careful about what we tell the players because you can lose them. It's too early to panic. I'm not going to panic." "They're a great team," Jets cornerback Donnie Abraham said. "They really are and I think people have to start giving them credit. They don't look like they're feeling the pressure of being the defending Super Bowl champions. To me, it looks like they're having fun defending their title."

GAME THREE: JETS 3 AT MIAMI DOLPHINS 30

SEPTEMBER 22, 2002. Miami, FL - (Hot, Sunny) The Miami Dolphins ended a Jets' eight-game winning streak against the Dolphins with a convincing 30-3 win over the Green and White. Miami RB Ricky Williams ran for 151 yards and the Dolphins forced four turnovers to snap a streak of eight consecutive losses to the New York Jets, 30-3. Two interceptions of Vinny Testaverde led to 10 first-half points, and the Dolphins hung onto a lead against New York. "It feels like a burden has been lifted," he said. Williams sewed up the win with a 53-yard touchdown sprint, the longest gain in his four-year career, with 4:54 left. "They had won eight straight against me," Miami linebacker Zach Thomas said. Miami improved to 3-0 for the first time since 1998 and shares the AFC East lead with defending Super Bowl champion New England. On a steamy 90-degree afternoon, the Dolphins extended their home winning streak in August and September to 17 games. The Jets fell to 1-2. "I don't think anybody's confidence is wavering," Testaverde said. "We're going to have to stick together, because everybody outside of the locker room is probably going to take shots at us and tell us how bad we are." In the past two years, New York overcame second-half deficits of 17 and 23 points to beat Miami, but there was no comeback this time after the Jets trailed 13-3 at halftime. Williams kept the clock running with 110 yards on the ground in the second half. "Halfway through the third quarter I was thinking, 'If we're going to win this game, it's going to be me,'" he said. Williams carried 24 times to become the first Dolphins rusher to gain 100 yards in three consecutive games - his first three games with Miami. While Testaverde threw two interceptions and lost a fumble, Miami committed no turnovers. Jay Fiedler, who had thrown eight interceptions in his four previous games against New York, went 16-for-30 for 185 yards and one score. Rookie tight end Randy McMichael made two big catches: a 10-yarder for the only touchdown of the first half, and a 13-yarder. That came one play before Williams' touchdown dash made it 23-3. The Dolphins, outscored 45-0 by the Jets in the second half of their past three meetings, this time outscored New York 17-0 after halftime. Jason Taylor stripped Testaverde on a sack and recovered the fumble to set up Miami's final score, a 5-yard touchdown run by Travis Minor. "It seems like we're fighting uphill at this point," said Jets coach Herman Edwards. "We can only get better. We can't get much worse." A replay review cost Miami six points when Shawn Wooden's 26-yard touchdown on an interception return was overturned. The Dolphins took possession at the Jets 26, shook off the ruling and scored anyway two plays later on Fiedler's touchdown pass to McMichael for a 10-0 lead. On the next series Derrick Rodgers intercepted to give Miami the ball at the Jets 12, and Olindo Mare's 25-yard field goal made it 13-3. With Miami nursing a 10-point lead in the third quarter, Williams fumbled on a sweep, but the ball dribbled back to him, averting a potentially pivotal turnover. Finally against the Jets, the ball bounced Miami's way.

GAME FOUR: JETS 3 AT JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS 28

SEPTEMBER 29, 2002. Jacksonville, FL – (Hot, Sunny) The New York Jets dropped their third game in a row when they lost 28-3 to the Jacksonville Jaguars. Led by 237 yards from Fred Taylor – 142 rushing and 95 receiving – the Jacksonville Jaguars handed the Jets the loss. “We played like kids out there,” Jets running back Curtis Martin said. “We didn’t play like an NFL football team.” Stacey Mack scored three touchdowns for Jacksonville (2-1). The Jets (1-3) have been outscored 102-13 in three straight losses. Vinny Testaverde was forced to the bench early in the game after he took a hard hit early in the game that left him with a bruised right shoulder and a slightly pinched nerve. Chad Pennington, who threw for 281 yards, took control and moved the team, but had no more luck than Testaverde did getting the Jets in the end zone. Taylor’s best play came on Jacksonville’s first offensive play. Lined up wide, he beat Aaron Beasley – a former Jaguar – for a 72-yard gain to the Jets 1. Mack scored on the next play, and Jacksonville led just 90 seconds into the game. “I thought I was going to make a play on that,” Beasley said. “I almost had that. It’s a game of inches, but that’s how it goes.” Mack finished with 70 yards rushing and Jaguars quarterback Mark Brunell finished 10-for-15 for 173 yards. Pennington engineered only two drives inside Jacksonville’s 20, and both came up empty. Midway through the fourth quarter, he took the Jets to Jacksonville’s 1. The result: A lost fumble by LaMont Jordan, the fourth turnover of the day, including punter Matt Turk being intercepted after a fake punt attempt. “An old coach told me that the mark of a good quarterback is how many times he gets his team in the end zone,” Pennington said. “I’m man enough to take responsibility for that.” Behind a revamped offensive line, the Jets finished with some decent stats: 345 yards and 18 first downs. “Everybody saw it – the Jets moved the ball today,” Pennington said. “We’re not accomplishing anything we should be,” linebacker Mo Lewis said. “I don’t know what it is, but we have to start over, and we have to correct this real fast.”

GAME FIVE: KANSAS CITY CHIEFS 29 AT JETS 25

OCTOBER 6, 2002. East Rutherford, NJ – (Mild, Overcast) The Kansas City Chiefs continued to show why they are the best fourth quarter team in football. Trent Green dumped a pass off to running back Priest Holmes, who raced 19 yards for a touchdown with 27 seconds left to give the Chiefs a 29-25 win over the New York Jets. Kansas City (3-2), which had scored 85 points in the fourth quarter in five games this season, trailed 25-22 with 2:54 left in the fourth after John Hall kicked a 25-yard field goal for New York. "We've been pretty successful with the fourth quarter. We've been able to put some points up," Green said. "We were moving the ball today, we just weren't getting the touchdowns. We knew we were in field goal range and we wanted to go into the end zone. They sent everybody deep, and he (Holmes) was the third option." Holmes rushed for 152 yards on 23 carries and a TD while catching nine passes for 81 yards and the game-winning score. His two touchdowns gave him 10 through the first five games of the season, matching his career high set last year. Green completed 23-of-33 passes for 196 yards and two TDs while throwing one interception. "Trent did a good job taking us down the field and putting the ball in people's hands. We've been good in the fourth quarter all year," Kansas City coach Dick Vermeil said. "If you're gonna be a playoff team, you have to beat teams that have been to the playoffs. We're very fortunate to have won the game, but when you play like we did for four quarters you've got a chance." Chad Pennington started his first NFL game and tossed his first two touchdown passes of the season while Curtis Martin rushed for his first 100-yard game and first TD of the season for the Jets (1-4), who suffered their fourth straight loss. "The game of football is about emotion. It's bittersweet because we made progress, but we'd like to make progress with wins," Pennington said. "The NFL is about establishing the run and we were able to do that today." "We got beat, but we didn't lose 44-7 or 30-3. They just found a way to come out with the win," Martin said. "Chad played great. There was a lot of pressure on him, but we played better. We know we have something to build on. We feel like we're just about over that hump." Pennington's favorite target was Laveranues Coles, who got more looks with Wayne Chrebet sidelined with a bruised knee and caught eight passes for 116 yards. "Chad did a nice job for his first start. Curtis ran the ball pretty well," Jets coach Herman Edwards said. "It was one of those games where we felt we had to score points and the offense did that. We were in the game in the fourth quarter and we just gave up some big plays at the end. We're not playing good enough defense and it showed up in the fourth quarter when we needed a stop." Pennington completed an impressive 23-of-30 passes for 245 yards and two touchdowns with one interception. In the fourth quarter he completed 10 consecutive passes and 166 of his passing yards came in the second half. "Pennington did a nice job," Vermeil added. "I think they found out they are a pretty good team." Santana Moss caught five passes for 65 yards, including his first career touchdown - a 27-yard pass from Pennington that capped a 12-play, 89-yard drive early in the fourth quarter and put the Jets up 22-15.

GAME SIX: MINNESOTA VIKINGS 7 AT JETS 20

OCTOBER 20, 2002. East Rutherford, NJ – (Partly Cloudy, Mild) Curtis Martin hopes Chad Pennington's performance Sunday changes the way opposing teams look at the New York Jets. Pennington had a career day, completing 24 of 29 passes for 324 yards to lead the Jets past the Minnesota Vikings 20-7. "Some of my friends would say to me, 'Curtis, we're coming in there to shut you down,'" Martin said. "That's not the case anymore. Now when teams look at us, they know they can't put the eight-man front in there." With Pennington opening up the offense, and a big-play defense, the Jets (2-4) won for the first time since opening the season with a victory over Buffalo in overtime. Minnesota (1-5), which was coming off a win over the Detroit Lions, has lost 13 straight road games -- 14 counting the NFC championship game loss to the New York Giants in January 2001. Daunte Culpepper and Randy Moss struggled to connect. Culpepper threw three interceptions, and Moss had just four catches for 86 yards. Pennington won his first game as a starter since taking over for Vinny Testaverde, looking like a veteran as he dissected the Minnesota secondary. He threw crisp and accurate passes to seven different receivers, from Wayne Chrebet to backup fullback Jerald Sowell. Santana Moss easily had the best day of his career, getting his first career 100-yard game with five catches for 111 yards. Moss came into the game with just six receptions for 109 yards. "I believe in all my receivers," Pennington said. "When you have Santana Moss, Wayne Chrebet and Laveranues Coles on the field, somebody is going to get open. They make plays." New York's maligned defense forced four turnovers. Two ended drives deep in Jets territory, and the Jets caused a fumble to end another possession. Linebacker Mo Lewis had his best performance of the season, grabbing an interception, forcing the key fumble and pressuring Culpepper all afternoon. "We have a lot of talented players, and what they need to do is play together as a football team and believe in what we're doing," Jets coach Herman Edwards said. "We did that today. They have a lot of pride, and they don't want to play the way we played the last four weeks." Stopping Moss was a huge key, and Moss was frustrated after the game because no one else had come through on offense. "We have 11 players on offense," Moss said. "Somebody needs to take the pressure off of me. Our offense is better than what we've been showing the last few weeks. It's just a trickle effect. Everybody has to make the plays, not just me. Not just Daunte." Lewis came up with key plays at the most opportune moments. After the Jets took a 3-0 lead, the Vikings drove into Jets territory in the second quarter. On third-and-four from the Jets seven, Lewis intercepted Culpepper's pass to end the threat. In the third quarter, the Vikings again were in Jets territory at the 24-yard line, but Lewis put a stop to the drive when he forced Michael Bennett to fumble. Marvin Jones recovered. "We have to eliminate turnovers as a whole, not anywhere on the field," Culpepper said. "We have to eliminate them to be successful." Meanwhile, the Jets' offense controlled the ball and the game. Pennington gave the Jets a 10-0 lead just before halftime when he found Coles for a seven-yard touchdown pass. In the third quarter, Pennington guided the Jets on a six-play, 90-yard drive that included a 46-yard completion to Moss and a 28-yarder to Coles. Martin completed the drive with a five-yard TD run that made the score 17-0. In the third quarter alone, Pennington went seven-of-seven for 120 yards. The Jets hope to use this victory as a springboard, starting against Cleveland next Sunday. "We've got some confidence now," Edwards said. "It makes you feel better about everything. It's something these guys have not tasted for a while."

GAME SEVEN: CLEVELAND BROWNS 24 AT JETS 21

OCTOBER 27, 2002. East Rutherford, NJ – (Partly Cloudy, Mild) As Butch Davis left the field, he looked up to the sky. He sensed his Cleveland Browns did something very special Sunday. Four days after team owner Al Lerner died, the Browns rallied from an 18-point deficit to beat the New York Jets 24-21. "I told the football team that Al Lerner's life was about things like today," Davis said. "Perseverance, character and never ever surrendering. I know for a fact that Al is proud of the football team today, the way it began to fight." Lerner, a businessman and native New Yorker who brought the NFL back to Cleveland in 1999, died Wednesday at age 69. Flags flew at half-staff at Giants Stadium, a moment of silence was held before kickoff, and the Browns vowed to wear patches with the initials AL on them for the rest of the season. Quarterback Tim Couch, who engineered the comeback with some magical escapes to produce two second-half touchdowns and a two-point conversion, echoed his coach's thoughts. "We as players loved Mr. Lerner and wanted to play well for him and his family," said Couch, who finished 32-for-48 for 294 yards. "This was about courage and heart and it exemplified what Mr. Lerner was all about." Phil Dawson's third field goal, from 35 yards, won it after Couch guided another long second-half drive. But the game turned in the third quarter, when the Browns scored 15 points to pull into a 21-21 tie. Couch, showing tremendous maturity and resourcefulness, shrugged off several near sacks in throwing a five-yard TD pass to a diving Mark Campbell, then a four-yarder to rookie Andre' Davis. And his lob under heavy pressure for the tying 2-point conversion somehow found Dennis Northcutt in the end zone. "I saw a flash of white as I was going down and just heaved it up and let Dennis make a play," he said. "You have to show you have trust in your guys." New York (2-5) dominated the first half but stopped pressing its advantage in the third period, when it was outgained 93-2. Cleveland (4-4) kept dominating in the final quarter against the Jets – who wasted all three timeouts in the third quarter – and staged a drive of 8:33 to the winning field goal. Courtney Brown blocked John Hall's 44-yard field goal with 16 seconds remaining. "We have to put these games away," Curtis Martin said. "It's natural for us to get frustrated and we might say things we don't mean. We can't let that happen. No excuses, we need results. We've had too many excuses this season." The Jets, who had scored 10 points in the first quarter of their first six games, had 14 just 9:03 into the game. Santana Moss returned a punt 63 yards for a score, and Laveranues Coles' spin move resulted in a 37-yard TD. New York's other top receiver, Wayne Chrebet, had an eight-yard scoring catch, and the Jets led 21-6 at halftime. But Chrebet also fumbled at the Cleveland seven. After holding Cleveland to a three-and-out to start things, the Jets got Moss' punt return with just 39 seconds gone. The Browns had nobody on the left side of the field as Moss sped down the sideline for his first career punt return for a TD, and the second-quickest touchdown in Jets history. "We gave them some early openings, like on Moss' punt return, but we never felt we were out of the game," Davis said. The Browns got going on Northcutt's 43-yard reception, setting up Dawson's 23-yard field goal. The Jets responded with their longest completion of the season, although Chad Pennington threw the ball just a few yards, hitting Coles on a slant-in. Rather than continue across the field, Coles whirled, sending cornerback Lewis Sanders to the turf, and Coles ran to the corner of the end zone, making it 14-3. Moss' 21-yard punt return set up Chrebet's score, in which he beat Sanders on a short post pattern. The Browns were missing two starters in the secondary. Dawson also kicked a 26-yard field goal in the first half.

GAME NINE: MIAMI DOLPHINS 10 AT JETS 13

NOVEMBER 10, 2002. EAST RUTHERFORD, NJ – (Mild, Overcast) Call it the Wild Wild East. The New York Jets further scrambled the AFC East race, handing the Miami Dolphins their third consecutive defeat, 13-10 on John Hall's 27-yard field goal with 2:17 remaining. With their third victory in the last four games, the Jets moved to a game of three division teams: Miami, New England and Buffalo all are 5-4. "We got ourselves in a hole, so every game is a big one," said cornerback Ray Mickens, whose sack on Miami's final drive helped preserve the victory. "It's a division game, we hand them a loss and it puts us right back in it. We've got two in a row and we've got to keep it going." The Jets suddenly found themselves in contention after starting the season 1-4, including a 30-3 defeat at Miami. The Dolphins, losers of three in a row, have lost control of the division they seemed ready to dominate. But then quarterback Jay Fiedler injured his thumb and the Dolphins haven't won since. "I'm not going to sit here feeling sorry for myself," said linebacker Zach Thomas, who led Miami with 12 tackles. "They beat us today, but I definitely don't need a box of tissues, because I'm fine." It was a tight game not at all reminiscent of recent Dolphins-Jets matchups – they played an incredible overtime game two years ago in which New York rallied from 23 points down in the fourth quarter. Still, it was tight until the end, when the Jets drove 84 yards to set up Hall's winning field goal. The key play was Laveranues Coles' 42-yard reception on a fly pattern from the Jets 10. "I was supposed to clear things out for Wayne (Chrebet), but the safety bit on it, and Chad (Pennington) put it over the top," Coles said. "Generally the safety doesn't bite on the play-action." New York's maligned defense had another strong effort against a quality runner, holding Ricky Williams to 53 yards on 20 carries. Last week, the Jets shut down San Diego's LaDainian Tomlinson. "We're starting to get a little confidence stopping the run," defensive tackle Jason Ferguson said. "We tell each other to keep that fire burning and stay like that every game. Now, we're rolling." The Dolphins dominated the third quarter but lost a scoring opportunity when Williams' fumble was recovered by Sam Garnes at the Jets two. But New York went nowhere, and former Jet Dedric Ward returned Matt Turk's punt 14 yards to the Jets' 39. A 27-yard pass to James McKnight set up Rob Konrad's four-yard touchdown reception to tie it at 10. John Abraham saved the Jets on Miami's next possession with two sacks. Abraham had 13 sacks in an All-Pro 2001 season, and now has five this year. Ray Lucas, who was 6-3 as a starter for New York in 1999 filling in for an injured Vinny Testaverde, now is 0-3 with the Dolphins. In the opening period, he botched a handoff to Robert Edwards and Mickens recovered at the Miami six. Curtis Martin, who gained 74 yards rushing, ran in for the score off right tackle on the next play. The Dolphins, plagued by such mistakes in their past two games – they had 10 turnovers in losing to Buffalo and Green Bay – came back with a 78-yard drive helped greatly by Jets defensive tackle Larry Webster. His illegal-use-of-the-hands penalty negated Donnie Abraham's interception, and Olindo Mare kicked a 28-yard field goal. But Miami lost a touchdown on a replay reversal. Chris Chambers was ruled in-bounds in the corner of the end zone on a nine-yard pass, but the replay showed he never controlled the ball. Hall matched Mare's field goal with a 30-yarder as the first half expired, making it 10-3.

GAME TEN: JETS 31 AT DETROIT LIONS 14

NOVEMBER 17, 2002. DETROIT, MI – (Indoors) The New York Jets officially began to emerge from the huge hole they dug for themselves. Chad Pennington threw a career-high four touchdowns -- two to Wayne Chrebet -- as the Jets scored the last 18 points to beat the Detroit Lions, 31-14. The Jets (5-5) have won for the third straight time and four of five to save their season after a 1-4 start. "The big thing about a month ago was to get back to .500 as soon as possible, and hopefully we would have enough games left to make a run for the playoffs," Chrebet said. "We did it pretty quickly. This is a big win for us. Everybody thought this was a trap game coming in here against a team with a losing record." The Lions (3-7) had won three in a row at Ford Field and four straight against the Jets. Since 1997, the Jets have won an NFL-best 27 games on the road and are 10-3 as visitors under coach Herman Edwards, who does not want his team to be content with its turnaround. "We are really fortunate and we know that," Edwards said. "We dug ourselves a deep, deep hole, and we can't make the mistake of thinking we are out of it. We've given ourselves a chance, but it doesn't matter unless we keep playing like this." New York led 13-0 after its first two possessions but fell behind 14-13 midway through the third quarter after Joey Harrington threw TD passes of 37 and seven yards to Bill Schroeder. The Jets went ahead for good late in the third quarter on Pennington's second TD pass to Chrebet, on third down from the four. The play capped a 66-yard, 12-play drive after New York gained just 45 yards on its previous four possessions. Laveranues Coles, completely uncovered, caught the 2-point conversion to give New York a 21-14 lead. "It was crucial for our offense to take control of the game and to really put the stamp on it," Pennington said. John Hall's 22-yard kick on the Jets' next possession made it 24-14, and a 1-yard TD pass to Anthony Becht made it a blowout. "Defensively, we didn't play good," said Detroit's Todd Lyght, who had an interception. "First down, third down, it didn't matter. We were inconsistent, and we weren't able to get off the field." The Lions lost seven yards -- including penalties -- on three possessions after taking the lead. The Jets have given up just 13.6 points a game over their last five. Pennington, a third-year pro, outshined rookie Harrington in a duel of promising young quarterbacks. Pennington was 21-of-26 for 229 yards with one interception. Harrington was 15-of-30 for 171 yards with two TDs and one interception. "He struggled a little bit," Detroit coach Marty Mornhinweg said. Coles caught seven passes for 114 yards and Curtis Martin ran for 112 yards on 22 carries. James Stewart ran for 93 yards -- but just eight in the second half -- against the Jets after they had limited running backs to 60 yards or less in the previous four games. Schroeder caught three passes for 57 yards and two TDs after being sharply criticized for his play. Detroit drove to the Jets four on the opening possession, but linebacker Marvin Jones ended the drive with a diving interception in the end zone. Pennington then directed a 12-play, 80-yard drive over 6:16 that ended with a 10-yard TD pass to Santana Moss in the back corner of the end zone. On the Jets' next possession, Pennington made a 15-yard TD pass to Chrebet. James Hall blocked the extra point. Detroit cut its deficit to 13-7 on the ensuing possession. Harrington found Schroeder open on a crossing route and he used his speed to run across the field untouched for a 37-yard TD early in the second quarter. The Lions took advantage of a big break to take a 14-13 lead in the third quarter. Linebacker James Darling was flagged for roughing the passer, which negated an interception and gave the Lions a first down. Harrington connected with Schroeder in the end zone on third-and-goal from the seven.

GAME ELEVEN: BUFFALO BILLS 13 AT JETS 31

NOVEMBER 24, 2002. EAST RUTHERFORD, NJ – (Partly Cloudy, Cool) Quarterback Chad Pennington punctuated the New York Jets' fourth straight victory Sunday with moves worthy of a Broadway dancer. Or, as teammate Sam Garnes said after a 31-13 rout of Buffalo, "Watch out, Michael Vick." Neat jukes that leave defenders sprawled helplessly on the ground are expected from Martin, who ran for 120 yards as the Jets (6-5) remained firmly in the AFC East race. No one looks for Pennington to make them. But after watching Martin deke the Bills left and right, Pennington borrowed some of those moves on a one-yard touchdown that clinched the win. He sent linebacker Eddie Robinson tumbling to the turf with an inside fake on a rollout, then trotted into the end zone for a TD. On fourth down, no less. "It wasn't pretty. I think the move was so bad, he'd never seen it before," Pennington said of Robinson, "so he kind of fell down. He had the angle on me, I was just trying to do something and find a way to get into the end zone. "It was a disgrace to the quarterback position that has Donovan McNabb and Michael Vick." It wasn't that bad. And it certainly was effective, killing any momentum the Bills built. "I didn't know he had that many moves," coach Herman Edwards said. "He looked like Elvis Presley." Martin has those kind of moves. Finally healed from a sprained ankle that plagued him since the season opening win at Buffalo, Martin put together his second straight 100-yard effort. He has rushed for more than 1,150 yards in each of his seven seasons, but struggled for much of 2002. "I know I'm getting better, slowly but surely," Martin said. "We're at the bottom of the totem pole and we have to continue to fight our way up and take nothing for granted." Pennington also was 15-for-24 (62.5 percent) for 178 yards. He entered the game completing a league-best 71 percent of his passes. Keyed by Martin, the Jets quickly moved to a 24-3 lead on the opening drive of the second half. Operating into a stiff wind, they moved 65 yards as Martin ran for 17 -- Robinson drew a 15-yard facemask penalty on the play -- and went 18 yards with a dump pass. Laveranues Coles was wide open on a play-action rollout pass and Pennington hit him for an 11-yard TD. But the Bills (5-6) drove 69 yards, including an 18-yard pass to Eric Moulds on fourth down, before Travis Henry ran in from the one. When Buffalo moved within 11 points on Mike Hollis' 40-yard field goal late in the third quarter, the natives got restless. Not to worry. The Jets calmly marched 65 yards in 11 plays as Pennington, 5-2 as a starter, used his trio of wideouts for big plays. Wayne Chrebet caught an 11-yard pass on third down, Santana Moss gained 22 with a sensational spin move after the catch, and Coles hauled in a high throw for 15 yards. On fourth down, Pennington did his dance step into the end zone. "Most of my teammates did not know what to say," Pennington said. "I was surprised myself." The Bills were sharp on the game's opening drive, capped by Hollis' 43-yard field goal into the wind that hit the crossbar and bounced through. New York's John Hall matched that with a 23-yarder, then Buffalo began making turnovers. Games picked off a pass tipped by Jay Riemersma at the New York 49, and Hall kicked a 27-yard field goal. But the Bills' Chris Watson was called for roughing the kicker, and the Jets took the points off the board. Two plays later, LaMont Jordan ran in from the 1 for a 10-3 lead. "There is no excuse for that type of play," Bills coach Gregg Williams said after his team's third consecutive loss. Aaron Beasley then jumped in front of Peerless Price for the Jets' second interception of Drew Bledsoe, and a 28-yard pass to Coles got the Jets to the 9. Martin sprinted off right tackle for the touchdown that made it 17-3 at halftime. "It was a tough day for us," Bledsoe admitted. "It's real simple: We just have to play better."

GAME TWELVE: JETS 20 AT OAKLAND RAIDERS 26

DECEMBER 2, 2002. OAKLAND, CA – (Cool, Clear) On a historic night in Oakland on Monday Night Football, the Jets battled and fought the Oakland Raiders, but came up short, 26-20. Raiders WR Tim Brown got his 1,000th career reception, and perennial All Pro WR Jerry Rice caught the go-ahead touchdown pass on the next play as the Raiders beat the Jets, snapping New York's four-game winning streak with another big game from Oakland's vaunted passing attack. Only three receivers in NFL history could compare the celebrations of their 1,000th receptions -- and two of them were in the same locker room after Oakland (8-4) won its fourth straight and tied San Diego atop the AFC West, thanks to Rich Gannon and his corps of receivers. "I was just happy to be here tonight and be a part of something special like that," Rice said. Rice and Brown are 1-2 in career receiving yardage after Brown tied James Lofton in the second half with 14,004 yards. Not to be outdone by his teammate and longtime friendly rival, Rice wrapped up his NFL-record 14th 1,000-yard receiving season, adding to his collection of nearly every other league receiving record. Brown became the third man in NFL history with 1,000 receptions on a short catch in the third quarter. Mere seconds later, Rice caught a pass over the middle for the score that put Oakland ahead to stay. "That's Jerry Rice. Every time he catches a ball, he's stealing your thunder," Brown said. "It's just great to have him here." Gannon was 31-of-42 for 342 yards, tying an often-achieved NFL record with his ninth 300-yard game of the season. After New York pulled within 23-20 on Wayne Chrebet's 13-yard TD catch with 5:32 left, Gannon led a drive ending in Sebastian Janikowski's fourth field goal with 1:12 left. Chad Pennington moved the Jets to the Oakland 35, but Rod Coleman sacked Pennington before his last-ditch heave was intercepted by Rod Woodson as time expired. With their second four-game winning streak of the season -- and a four-game losing streak sandwiched in between -- the Raiders now play at San Diego on Sunday with the division lead at stake. The loss left the Jets at 6-6, denying a chance to tie for the AFC East lead. Miami and New England lead New York and Buffalo by one game. "Our defense played pretty well, but we knew we weren't going to stop them from throwing the ball," Jets coach Herman Edwards said. "It was a battle of field position, and they just won it a couple more times than we did. I think we played a good game, for the most part." In their third trip to the Coliseum in a year, the Jets didn't have enough offense or pass defense to stay with the Raiders and silence the Black Hole's furious fans. New York's hadn't allowed a quarterback to pass for 300 yards in its last 30 games -- the longest streak in the NFL. Pennington, whose promotion coincided with the Jets' strong resurgence after a 1-4 start, was 22-of-34 for 265 yards. Chrebet and Jerald Sowell caught touchdown passes, but the Jets managed just two drives of substance all night -- one of them in the waning minutes. "We tried not to give him a lot of time to sit back and make plays," Raiders cornerback Charles Woodson said. "We feel good about ourselves, but this is no time to start looking ahead." With both teams playing conservatively in a matchup of the AFC's top-rated quarterbacks, the Jets didn't mount a scoring drive until the waning minutes of the second quarter. Sowell, the Jets' veteran blocking fullback, scored the first touchdown of his six-season career on a 6-yard reception that capped a four-play, 80-yard drive shortly before halftime. Six minutes after Rice's TD catch, Marcus Knight forced New York's Chad Morton to fumble a punt return at the 12, which led to Zack Crockett's 1-yard TD run and a 20-10 lead. "It happened too fast to prevent it," Morton said. "There were some twists and turns, but we came very close to getting it."

GAME THIRTEEN: DENVER BRONCOS 13 AT JETS 19

DECEMBER 8, 2002. EAST RUTHERFORD, NJ – (Cold, Overcast) On a day of individual milestones, the New York Jets wanted to talk about collective achievement. Such as winning their fifth game in the last six, a 19-13 victory over Denver that severely damaged the Broncos' playoff hopes. And rallying to win for the first time with Chad Pennington at quarterback. And staying alive in the AFC East race despite being outplayed for much of Sunday's game in the wind and occasional flurries. "It is a total team win," said Pennington, who hit Laveranues Coles with a 28-yard touchdown pass into the wind to put the Jets (7-6) in front 17 seconds into the fourth quarter. "The offense came through and grabbed the lead and the defense held it." Coles, who went over 1,000 yards receiving for the first time in his three-year career, came through to make a spectacular grab. He beat CB Jimmy Spencer's single coverage to make a diving catch at the two, then rolled untouched into the end zone for a 16-13 lead. Coles finished with six catches for 126 yards and has 73 for 1,022 this year. "It was sort of weird, because my helmet was kind of fluttering around in different directions," Coles said. "I didn't get focused on the ball until the last second. "One guy does not make the difference." Not even when that guy is Curtis Martin, who became the 16th player over 10,000 career yards rushing and scored the Jets' other touchdown. Martin did not play a pivotal role Sunday, but he did his share. All of the Jets did. "That character of fighting to the end and handling adversity until the end, that is where we're getting better," said Martin, who rushed for at least 1,152 yards in his previous seven seasons. The Broncos (7-6) took a huge hit in losing their third straight, falling despite gaining 369 yards. They were in position to win in the final minutes, but Brian Griese, back from a knee injury, was picked off at the New York two yardline by rookie Jon McGraw, his first career interception. "I don't think we deserve it right now," said Griese, who finished 28-for-37 for 266 yards. "We've lost three in a row and any team that has lost three in a row doesn't deserve to be a playoff team." New York's bend-but-don't-break defense, led by Marvin Jones' 17 tackles, helped keep the Jets one game out of the AFC East lead. Denver is two games out in the AFC West, trailing the Raiders and Chargers. John Hall's 21-yard field goal with 5:56 to go gave the Jets a six-point edge. But Anthony Becht dropped a sure touchdown pass one play before that. And Hall had an extra point blocked in the second period, which gave the Broncos late life that McGraw snuffed. "This speaks a lot for the team's character," McGraw said. "This had huge playoff implications for us." Denver impressively covered 68 yards on an eight minute opening drive. Rookie Clinton Portis got his 1,000th-yard rushing on the first play, a five-yard gain. He also surpassed 100 yards for the sixth time, rushing for 103. But the Broncos stalled at the Jets' five and Jason Elam kicked a 22-yard field goal. The Jets responded with a seven minute drive. One play after Martin went over 10,000 yards with an eight-yard run, he surged into the end zone on the opening play of the second quarter for a 1-yard score. Hall's extra point was blocked by Kavika Pittman. That allowed Denver to tie it with another time-consuming march, covering 60 yards in 6:23. Elam connected from 23 yards. The Broncos messed up another threat when they couldn't gain a yard on two runs from the Jets 30, including Griese's sneak on fourth down. Denver did not come up short on its next series, moving 67 yards in 1:36 behind Griese's pinpoint passing. He completed the quick drive for a 13-6 lead by hitting rookie Ashley Lelie in the left corner of the end zone with 11 seconds remaining in the half. The wind kicked up in the second half, costing Denver twice in the third quarter. Elam missed field goals from 33 and 46 yards into the gusts, while Hall nailed a 43-yarder, making it 13-9. "I lined up, thought I was OK, then I felt the wind," Elam said of the 46-yarder. "I've never felt anything like it. The wind was unbelievable."

GAME FOURTEEN: JETS 13 AT CHICAGO BEARS 20

DECEMBER 15, 2002. CHAMPAIGN, IL – (Partly Cloudy, Mild) Wayne Chrebet and the New York Jets couldn't hurdle the Chicago Bears. Falling short when they needed a victory to enhance their playoff chances, the Jets rallied late to try to tie the game but fell just shy. Veteran Chris Chandler gave Chicago's offense some stability and the Bears allowed just a single touchdown to beat the Jets, 20-13. "It just stinks all around. I feel horrible," said Chrebet, who caught a pass, and then fumbled as he hurdled Chicago's Larry Whigham and Mike Green. That ended a 22-yard play and extinguished a final New York drive. Bears rookie Roosevelt Williams recovered at the 14 with 1:10 left. "It's not something I sit around and think about doing. That was my natural reaction. It's not the smartest thing to do. But if it works, we tie it up," Chrebet said. "I had a good head of steam going. I thought, 'If I could slice and get through there...'" Next thing I know, I'm higher in the air, I'm face-first on the ground and I didn't know what happened. It's my fault we didn't have chance to tie it up," he added. Chrebet's fumble was one of many mistakes for the Jets (7-7), who are mathematically still alive. "If he hurdles me and keeps running, it's a great play," Whigham said. "He couldn't get out of bounds. I think he was just trying to make a play." Chicago (4-10), which led 10-0 at the half, got touchdown runs from rookie Adrian Peterson and ex-Jet Leon Johnson. Paul Edinger kicked two field goals, a 53-yarder and then a 48-yarder into the wind with 2:38 left. And Chandler, making his sixth start with Jim Miller out for the season with a knee injury, completed 22 of 27 passes for 177 yards. The Jets' Chad Morton returned the second-half kickoff 97 yards for an apparent TD, but it was called back for holding. New York then moved in for its only touchdown as Pennington had a 13-yard pass to Laveranues Coles and Curtis Martin broke off a 35-yard run, setting up Chad Pennington's five-yard TD toss to Chrebet. "All of us are disappointed. No excuses, no explanations. Chicago just beat us and that's very frustrating for us," said Chad Pennington. After the Jets moved in for a TD on their first possession of the second half, the Bears didn't wilt. Aided by a roughing-the-passer penalty and a 23-yard run by Johnson, they went quickly downfield for another score as Johnson carried the final two yards to make it 17-7. The Jets moved to Chicago's 14 in the fourth quarter when Coles caught two passes and Coleman was called for pass interference. But two runs gained just four yards before Williams batted down a pass intended for Chrebet, forcing John Hall to kick a 28-yard field goal that made it 17-13. Peterson, who rushed for 6,543 yards at Georgia Southern, sparked a late second-quarter drive of 67 yards, capping it with a five-yard TD run. The sixth-round draft pick carried five times for 24 yards in the drive and also caught a 16-yard pass from Chandler. Edinger's 53-yard field goal gave the Bears the lead, set up by a 24-yard pass from Chandler to Stanley Pritchett. On the previous series, Pennington fumbled the snap on a fourth-and-inches from the Chicago 37, ending a drive that started at the New York two. It was that kind of day for the Jets, who play New England and Green Bay in their final two games.

GAME FIFTEEN: JETS 30 AT NEW ENGLAND PATRIOTS 17

DECEMBER 22, 2002. FOXBORO, MA – (Partly Cloudy, Cool) Chad Pennington saved the New York Jets season again and Wayne Chrebet took a leap toward redemption. The Jets kept their postseason hopes alive with a 30-17 win Sunday night over the New England Patriots, one week after they fell to Chicago. "Last week we didn't think we were going to be breathing, but now we're breathing," said Pennington, who threw three touchdown passes and improved to 7-4 as a starter. Chrebet was breathing a lot easier after his 15-yard touchdown catch gave the Jets a 27-17 lead with 8:45 left. In the 20-13 loss to the Bears, he lost a fumble deep in Chicago territory with about a minute left when he tried to jump over defenders. "We've had games where we've made one mistake and the other team had none and they beat us," Chrebet said. "Tonight, they had one." It came after the Patriots tied the game on the opening drive of the third quarter, a 16-play, 66-yard march ending with Tom Brady's 6-yard scoring pass to Christian Fauria. Then the Patriots forced the Jets to punt. But Troy Brown muffed the kick and Nick Ferguson recovered at the New England 19. John Hall's 23-yard field goal, one of three he kicked, made it 20-17. "It just kills you. It takes a lot of momentum from your team," Brown said. "It's one of the worst plays I've ever had in my career. It was just a bad decision" not to call for a fair catch. The Jets were 1-3 behind Vinny Testaverde, including a 44-7 rout by the Patriots in the second week of the season. Then Pennington took over. Now New York is 8-7 and tied with New England for second place in the AFC East behind Miami (9-6). If New York beats Green Bay and New England beats Miami next weekend, the Jets will win the AFC East with a better division record than the Dolphins and a better record against common opponents than the Patriots. "We've come along too far to not say we're going to finish it," Jets coach Herm Edwards said. "Our guys have had that fortitude, coming in here realizing that we had to win it or go home." New England will win the division if it beats Miami and New York loses to Green Bay, because the Patriots will have a better division record than the Dolphins. But the Super Bowl champs no longer control their playoff destiny. Had they beaten the Jets and Dolphins they would have won the division. Now they need help from Green Bay. The Jets "don't come in here saying, 'We're playing the Super Bowl champs,'" Brady said. "They come in here saying, 'We're playing a team that's 8-6.'" With the Jets leading 20-17, Pennington led a 75-yard drive that iced the game on his 15-yard scoring pass to Chrebet with 8:45 left. Pennington completed his first 11 passes, the Jets outgained the Patriots 261 yards to 78 and the 17-10 halftime lead didn't reflect New York's domination. "I thought (on) our pass defense, we weren't very good for a good part of the game," Patriots coach Bill Belichick said. "That caused us a lot of the problems." New York also had a strong ground game. Curtis Martin became the second NFL player to rush for at least 1,000 yards in each of his first eight seasons. Barry Sanders did it in his first 10 seasons. Martin finished with 106 yards in 26 carries for a total of 1,011 yards this season. "It means everything to me. I was hurt this year. I didn't have one off day treatment," said Martin, who rushed for just five yards on a sprained ankle in the first game against the Patriots. Both teams were coming off bad losses. The Jets fell to Chicago 20-13, while the Patriots lost to Tennessee 24-7 last Monday night with a season-low 173 yards. The Patriots didn't play any better in the first half Sunday. Pennington's 11 straight completions covered 173 yards and included first-quarter touchdowns of 32 yards to Laveranues Coles and 11 yards to Santana Moss. His first incomplection came 46 seconds into the second quarter, and he finished 23-for-33 for 285 yards. New England got a big boost from Kevin Faulk's 87-yard kickoff return for a touchdown just 14 seconds after the Jets took a 7-0 lead. It was his second score on a kickoff runback this season. The first also came on a Sunday night, an 86-yarder in a 27-20 loss to Oakland. The Patriots made it 14-10 on Adam Vinatieri's 49-yard field goal five minutes into the second quarter, and Hall added a 39-yarder for the Jets. Hall added a 43-yard field goal with 2:31 left. The Jets gained 186 yards in the first quarter alone after picking up just 200 when they lost to the Patriots on Sept. 15.

GAME SIXTEEN: GREEN BAY PACKERS 17 AT JETS 42

DECEMBER 29, 2002. EAST RUTHERFORD, NJ – (Partly Cloudy, Cold) Had the New York Jets' fans broken into chants of "P-A-T-S," it wouldn't have been a shock. In one of the wackiest NFL seasons ever, the defending Super Bowl champions gave the Jets hope for the playoffs, and Chad Pennington made it reality. New England had beaten Miami in overtime, and then it was the J-E-T-S' turn. Behind Pennington's four touchdown passes, they routed Green Bay 42-17 Sunday to win the AFC East. What Curtis Martin called a sinking ship two months ago is sailing into the NFL playoffs. "This is the best moment of my career," Martin said. "We've been through so much, we were at the bottom of not only the division, but this league. We were becoming the laughingstock of the NFL. And to win the division, I tip my hat off to this team." Not only did the Jets surge back from a 1-4 start, they knocked both their saviors, the Patriots, and the Dolphins from contention. New York (9-7) hosts Indianapolis next weekend. "We have a chance to be special and make history," said Pennington, who took over for Vinny Testaverde in Week 5 and went 8-4 as the starter. "We're playing pretty good football now, and the scary thing is, we can be even better." The Packers (12-4) blew a chance for home-field advantage throughout the NFC playoffs; Philadelphia owns that. Green Bay even lost its first-round bye and will face Atlanta next Saturday night -- yes, at night -- in Lambeau Field. "We can't make excuses," said Brett Favre, who went to the bench with 14 minutes remaining after Sam Garnes returned an interception 65 yards. "We knew what was at stake." To win only their second NFL division title, the Jets needed several things to break their way. The Patriots took care of the biggest item, and Pennington did much of the rest. The rout was far less dramatic than the New York Giants' 10-7 overtime victory over Philadelphia on the same field Saturday -- thanks greatly to the third-year quarterback. Pennington had touchdown passes of 18 and 12 yards to Wayne Chrebet, who has gone from goat after a late fumble in a loss to Chicago to the hero. He has a career-high nine TDs this season. "Today it was Wayne's turn, and he made some tremendous plays, especially after he caught the football," Pennington said. Pennington also had a one-yarder to Richie Anderson and a 13-yarder to Santana Moss. Martin ran for a five-yard score, as well. Whenever threatened by Green Bay, the spunky Jets responded. The Packers finished the first half with a touchdown drive that was vintage Favre, but the Jets moved 60 yards in six plays with the second-half kickoff, ending with Martin's touchdown run. LaMont Jordan added a late 3-yard touchdown run. Martin finished with 83 yards Sunday and 1,094 for the year, his eighth straight over 1,000. Pennington, the AFC's most efficient passer, had a 134.7 rating for the game as the Jets beat Green Bay for the sixth straight time. "He did not try to overdo things. He did not try to compete with Brett Favre," said coach Herman Edwards, now two-for-two in getting the Jets into the postseason. "All he needed to do was be Chad Pennington, and that is good enough." Green Bay's secondary struggled without injured Pro Bowl safety Darren Sharper. Several Jets receivers were wide open, including Anderson on his 1-yard pass for a 7-0 lead early in the second quarter. That capped an 84-yard drive, including a 43-yard pass from Pennington to Laveranues Coles that was typical of how the Jets have taken off on offense behind Pennington. The Packers got a 23-yard field goal from Ryan Longwell before the Jets made it 14-3 on Chrebet's first score. But Green Bay closed to 14-10 at halftime on a 76-yard drive that took 95 seconds. Hanging tough in a collapsing pocket, Favre hit Terry Glenn for 21 yards, then rookie Javon Walker for 23 on fourth-and-10. Favre's bullet pass to the corner of the end zone hit Glenn perfectly with five seconds left in the half. New York barely flinched. "We showed what we are made of as a team," Pennington said. "We're still hungry."

TRAINING COMPLEX — Jets took occupancy of their new training center at Hofstra University in Hempstead N.Y. The center contains coaches offices, players' quarters and full practice facilities (Sept. 3).

NEW HAVEN VICTORY — After going 1-7 over the first part of the year the Jets snapped their slump with a tinging 26-20 overtime victory over the Giants at Yale Bowl. Joe Namath threw six yards to Emerson Boozer for the winning points and had a bootleg TD to tie the score (Nov. 10).

EWBANK RETIRES AS VP — Weeb Ewbank announces that he will retire as vice president of the Jets at the end of the season (Nov. 12).

VICTORY BINGE — Jets close out the season with six consecutive victories to provide a 7-7 season. Included in the streak were upsets over playoff-bound Miami and Buffalo.

DRAFT — Jets traded their number one pick for DE Billy Newsome of New Orleans (Jan. 28).

GENERAL MANAGER NAMED — Al Ward, vice president of the Dallas Cowboys, was named Jets general manager to succeed Weeb Ewbank who had retired. (Feb. 13).

NAMATH SIGNS — Joe Namath turned down a reported multi-million dollar WFL contract to sign a two-year contract with Jets. (July 30).

GAME STRUCK — The final preseason game between the Jets and New England was canceled when the Patriots players went on strike. (Sept. 14).

JETS STRIKE — The New York Jets players voted to support the New England players strike and walked out of camp the week of the opener against Buffalo. (Sept. 16).

PLAYERS RETURN — Jets players returned as strike was settled. (Sept. 18).

EMPEROR HIROHITO — His Majesty Emperor Hirohito of Japan, attends home opener and watches Jets defeat Patriots 36-7 (Oct. 5).

WINNER FIRED — Charley Winner was dismissed as head coach after the Jets lost six games in a row and were in the AFC East cellar with a 2-7 record. Ken Shipp, the offensive coordinator, was named interim head coach. (Nov. 19).

RIGGINS 1000 YARDS — John Riggins became the first Jet in history to gain 1,000 yards as he reached 1,005 vs. Dallas in season finale. (Dec. 21).

1976

HOLTZ NAMED COACH — Lou Holtz, who had a successful four years at North Carolina State, was named head coach. He signed a five-year contract. (Feb. 10).

DRAFT — Jets tab another Alabama quarterback as their number one pick selecting Richard Todd (April 8).

ISELIN CARDIAC ARREST — Jets president Phil Iselin suffered a cardiac arrest while attending Jets game at Denver. (Sept. 19).

HOLTZ RESIGNS — Lou Holtz, deciding that he wasn't right for the pros, resigns with one game to go and returns to college coaching. Mike Holovak was named interim coach for final game. (Dec. 9).

NAMATH LAST GAME — Joe Namath started what was to be his final game as a Jet against Cincinnati. (Dec. 12).

ISELIN DIES — Phil Iselin, who led the Jets for eight years, suffered a fatal heart attack while at his office. (Dec. 28).

MICHAELS HEAD COACH — Veteran defensive coach Walt Michaels was named head coach signing a three-year contract. Leon Hess was named acting president. (Jan. 5).

PLAYER AGREEMENT — The NFL and the NFL Players Association agreed on a contract for the first time in three years. The contract extended five years and contained a modified draft. (March 1).

NAMATH WAIVED — Joe Namath, symbol of the Jets for 12 years, was granted his freedom as he was placed on waivers when a special trade attempt with Los Angeles was unsuccessful (April 1, became final. April 12). Namath signed as free agent with Rams (May 12).

JETS WIN EARLY ACCESS TO SHEA — After a two-month court struggle the Jets were guaranteed two September games in Shea Stadium one on either the first or second date of the NFL season plus two games in October. The agreement was for each of the remaining six years of the Jets lease with the city beginning in 1978. State Supreme Court Justice Harold Baer also allowed the Jets to play two preseason games plus their 1977 home opener at Giants Stadium in the Meadowlands. (May 26).

KENSIL NAMED PRESIDENT — Jim Kensil, executive director of the NFL since 1968, was named president and chief operating officer of the Jets. Leon Hess, who had served as acting president became chairman of the board and chief executive officer for corporate matters. (June 6).

WARD RESIGNS — Al Ward, Jets general manager since 1975, resigned (Dec. 30). He became assistant to the president of the AFC. (April, 1978).

EWBANK NAMED TO HALL OF FAME — Weeb Ewbank, who guided the Jets from 1963-73 and was the only coach to win world championships in both the NFL and AFL, was selected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. (Jan. 23).

NAMATH RETIRES — Joe Namath announced his retirement.

JETS CHANGE LOGO AND UNIFORM — For the first time since 1963, the Jets changed their uniform design. The team also adopted a new logo and changed the helmet to green. (Feb. 27).

JETS WIN FIRST DEBUT SINCE 1972 — Opening the season at home for the first time since 1964, the Jets upset Miami 33-20 behind Richard Todd's three TD passes. It was the first Jets' opening-day win in seven years. (Sept. 3).

WALKER SELECTED TO PRO BOWL — Wide receiver Wesley Walker became the first Jet since 1975 to be chosen for the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl. (Dec. 14).

JETS FINISH WITH MOST WINS SINCE 1969 — The Jets closed with an 8-8 record, the most wins in ten years and the best record since 1974. (Dec. 17).

MICHAELS PICKED COACH OF THE YEAR — Walt Michaels, who kept the youngest team in the NFL in playoff contention for 15 games, was named AFC Coach of the Year by UPI and the Pro Football Writers of America.

FIRST MONDAY NIGHT TV GAME FROM NEW YORK AREA — The Jets defeated the Vikings 14-7 at Shea Stadium in the first Monday night television game to originate from the New York City area. (Oct. 15).

JETS CLOSE WITH THREE STRAIGHT WINS — The Jets defeated AFC East rivals Baltimore, New England and Miami in the final three games of the year to finish 8-8.

MATT ROBINSON TRADED TO DENVER — Backup quarterback Matt Robinson was traded to Denver for the Broncos' first and second round picks in the 1980 draft plus quarterback Craig Penrose (Feb. 1).

DRAFT — Jets moved up to second spot in first round and picked Johnny "Lam" Jones, a wide receiver from Texas. New York swapped its two first round choices (13th and 20th) to the 49ers for their first round position. (April 29).

TODD SETS NFL RECORD — Richard Todd's 42 pass completions set an NFL record (60 attempts for 447 yards and 3 TDs) as the Jets dropped a 37-27 decision to San Francisco at Shea. (Sept. 21).

OWNERSHIP SHARES CHANGE — Townsend B. Martin sold his 25% interest in the team to Leon Hess. Hess assumed 75% ownership in the club while Helen Dillon remained at 25%. (Mar. 2).

BRAGGING RIGHTS — Jets defeat the Giants at the Meadowlands to raise their record to 4-4-1 after an 0-3 start. The defense records nine QB sacks and the only Giant score comes on a fumbled punt snap. (Nov. 1).

FIRST PLACE — The Jets capture a share of first place with a stunning 16-15 win over Miami at Shea. Playing with a broken rib and sprained ankle, Richard Todd drove the Jets 77 yards in the final 2:44 hitting Jerome Barkum from 11 yards out with :16 remaining for the win. (Nov. 22).

JETS LAND FOUR IN PRO BOWL — Representing the Jets at the Pro Bowl were Marvin Powell (for the third straight year) Joe Klecko and Mark Gastineau as starters along with Joe Fields. Richard Todd is voted MVP by his teammates. (Nov. 1).

JETS CLINCH PLAYOFF SPOT — With a 28-3 victory over Green Bay the Jets finished with a 10-5-1 record and clinched their first playoff berth since 1969. The club added nine more sacks to finish the season with 66, one shy of the NFL record. Joe Klecko and Mark Gastineau, the leaders of the NY Sack Exchange finish 1-2 in the NFL with 20 1/2 and 20, respectively. (Dec. 20).

KLECKO HURT — Joe Klecko was lost for 14 weeks after suffering a ruptured patellar tendon in his knee in the fourth quarter of a 31-7 win at New England. (Sept. 19).

PLAYERS STRIKE — NFLPA strikes pro football following the second regular season game. (Sept. 21).

STRIKE SETTLED — The NFL and NFLPA agree on a five year contract that ends the longest strike (57 days) in the history of professional sports. An abbreviated nine-game schedule and 16-team playoff format are agreed upon for the 1982 season (Nov. 16). JETS PLAYOFF BOUND after strike—Jets win five of their last seven to gain a spot in the AFC Super Bowl Tournament with a 6-3 record.

MCNEIL LEADS NFL — Freeman McNeil becomes the first Jet to lead the NFL in rushing as he finishes with 786 yards on 151 carries (5.2 avg.).

PLAYOFF UPSET — Freeman McNeil has the second best game in playoff history (202 yards rushing) and Darrol Ray sets a postseason record with a 98-yard interception for a TD as the Jets upset the Bengals 44-17 in Cincinnati to mark their first playoff win in 14 years. (Jan. 9).

JETS ADVANCE — Aided by two Lance Mehl interceptions in the final three minutes, the Jets advance to the AFC championship game after defeating the Raiders 17-14 in L.A. (Jan. 15).

CHAMPIONSHIP GAME — On an extremely muddy field at Miami's Orange Bowl, the Jets and Dolphins waged a defensive battle which ended with Miami on top, 14-0. A.J. Duhe was the hero of the game that saw 12 turnovers with three interceptions including a 35-yard return for the insurance TD. (Jan. 23).

COACHING CHANGE — After six seasons as head coach Walt Michaels announces his retirement. The next day offensive coordinator Joe Walton is named head coach and defensive coordinator Joe Gardi is promoted to ass't. head coach. (Feb. 9, 10).

JETS MOVE — Citing Shea Stadium as "rundown, neglected and the NFL's poorest facility for athletes and spectators alike" the Jets announced their plans to move to the Meadowlands for the 1984 season. The Jets pledged to return to New York City if a first-class professional stadium is ready for occupancy starting in 1989 under a lease equitable to the city and the Jets. (Oct. 6).

LAST GAME at SHEA — The Jets drop a 34-7 decision to Pittsburgh in their final home game at Shea Stadium. (Dec. 10).

PRO BOWLERS MVP — Marvin Powell is voted to the Pro Bowl for the fifth straight year while NFL sack leader Mark Gastineau and Joe Klecko are also chosen. Lance Mehl becomes the first defensive player since 1971 to be picked MVP by his teammates. (Dec. 14).

OWNERSHIP SHIFT — Leon Hess assumed full ownership of the team as Helen Dillon, a partner since 1968, sold her 25% interest in the club. (Feb. 9).

RICHARD TODD TRADED — The Jets concluded a full week of trading by sending QB Richard Todd to New Orleans for a first round pick (15th overall) (Feb. 18). Earlier in the week the Jets acquired a second round draft choice by trading Abdul Salaam and Kenny Neil to San Diego. (Feb. 13).

MEADOWLANDS — Jets moved into Giants Stadium in the Meadowlands dropping a 23-17 decision to Pittsburgh in a nationally televised Thursday night game despite a 97-yard KOR for a TD by Bobby Humphrey (Sept. 6).

JETS-GIANTS — The Giants evened the regular season series between the two teams at two each with a 20-10 win. The loss overshadowed a fine performance by QB Ken O'Brien who finished with 28-40-351-TD. Freeman McNeil, the AFC's leading rusher at the time, played the game with a broken rib which ended his season. McNeil finished with 1070 yards rushing, the most ever by a Jet. (Dec. 2).

PRO BOWLERS MVP — Freeman McNeil is named MVP by his teammates for the second time in addition to being voted to the Pro Bowl. Mark Gastineau leads the NFL in sacks for the second straight year and is also named to the Pro Bowl (Dec. 13), where he earned MVP honors, and set the official NFL record for sacks with 22. Joe Klecko, named as an alternate, also plays in the game following an injury to Bob Baumhower.

NAMATH NAMED TO HALL OF FAME — Joe Namath, who was MVP as the Jets became the first AFL team to win the Super Bowl in 1968, became the team's first player elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame (Jan. 29). Namath, the Jets all-time leading passer, also became the first Jet to have his number retired to go with this honor.

NAMATH HONORED — In an emotional halftime ceremony televised nationally on Monday night, Namath comes down from the announcers booth to have his number retired (No. 12). The Jets also beat Miami 23-7 that night (Oct. 14).

OFFENSIVE EXPLOSION — The Jets scored the most points in club history while trouncing Tampa Bay, 62-28. The team racked up 581 yards offense while Ken O'Brien tossed five TD passes, three of those to Mickey Shuler.

LONGEST PASS — Ken O'Brien throws the longest pass in Jets history a 96-yard TD to Wesley Walker in a 27-7 win at Buffalo. (Dec. 8).

FIVE TO PRO BOWL — The Jets send five players to the Pro Bowl. Freeman McNeil, Joe Klecko, Mark Gastineau and Lance Mehl are voted in and Ken O'Brien, named as an alternate, also goes following an injury to Dan Marino. O'Brien is also named MVP by his teammates. (Dec. 18).

PLAYOFF CLINCHER — With a 37-10 victory, the Jets finished 11-5 and clinched their third playoff spot in five years. Ken O'Brien becomes the first Jet QB to lead the NFL in passer ratings.

WILD CARD PLAYOFF — Turnovers are the story as the Jets commit four costly ones while dropping a 26-14 decision to the eventual AFC champions, New England. The Patriots score the backbreaking TD in the third quarter on the return of a fumbled kickoff. Ken O'Brien suffers a concussion and Pat Ryan comes on to play the second half. (Dec. 28).

OT THRILLER — In one of the most memorable games in club history, the Jets topped Miami 51-45 in a wild OT contest. Ken O'Brien, who was 29-43-479-4 TD, threw a perfect strike to Wesley Walker from 21 yards out on the final play of regulation to tie the score. In OT, Walker caught a club record fourth TD on a 43-yard bomb at the 2:35 mark. (Sept. 21).

RECORD SETTER — The Jets defense set a club record holding New England to 10-17 rushing in a 31-24 victory. Johnny Hector set a team mark with 40 rushes for 143 yards and 3 TD. (Oct. 12).

MEHL HURT — Pro Bowl LB Lance Mehl was lost for the season after suffering a knee injury during a 28-24 win over New Orleans. (Oct. 26).

WINNING STREAK, GASTINEAU HURT — The Jets won a club record ninth consecutive game with a 31-16 decision over Indianapolis to improve to 10-1 on the season. The win was costly though, as Mark Gastineau suffers a knee injury which forced him to miss the rest of the regular season. (Nov. 16).

INJURIES MOUNT — Injuries continued to be the story as the Jets lost Joe Klecko and Reggie McElroy to reconstructive knee surgery following a 45-24 loss to Pittsburgh. (Dec. 13).

PRO BOWLERS, MVP — Al Toon, who set a Jets record for catches in a season with 85 to finish second in the AFC, is voted MVP by his teammates in addition to being named a Pro Bowl selection. Also named to the Pro Bowl for the first time is Mickey Shuler. (Dec. 17).

WILD CARD PLAYOFF WIN — After ending the season with five straight defeats, Joe Walton named Pat Ryan as the starting QB for this playoff game, and the Jets won their first home playoff contest since 1968 with a 35-15 trouncing of Kansas City. The key play of the game was Ryan's 24-yard run on a QB draw on fourth and six to the nine-yard line in the first quarter. The Jets took the lead two plays later and it set the tone of the game. (Dec. 28).

DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF — In one of the most disappointing losses in team history, the Jets lost a heart-breaking 23-20 decision in two OTs at Cleveland. The Jets opened a 20-10 lead with 4:14 left before the Browns mounted their comeback which tied the score. The Jets received a second life in OT when Mark Moseley missed a 23-yard FG, but his 27-yard FG 2:02 into the second OT sent Cleveland to the AFC championship game. The game was the third longest in NFL history. (Jan. 3).

MAYNARD VOTED IN HALL OF FAME — Don Maynard became the second Jet player elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame, joining his teammate Joe Namath along with their coach Weeb Ewbank. Maynard, who had the second most reception yardage in NFL history, also became the second Jet to have his number retired (No. 13) to go with the honor. (Jan. 27).

LEAHY REACHES 1,000 — Scoring seven points in an opening day 31-28 win at Buffalo, Pat Leahy becomes the 13th player in NFL history to register 1,000 points. (Sept. 13).

PLAYERS STRIKE — NFLPA strikes pro football following the Jets-New England Monday night game after the second week of the season. (Sept. 22).

REPLACEMENT GAMES — The NFL canceled week three and prepares to play the schedule with new players and veterans who wish to return. Fielding teams of replacement players, the Jets lose to Dallas 38-24 (Oct. 4) and at Indianapolis 6-0. (Oct. 11).

PLAYERS RETURN — The NFLPA sends the players back to work but miss the deadline for playing week six (Oct. 15). In the final week of replacement games, the Jets beat Miami 37-31 in OT at home with Pat Ryan throwing four TD passes. (Oct. 18).

MAYNARD HONORED — Flanked by fellow Jets' Hall of Famers Weeb Ewbank and Joe Namath, Don Maynard is presented his Hall of Fame ring and his number 13 is retired in a halftime ceremony. (Nov. 1).

TOON EXCELS — Al Toon finished the season as the AFC's leading receiver and is named to a starting spot in the Pro Bowl. He also becomes the only Jet other than Joe Namath to be voted MVP by his teammates in consecutive seasons. (Dec. 23).

KLECKO WAIVED — Joe Klecko, the only defensive player in NFL history to make the Pro Bowl at three different positions (DE, DT, NT), was waived/failed physical after the club recommended that he retire. He turned down an opportunity to join the coaching staff in his attempt to continue playing. (Feb. 8).

KENSIL RETIRES, GUTMAN NAMED PRESIDENT — Jim Kensil took medical retirement after serving 11 seasons as team president. Steve Gutman, the club's corporate treasurer and administrative manager since 1977, was named president to succeed Kensil. (June 14).

LOST LINEBACKERS — The Jets lose two of their veteran LBs in training camp as former Pro Bowler Lance Mehl announces his retirement and Bob Crable injures his knee, undergoes reconstructive surgery, is lost for the year and retires after the season. (Aug.).

GASTINEAU RETIRES — Citing personal reasons, Mark Gastineau leaves the team in midseason and announces his retirement. The club places him on reserve/retired. (Oct. 21).

O'BRIEN STREAK — In the third quarter of a 17-10 win at Detroit, Ken O'Brien throws his first INT in 211 passing attempts, the second longest streak in NFL history at that point. (Sept. 25).

BIG WIN IN MIAMI — Despite Dan Marino passing for the second highest yardage in NFL history (521 yards), the Jets beat the Dolphins in Miami with rookie FS Erik McMillan recording three INT and returning one for a 55-yard TD. (Oct. 23).

BRAGGING RIGHTS — The Jets beat the Giants 27-21 in the final game of the season to post a winning record in 1988 at 8-7-1 and in the process knocked the Giants out of the playoffs. Al Toon caught the winning five-yard TD pass on a Ken O'Brien third down audible with only :37 left. (Dec. 18).

HONORS — Al Toon became the first Jet to lead the NFL in receptions and to also be voted team MVP in three consecutive years. He was named to the Pro Bowl along with Mickey Shuler, who was the AFC's leading receiver among TEs; and Erik McMillan, who led the AFC with eight INT, and was named NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year. (Dec. 19).

McMILLAN SETS INT RECORD — Erik McMillan returns an INT 92 yards for a TD vs. Indianapolis to break the 27-year club mark previously held by Wayne Fontes who had recorded an 83-yarder as a member of the NY Titans (Oct. 1). McMillan also tied an NFL record for most fumbles returned for TD in a season (two) when he had a 74-yarder at NO (Oct. 15) and 45-yarder vs. SF. (Oct. 29).

MONDAY NIGHT HISTORY — The Jets share a moment of history on Monday Night Football when they play the Raiders in the debut of Art Shell, the first black head coach in the modern era of the NFL. The Raiders beat the Jets 14-7. (Oct. 9).

STEINBERG NAMED VP-GM — Following extensive interviews to find the best "football" man to take full charge of the team's operations, Leon Hess and Steve Gutman name Dick Steinberg, the former New England director of player development, as the Jets' Vice President and General Manager. (Dec. 18).

HONORS — Erik McMillan makes it two in a row when he is once again named to the Pro Bowl team in his sophomore season, while WR-KR JoJo Townsell is voted MVP by his teammates. (Dec. 19).

DISMAL SEASON ENDS — The Jets drop a 37-0 decision to Buffalo in the season finale to finish the year 4-12, the worst record since 1980. It becomes the first time in club history that the team was shut out in back-to-back home games. (Dec. 23).

WALTON ERA ENDS — Citing the need for the team to get off to a "fresh start", Dick Steinberg announces his plan to dismiss Joe Walton and begin a search for a new head coach. Walton ends his seven-year reign with a 53-57-1 mark. (Dec. 26).

COSLET NAMED HEAD COACH — At the conclusion of his detailed search, Dick Steinberg decided on former Cincinnati offensive coordinator Bruce Coslet as the eighth full-time head coach in club history. (Feb. 6).

UNIFORM CHANGE — For the fourth time in club history, and third in Jet annals, the Jets changed their uniform design. The team added a third color, black, to accent the green and white and altered the road uniform by adding green pants. (Sept. 9).

FIRST WIN — The Jets registered their first win in the Steinberg/Coslet era in their home debut with a 24-21 win over Cleveland. (Sept. 16).

RECORD RETURN — Rookie WR-KR Terance Mathis tied an NFL record shared by three others when he returned a punt 98 yards for a TD in a 24-9 win over Dallas. (Nov. 4).

JETS END SEASON ON UPSWING — The Jets wrap up the season with wins over New England and Tampa Bay to finish at 6-10. Pat Leahy was voted MVP by his teammates and finished the season with a team-high 101 points and a career total of 1,362 to move into the number seven spot in NFL history.

LEAHY RECORD SETTER — Pat Leahy tied Jim Turner for third place on the all-time FG chart when he hit his 304th at Detroit on December 8. He would also finish the season as the NFL's third all-time leading scorer with 1,470 points in 250 games played (fifth most in NFL history). Leahy finished the season with 108 points (26-37 FG, 30-30 PAT).

HONORS — WR and special teams standout Chris Burkett is voted MVP by his teammates. QB Ken O'Brien would be named to his second career Pro Bowl after being chosen as an alternate. (Dec. 18).

BACK TO THE PLAYOFFS — The Jets scored an incredible 23-20 OT win in Miami which put the club in the playoffs for the first time since 1986. After Miami scored the go-ahead TD with only :44 left, the Jets drove to tie the game on Raul Allegre's 44-yard FG with no time left and then won the game on a 30-yard FG at 6:15 in OT. (Dec. 22).

McNEIL SETS NFL RECORD — By finishing the season with 51-300-5.9 avg., Freeman McNeil broke Joe Perry's mark and set an NFL record by having a 4.0 rushing avg. or better in all 11 of his seasons. (Dec. 22).

WILD CARD PLAYOFF — In their first playoff game in five years, several second-half mistakes prevented the Jets from registering an upset win at Houston as they fell, 17-10. A costly INT at the Houston three-yard line in the third quarter, along with not being able to convert third-and-one and fourth-and-one at the Houston three-yard line in the fourth quarter would eventually haunt the Jets. (Dec. 29).

NAGLE SHINES IN OPENER — After a 5-0 preseason, Browning Nagle threw for 366 yards and TD in the season opener at Atlanta. The yardage total was the second highest by an NFL QB making his first start. (Sept. 6).

TOON RETIRES — After suffering a severe concussion in week nine at Denver, WR Al Toon announced his retirement, citing possible problems from a future concussion. Toon left the game with a club record streak of 101 consecutive games with at least one reception. (Nov. 27).

BYRD INJURED — DE Dennis Byrd was partially paralyzed in a freak collision with teammate Scott Mersereau in the third quarter of week 12 game vs. Kansas City (Nov. 29). He had spinal surgery three days later at Lenox Hill Hospital in New York City by Drs. Patrick O'Leary and Martin Camins (Dec. 3), and was then moved to Mount Sinai Medical Center to begin his rehabilitation under the direction of Dr. Kristjan Ragnarsson. (Dec. 9).

JETS BREAK SLUMP — Inspired by their teammate Dennis Byrd, the Jets defeated AFC East rival Buffalo 24-17 on the road. S Brian Washington sealed the win, intercepting a fourth quarter Jim Kelly pass and returning it for the winning TD. It was the Jets' first win over the Bills since 1987. (Dec. 6).

WASHINGTON, BYRD HONORED — SS Brian Washington was named team MVP and the Jets honored Byrd with the Most Inspirational Player Award, which was later named the Dennis Byrd Award.

BYRD WALKS — With the aid of two canes, Dennis Byrd walked into a press conference at Mount Sinai Medical Center in New York, to announce that he would be leaving New York and would return home to Tulsa, OK to continue his rehab (Feb. 12). Byrd continued to show improvement in the following months, eventually walking unaided.

COSLET CONTRACT EXTENDED — The Jets gave head coach Bruce Coslet a one-year contract extension through the 1994 season. (Feb. 18).

LOTT SIGNS — GM Dick Steinberg made his first major signing under the NFL's new Collective Bargaining Agreement by adding nine-time Pro Bowl S Ronnie Lott to the Jets' roster. (Mar. 8).

MARSHALL SIGNS — A day after adding Lott, the Jets announced the signing of Pro Bowl DT Leonard Marshall, an 11-year veteran of the Giants. (Mar. 9).

BOOMER COMES HOME — Dick Steinberg put the finishing touches on a trade with the Cincinnati Bengals, bringing Pro Bowl QB Boomer Esiason, a Long Island native, to the Jets in exchange for a third-round pick in the 1993 draft. (Mar. 17).

O'BRIEN TRADED — In a much anticipated move, QB Ken O'Brien, second on the Jets' all-time passing list, was traded to Green Bay in exchange for a fifth-round selection in the 1993 draft. (Apr. 5).

MCNEIL RETIRES — RB Freeman McNeil, the Jets all-time leading rusher and 14th on the NFL all-time list, retired after 12 seasons. McNeil set an NFL record with at least a 4.0 yard average in all of his 12 seasons. He finished his career with 8,074 rushing yards and 26 career 100-yard games. (Apr. 21).

DRAFT-DAY TRADE — The Jets traded the third overall selection in the draft to Phoenix in exchange for the Cardinals' pick (#four). That maneuver brought the Jets former Pro Bowl RB Johnny Johnson and Florida State All-America LB Marvin Jones, the player the Jets originally sought with their pick. (Apr. 25).

BYRD HONORED — Former DE Dennis Byrd returned to the Meadowlands for the first time since his paralyzing accident and walked unaided onto the field before a sold out opening day crowd. He was named an honorary captain for the coin toss and was honored in a halftime ceremony as the first recipient of the Dennis Byrd Award. (Sept. 5).

BOOMER SETS CLUB MARK — QB Boomer Esiason set a club record for most consecutive completions with 18 over two games at Miami (Sept. 12) and vs. New England (Sept. 26). He went on to earn AFC Offensive Player of the Month honors for September.

JETS WIN BRAGGING RIGHTS — In a highly anticipated matchup that lived up to its pregame hype, the Jets defeated their crosstown rivals, the New York Giants, 10-6 on Halloween day (Oct. 31) to win the bragging rights of New York. The defense held the Giants to two FG and stopped them four times from inside the Jets' 11-yard line on the final possession. James Hasty and Ronnie Lott batted away a Phil Simms pass in the end zone with :17 remaining to seal the win.

SHULA DENIED — The Jets defeated Miami 27-10 at the Meadowlands, forcing Dolphin coach Don Shula to wait another week for his record breaking 325th career victory. (Nov. 7).

WINNING STREAK — RB Johnny Johnson galloped 57 yards for a TD in the fourth quarter at the Hoosierdome to give the Jets a 31-17 win against the Colts, their third consecutive victory and the longest streak of head coach Bruce Coslet's four-year tenure. The streak extended to five games, the longest since the team won nine straight games in 1986. (Nov. 14).

SUPER REUNION — The members of the Jets Super Bowl III championship team were reunited at the Jets-Bengals game to celebrate the 25th anniversary season of that historic victory. After a full weekend of activities, they were honored at halftime and then watched the Jets come away with a 17-12 victory. The Jets players wore their "original throwback" uniforms to honor the Super Bowl champions. (Nov. 21).

JOHNSON VOTED MVP — RB Johnny Johnson was named team MVP in a vote by his teammates. Johnson finished the season ranked second in the AFC in total yards from scrimmage and his 1393 yards were also the third-highest total for a season in Jets history. He was one of only two RB in the NFL in 1993 to lead his team in rushing and receptions. (Dec. 31).

CARROLL REPLACES COSLET — Defensive coordinator Pete Carroll became the ninth full-time head coach in club history when he replaced Bruce Coslet who compiled a 26-38 record in his four seasons with the club. (Jan. 7).

FREE AGENTS — For the second year in a row the Jets were one of the most active teams in free agency, signing eight players including WA Art Monk and K Nick Lowery.

WIN IN BUFFALO — The Jets beat the Bills at Rich Stadium for the second time in three years with a convincing 23-3 win in Pete Carroll's head coaching debut. (Sept. 4).

TWO-AND-ONE — New York begins the season with two victories for the first time since 1987 when Nick Lowery's 39-yard FG in OT gave the Jets a 25-22 win over Denver in the home opener. (Sept. 11).

SWEEP — With a 22-17 win at the Meadowlands, the Jets completed a season sweep of the Buffalo Bills for the first time since the 1986 season. (Nov. 6).

ESIASON REACHES MILESTONE — Boomer Esiason became just the 16th player in NFL history to pass for 200 career TD when he connected with Rob Moore on a four-yard scoring pass in the second half of the Jets 22-17 win over Buffalo. (Nov. 6).

RECORD CROWD — 75,606 people, the largest home attendance mark in Jets history, came to watch the Jets battle the Dolphins for a share of first place in the AFC East. The Jets held a 24-6 3rd quarter lead before Miami, led by Dan Marino, staged a furious fourth quarter comeback to defeat the Jets 28-24. (Nov. 27).

STEINBERG DIAGNOSED WITH CANCER — The team announced before it's season finale against the Houston Oilers that vice president and general manager Dick Steinberg had been diagnosed with stomach cancer and would begin treatments immediately. (Dec. 24).

1995

KOTITE REPLACES CARROLL — Owner Leon Hess named Rich Kotite the 10th full-time head coach in franchise history, replacing Pete Carroll who was fired after the team finished with a 6-10 record in his only season as head coach. (Jan. 5).

MOORE TRADED — WR Rob Moore was traded to the Arizona Cardinals the night prior to the NFL Draft for RB Ronald Moore and the Cardinals' number one draft choice. (Apr. 21).

TWO NUMBER 1'S — As a result of the Rob Moore trade, the Jets held two first-round draft choices for the first time since 1984 (Russell Carter, Ron Fautot) and selected Penn State TE Kyle Brady and Central State (OH) DE Hugh Douglas. (Apr. 22).

FREE AGENCY — The Jets continued to be active in the free agent market, signing seven unrestricted free agents: QB Bubba Brister, RB-KR Dexter Carter, S Gary Jones and Todd Scott, DT-DE Erik Howard and Matt Brock and CB Otis Smith.

KOTITE WINS FIRST — Rich Kotite won his first game as Jets head coach with 27-10 victory over the Jacksonville Jaguars at the Meadowlands. (Sept. 17).

CHREBET MILESTONES — Wayne Chrebet, a rookie free agent WR from Hofstra, became the Jets all-time leading rookie receiver with four catches at New England in game 14, surpassing Matt Snell's 56-catch mark set in 1964. The previous week, vs. St. Louis, he became the most prolific rookie WR in club history.

surpassing Al Toon's rookie total of 46 in 1985. Chrebet went on to finish second on the team in receptions and second among all NFL rookies with 66 receptions. (Dec. 10).

DOUGLAS SACK MARK — Rookie DE Hugh Douglas had two sacks at Indianapolis, bringing his season total to nine and breaking the club rookie record for sacks in a season set by Joe Klecko in 1977 (Oct. 29).

MURRELL RECEPTION RECORD — With a career high nine receptions vs. New Orleans in the season finale, third-year RB Adrian Murrell set a club record for receptions by a RB in a season with 71, surpassing Johnny Johnson's mark of 67 set in 1993. (Dec. 24).

DOUGLAS, ROOKIES EARN HONORS — DE Hugh Douglas was named the NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year after leading all rookies with ten sacks on the season. WR Wayne Chrebet earned all-rookie honors from Football News and College & Pro Football Weekly, and LB Chad Cascadden earned all-rookie honors for his special teams play. (Jan. 21).

ESIASON NAMED MAN OF THE YEAR — QB Boomer Esiason became the second Jet (Marty Lyons 1985) to be named the NFL Man of the Year for his charity work off the field. In two years Esiason raised over $2 million towards cystic fibrosis research. (Jan. 25).

WILLIAMS FIRST FREE AGENT TO SIGN — T David Williams was the first player to sign with the Jets as a FA, leading a long line of players that included T John Elliott, QB's Neil O'Donnell and Frank Reich and WR Jeff Graham. (Feb. 15).

O'DONNELL SIGNS — Super Bowl QB Neil O'Donnell signed with the Jets as an UFA. After leading Pittsburgh to four straight playoff appearances, including the 1994 AFC Championship Game and Super Bowl XXX, the Madison, NJ native became a key cog in the Jets efforts to improve their offense. (Feb. 28).

KEYSHAWN, KEYSHAWN — For the first time in club history, the Jets had the first overall pick of the NFL Draft and selected All-America WR Keyshawn Johnson of Southern California, bringing a chorus of cheers from the Jets' faithful at the Madison Square Garden Theater in New York City. (Apr. 20).

O'DONNELL INJURED — QB Neil O'Donnell suffered a shoulder injury in game six vs. Oakland and would miss six games due to the injury. He was scheduled to return to action in game 13 vs. Houston, but suffered a torn calf muscle in pregame warmups, sidelining him for the remainder of the season.

MURRELL GOES OVER 1,000 — RB Adrian Murrell became only the third RB in NFL history to gain over 1,000 yards rushing for a team that won only one game. Murrell produced the second-most yards in club history with 1249 on a club record 301 carries.

CHREBET SETS NFL MARK — With 84-909-3 TD WR Wayne Chrebet raised his career reception total to 150-the most by any player in his first two NFL seasons.

KOTITE STEPS ASIDE — Two days before the season finale vs. Miami, head coach Rich Kotite stepped aside after 3-13 and 1-15 campaigns. (Dec. 20).

JIM KENSIL REMEMBERED — Former Jets president and NFL official Jim Kensil passed away. Kensil spent 11 years with the club from 1977-1988, leading the team to playoff appearances in 1981, 1982, 1985 and 1986, before retiring (Jan. 16).

JETS HIRE BELICHICK/PARCELLS COMBO — The Jets hire longtime Bill Parcells assistant Bill Belichick as head coach, naming Bill Parcells as a consultant, and spurring an official complaint from the New England Patriots, who claimed to still hold Parcells under contract. (Feb. 3).

JETS MEET WITH COMMISSIONER — Leon Hess and Patriots owner Bob Kraft meet with Commissioner Paul Tagliabue in New York City with regard to the Parcells issue. After hours of negotiations, Tagliabue ruled that Bill Parcells could take over the Jets football operations immediately. In return, the Jets would compensate the Patriots with draft picks over the next three years: the Jets third and fourth round selections in 1997, their second round selection in 1998 and their first round selection in 1999. (Feb. 10).

PARCELLS INTRODUCED — Bill Parcells became the 11th full-time head coach in Jets history when he was introduced in a press conference at Weeb Ewbank Hall. Bill Belichick was named assistant head coach/defensive coordinator. (Feb. 11).

JETS TRADE FIRST DRAFT PICK — Holding the number one selection in the NFL Draft for the second consecutive season, the Jets made a trade with the St. Louis Rams, sending that selection to the Rams in return for first, third, fourth and seventh round picks. (Apr. 17).

PARCELLS FIRST JETS DRAFT — Parcells traded down twice in the first round of the 1997 Draft, accumulating 11 picks in his first draft with the Jets. The first player selected was Virginia LB James Farrior.

PARCELLS/WERBLIN INDUCTED INTO NJ HALL — Head Coach Bill Parcells and former team owner Sonny Werblin were inducted into the NJ Sports Hall of Fame. (May 15).

AIR DOME — The Jets upgraded their practice facilities, adding improved grass and turf fields while erecting a new air-supported indoor practice facility. (July 2).

AARON GLENN IS VOTED A STARTER IN THE PRO BOWL — Aaron Glenn became the first cornerback in Jets history to be named a starter in the Pro Bowl. He led the AFC with a kickoff return average of 26.5. He also had a long KOR of 971 in week two against the Buffalo Bills. (Dec. 11).

JETS POST A WINNING SEASON — Under their new head coach Bill Parcells, the Jets posted their first winning season in nine years. The Jets found themselves alive in the playoff race up to the last game of the season when they played at Detroit in a "win you're in, lose and you go home," finale. The Jets just fell short and missed the playoffs after a tough 13-10 loss. (Dec. 21).

JETS UNVEIL NEW LOGOS — The Jets look to go back to the future with their "new" logo. In actuality, the Jets returned to their original uniform and logo first worn at the club's inception in 1963 and worn by the team when Joe Namath "guaranteed" their 16-7 victory over the Baltimore Colts in Super Bowl III on January 12, 1969. (Feb. 3).

JETS SIGN CURTIS MARTIN — Curtis Martin officially became a New York Jet as the restricted free agent offer sheet was not matched by the Patriots. The Jets did have to give up first and third round picks, but Bill Parcells stated that Martin was worth it. "It was a long process, but one we think was well thought out. We know the price was high, but we think we got good value in return. When I look at the draft and the 18th spot, I look to see if I can get a better player than Curtis Martin, and I don't think I can. I think that this move gives us a stable of very good backs." (March 25).

JETS FINISH THE DRAFT WITH 12 NEW FACES — Bill Parcells, who has never been afraid to trade down for more draft picks, did just that and tried strengthening his team with 12 new rookies. For the second straight year the Jets had a lot of new faces on the team. (Apr. 18-19).

JETS SIGN QB VINNY TESTAVERDE — Vinny Testaverde returned to Long Island where he grew up and fulfilled a lifetime dream of playing for the Jets. He has spent time with Tampa Bay, Cleveland and Baltimore, throughout his career and was named to the Pro Bowl in 1996 while with the Ravens as he threw for a career-high 4,177 yards and 33 TD. With this signing, the Jets also released QB Neil O'Donnell. O'Donnell joined the Jets in 1996 as a UFA, after spending six seasons with Pittsburgh. (June 24).

JETS WIN AFC EAST FOR FIRST TIME — After defeating the Buffalo Bills 17-10 at Ralph Wilson Stadium the Jets clinched their first AFC East title. The tough road victory not only won them the AFC East, it assured the team a very important first round bye in the playoffs. (Dec. 19).

JETS WIN 12 GAMES — The Jets set a team season record for victories when they beat the New England Patriots 31-10 in the season finale, recording their 12th win.

JETS SEND FIVE TO THE PRO BOWL — Aaron Glenn, for the second year in a row, was voted the AFC's starting cornerback. Glenn led the team with six INT and was once again big on kickoff returns. Mo Lewis was named a starter in the Pro Bowl. This was his first selection in his eight-year career. QB Vinny Testaverde made the team as a reserve and made his second appearance in the game. The team MVP set a club record for most TD thrown in a season with 29, and led the Jets to the AFC Championship game. WR Keyshawn Johnson made his first appearance in Hawaii. The third-year wideout led the team in receptions, yards and TD receiving. (Dec. 16) Curtis Martin replaced an injured Terrell Davis to make his third Pro Bowl appearance. (Feb. 5).

JETS WIN PLAYOFF GAME — The Jets won their first playoff game since 1986 when they defeated the Jacksonville Jaguars at the Meadowlands, 34-24. In a wild game, the Jets jumped to a 17-0 second quarter lead only to see the Jaguars get back into it before surging to another 17-point bulge, 31-14. The Jaguars closed to 31-24 before John Hall's 30-yard FG closed the door sending the Jets to their first conference championship game in 16 years. Keyshawn Johnson and Curtis Martin sparked the Jets' offense. Martin was 36-124-2 TD rushing and 6-58 receiving. Johnson finished the day with 9-121 receiving, added a 10-yard end around TD, had a fumble recovery and ended the game with an interception on a last second Hail Mary. (Jan. 10).

JETS FALL SHORT IN AFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME — The Jets took a 10-0 third quarter lead, but were unable to play the mistake-free football they had played all season and saw the Denver Broncos come back for a 23-10 victory en route to defending their Super Bowl championship. After taking their 10-0 lead via a FG and a blocked punt resulting in a TD, the Jets were victimized by a couple of big plays by John Elway and the running of Terrell Davis 32-167-1TD. The Jets lost four fumbles and had two passes deflected into interceptions. (Jan. 17).

JETS SECURE VINNY TESTAVERDE — After a Pro Bowl year, the Jets made sure to lock up their star QB for probably the rest of his career. Testaverde signed a three-year deal, with a four-year option. He led the Jets to AFC Championship game where the team fell just sort of fulfilling their Super Bowl dreams. This 1986 Heisman trophy winner, returns to his hometown area of Elmont, where he was 12-1 in the regular season as a starter. His 29 touchdown passes broke a club record shared by his boyhood idol Joe Namath. (Mar. 1).

JETS HOPE TO IMPROVE THEIR OFFENSIVE LINE — With four of the team's eight picks in the 1999 draft, the Jets selected offensive linemen. The team continues to try to find the right fit at the G position for the 1999 season. The team also selected two LB, one DT and one CB rounding out their eight selections.

OWNER LEON HESS REMEMBERED — Leon Hess, the owner of the New York Jets and the oil legend, died at age 85. The cause of death was attributed to complications from a blood disease. Hess was one of a group of five who originally bought the New York franchise out of bankruptcy in 1963 and soon changed the name from Titans to Jets and hired Weeb Ewbank as the head coach and general manager. He kept a low profile and stayed behind the scenes while making every effort to give the Jets and their fans first class facilities. After the Jets captured the Super Bowl III championship (Jan. 12, 1969), Hess' dream was a return to the Super Bowl. His hiring of Bill Parcells almost made that dream come through in 1998 as the Jets rang up a club record 12 wins, including their first AFC East championship, but ultimately lost to the eventual Super Bowl champion Denver Broncos in the AFC Championship game. Hess, who started building Hess Oil from his father's one truck heating oil delivery business during the depression and built it into a multi-billion dollar company, became the sole owner of the Jets in 1984. (May 7).

JETS FOR SALE — The Estate of Leon Hess announced that the Jets would be sold as per the wishes of Leon Hess' will. The firm of Goldman, Sachs & Co. was retained to manage the proceedings. The estate announced that Bill Parcells would continue to have complete authority over football operations and that president Steve Gutman would continue in charge of business operations and assist the Estate and Goldman, Sachs in the sale process. The Hess family and the executors will give their full support to Bill Parcells, the Jets players, the entire Jets organization and the many loyal New York Jets fans in the pursuit of a Super Bowl championship season to fulfill the dream of Leon Hess. (May 21).

CHREBET BREAKS FOOT — WR Wayne Chrebet, "Mr. Third Down" and one of the most prolific receivers in the NFL in the last four years, breaks a bone in his foot in the final preseason game against Minnesota and is to miss the first four weeks of the season (Sept. 3). During the season ten regulars missed at least one start and 15 players missed at least one game. Players missed a total of 108 games and 89 starts.

TESTAVERDE LOST FOR SEASON IN OPENER — Vinny Testaverde, the Jets 1998 MVP and Pro Bowl QB, ruptured his Achilles tendon in the first half of the season opener against New England and was lost for the season. (Sept. 12).

MARTIN GRAND SLAM — Curtis Martin joined an elite club when he rushed past the 1,000-yard mark against Indianapolis. He became one of only four players to reach that mark in his first five seasons in the NFL. The only other players to accomplish that feat are Barry Sanders, Eric Dickerson and Tony Dorsett. (Nov. 28).

LUCAS MAKES FIRST START — With the offense struggling under Rick Mirer at QB (replaced Testaverde after being acquired in a trade during the preseason from Green Bay), Ray Lucas gets the starting nod from Bill Parcells against Indianapolis. Lucas' end zone interception turns into game losing play and his injury (sprained ankle) sends him to the sidelines for two games. (Oct. 17).

MONDAY NIGHT WIN AT NEW ENGLAND — Ray Lucas returns to the starting lineup and he helps lead the Jets to 24-17 win at Foxboro on national TV with a pair of TD passes as Bill Parcells wins fourth of the six "Tuna Bowls." (Nov. 15).

FOUR GAME WIN STREAK — The Jets go on a four-game winning streak against four playoff-bound teams beating Miami 28-20 (Dec. 12), winning 22-21 at Dallas (Dec. 19), winning 38-31 at Miami (Dec. 27 on Monday night TV) and triumphing over Seattle 19-9 in season finale (Jan. 2, 2000). Club swings from 1-6 to 8-8 but misses playoffs by one game.

HAWAII FOUR O — Three Jets, WR Keyshawn Johnson, C Kevin Mawae and P Tom Tupa were voted to the Pro Bowl squad and a fourth, LB Mo Lewis was added as a "need" player. It was the second straight year that Johnson and Lewis played in the Pro Bowl and the first selection for Mawae and Tupa. (Dec. 15).

MARTIN SETS CLUB RECORD — Curtis Martin set the club season rushing record with his biggest day as a Jet in closing day win over Seattle. Martin, who was snubbed by the Pro Bowl voters but was named team MVP by his teammates, produced 158 rushing yards and 45 more on receptions and finished the season with 1,464 yards eclipsing Freeman McNeil's mark of 1,331 set in 1985. (Jan. 2).

PARCELLS RETIRES FROM COACHING — Future Hall of Fame coach Bill Parcells announces a day after the season ends that "I'm not going to coach any more football games." Parcells says he will stay on as director of football operations and by contract Bill Belichick takes over as head coach replacing Parcells. "I've had a wonderful three years here. I've enjoyed it very much. I'm grateful to the players who hung in there this year. Our season was really a credit to them. They didn't quit. But we're better off now than when we started (1997 took over a 1-15 team, worst in the NFL). I'm proud of that." Parcells retires with 138 regular season victories (13th most ever) and 149 overall wins (12th most). He won two Super Bowls for the Giants (in 1986 and 1990) and took the Patriots to the Super Bowl in 1996). He helped guide three losing franchises to championship play (Jan. 3).

BELICHICK RESIGNS — A day after taking over as head coach, Bill Belichick stuns Jets and the football world by resigning as head coach citing uncertainty of new ownership situation. Jets president Steve Gutman says Belichick has a signed contract "that is clear, unambiguous and specific with respect to the areas of uncertainty that he (Belichick) has raised today so far as they relate to football and the New York Jets."

ROBERT WOOD JOHNSON IV BUYS JETS — The Estate of the late Leon Hess, owner of the Jets since 1963, announces that it has entered into a definitive agreement with Robert Wood Johnson IV to sell the New York Jets for $635 million. The NFL finance committee unanimously agreed to recommend to the league the approval of the sale to Johnson at its meeting on Jan. 18. The executors of the Hess Estate said: "The late Leon Hess was the proud owner of the Jets since 1963. He had a special love for the team and its many loyal fans. The Hess family will remain strong supporters of the Jets and wishes Mr. Johnson, Bill Parcells, the entire Jets organization and players every success in the future and thanks the many loyal Jets fans." (Jan. 11).

JOHNSON APPROVED BY LEAGUE — Woody Johnson is unanimously approved as the new owner of the Jets and sets forth future plans: to keep the continuity and stability in tact by keeping Bill Parcells on as director of football operations and Steve Gutman as president, finding a new home for the Jets and the goal of bringing a championship team to Greater New York. (Jan. 18).

AL GROH NAMED HEAD COACH — The Jets elevated linebacker coach Al Groh to head coach, making him the 11th full-time head coach in the franchise's 40-year history. "This will be my staff and my team," said Groh. (Jan. 24).

BELICHICK COMPENSATION AGREEMENT — After NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue and Federal Judge John W. Bissell ruled that the Jets' contract with Bill Belichick was valid, Bill Parcells and New England's Robert Kraft ended "the Border War" and brokered compensation for Belichick to become head coach of the Patriots. The Jets received New England's first round pick (no. 16) in the 2000 draft plus its no. four and no. seven choices in 2001. The Jets sent the Patriots a fifth round pick in 2001 and a seventh rounder in 2002. (Jan. 27).

TRADE KEYSHAWN JOHNSON — The Jets traded WR Keyshawn Johnson to Tampa Bay in exchange for two first round draft choices (no. 13 and no. 27) in the 2000 draft. (April 12).

DRAFT HISTORY, FOUR FIRST ROUND PICKS — The Jets made NFL history when they became the first team to ever make four first round selections in the draft. Using the 12th pick obtained from San Francisco, they chose Tennessee's DE Shaun Ellis and with the 13th pick obtained from Tampa Bay in the Keyshawn Johnson trade, took South Carolina LB John Abraham. With their own 18th pick, they selected Marshall QB Chad Pennington and with the 27th choice, also from the Johnson to Tampa Bay deal, picked TE Anthony Becht from West Virginia. (April 15).

PARCELLS STAYS ON — Bill Parcells committed to staying on as Director of Football Operations through the 2000 season saying, "I indicated some time ago I would not abandon this franchise. I look forward to working with Woody Johnson and Al Groh in a collective effort to try to bring a championship to New York." (May 5).

CROSS TABBED TO HEAD JETS DEVELOPMENT — Jay Cross, president of business operations of the National Basketball Association's Miami Heat, is hired as president of Jets Development. Woody Johnson, citing a need for the Jets' first true "home" stadium, names Cross' top priority as the exploration of the development of a stadium. (July 25).

TESTAVERDE RETURNS TO STARTING LINEUP, LEADS JETS TO SEASON OPENING WIN AT GREEN BAY QB Vinny Testaverde, the team's 1998 MVP and Pro Bowl QB, returned to the starting lineup after missing the final 15 games of the 1999 season with a ruptured Achilles' tendon. Testaverde completed 23 of 44 passes attempts for 261 yards with one TD and an INT as the Jets win 20-16 at Lambeau Field. (Sept. 3).

JETS OPEN SEASON 4-0 — The Jets begin the season with a 4-0 mark, the first time in franchise history the organization began a season with four straight victories. The Jets, by virtue of three fourth quarter comebacks, with two of the comebacks occurring in the final two minutes, were the last team in the AFC to incur their first loss of the season.

MONDAY NIGHT MIRACLE — The Jets staged their fourth comeback victory of the season and the most incredible in the franchise's 41 seasons as they rallied from a 30-7 fourth quarter deficit to score a 40-37 OT victory over the Miami Dolphins on Monday Night Football at the Meadowlands. The Jets scored a club-record 30 points in the fourth quarter en route to the biggest comeback in team history and only a point shy of NFL mark held by Oakland (twice) and Atlanta. (Oct. 23).

PRO BOWL BOUND — LB Mo Lewis, C Kevin Mawae, and FB Richie Anderson are selected as AFC starters in the NFL's annual all-star game. Lewis is honored for the third straight season, while Mawae's selection marks the second straight year and Anderson is selected to his first Pro Bowl. (Dec. 21).

OFFENSIVE FIREWORKS AT BALTIMORE; SEASON ENDS 9-7 — The Jets lost to the eventual Super Bowl champion Baltimore Ravens 34-20, despite racking up 524 yards to the Ravens' 142 yards of total offense. QB Vinny Testaverde set an NFL record for pass attempts (69) in a regulation game, threw for a career-high 481 yards, also had two TD, as well as three INT. (Dec. 24).

GROH RESIGNS HEAD COACHING POST; ACCEPTS HEAD COACHING JOB AT VIRGINIA — Despite having three years left on his contract with the Jets, Al Groh accepts a job offer to coach at his alma mater, the University of Virginia. Groh, who equaled Bill Parcells' club-best 9-7 record in his first season coaching the Jets, cites long-term security and a desire to return to his alma mater as the driving forces behind his decision. (Dec. 29).

PARCELLS STEPS DOWN AS DIR. OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS — Citing a realization that the Jets need a long-term commitment in order to serve the organization's best interest, Bill Parcells resigns from the Jets. Parcells ends his four-year reign (three years as head coach) in charge of the football operations with a 39-26 regular season record and 1-1 in the post-season. (Jan. 9).

BRADWAY NAMED GENERAL MANAGER — Two days after Parcells resigned his post, Jets owner Woody Johnson chose Terry Bradway, the VP of player personnel for the KC Chiefs, as the new general manager of the Jets. (Jan. 11).

EDWARDS HIRED AS 13TH FULL-TIME HEAD COACH — The Jets named Herman Edwards, Tampa Bay's assistant head coach and defensive backfield coach, as their 13th full-time head coach. Edwards was tabbed after three other highly regarded candidates were also interviewed for the vacancy: Jets asst. head coach/running backs Maurice Carthon, Jacksonville defensive coordinator Dom Capers and Buffalo defensive coordinator Ted Cottrell. The signing of Edwards makes him the third African-American to be an active head coach in the NFL, joining Minnesota's Dennis Green and his mentor at Tampa Bay, Tony Dungy. (Jan. 18).

GUTMAN NAMED PRINCIPAL ADVISOR — Steve Gutman, the Jets' president from June 14, 1988 through March 1, 2001, accepts the position of principal advisor. Gutman, who joined the team in 1977 as corporate treasurer-secretary and administrative manager, directed all the Jets' fiscal operations and handled all player contract negotiations until 1997 when Bill Parcells came on board as director of football operations. (March 1).

CROSS NAMED PRESIDENT — Jay Cross, who had been president of Jets Development, was named successor to Steve Gutman as team president in a further restructuring of management by owner Woody Johnson. Cross' top priority, said Johnson, remains the exploration of a new home for the Jets. (March 1).

JETS EQUIPMENT MANAGER BILL HAMPTON RETIRES — Bill Hampton, the Jets' equipment manager for the past 37 seasons, retires and turned over the reins of the equipment department to his second youngest son, Clay. The elder Hampton's final game of the season marked the 723rd Jets game of his long career, including preseason, regular season and postseason contests. (March 1).

MOSS DRAFTED IN FIRST ROUND — The Jets, with the 16th overall draft choice obtained from Pittsburgh in exchange for the Jets' 19th overall selection as well a fourth round (#111) and a 6th round draft pick, select Miami WR-KR Santana Moss. The Jets finished the two-day draft with six new players, four on the offensive side and two defensively. (April 20 and 21).

CAPTAINS VOTED BY PLAYERS — The Jets' players elected starting quarterback Vinny Testaverde and running back Curtis Martin as the offensive captains, linebacker Mo Lewis as the defensive captain and safety Chris Hayes as the special teams captain (Sept. 5).

SECOND WEEK OF NFL SCHEDULE POSTPONED DUE TO TERRORIST ATTACKS — The second week of the 2002 season was postponed due to "Acts of War" against the United States. The games were rescheduled for the final week of the 2001 season (Jan. 5-7). (Sept. 13).

TESTAVERDE MOVES INTO 10TH PLACE ON NFL COMPLETION LIST — Testaverde moved into 10th place on the NFL's completion list and past former Dallas Cowboys quarterback Troy Aikman (2,898 completions) (Sept. 13).

EDWARDS' GUIDES JETS TO FIRST WIN — Herman Edwards earned his first win as head coach when the Jets defeated the New England Patriots, 10-3, at Foxboro Stadium in Foxboro, Mass. Curtis Martin gained 106 yards on the ground and accounted for the game's only touchdown, an eight-yard run. Edwards was awarded the game ball by the Jets' captains (Sept. 23).

MARTIN REACHES 10,000 YARDS FROM SCRIMMAGE MILESTONE — Martin eclipsed the 10,000-yard mark in total yards from scrimmage in the Jets' 10-3 win over NE in game two. (Sept. 23).

JETS HOST 49ERS IN EMOTIONAL MONDAY NIGHT GAME — The Jets paid tribute to the victims and heroes of the World Trade Center attacks in a stirring pre-game ceremony. Herman Edwards presented the game ball that the Jets players had to awarded him after his first win as head coach to New York City Mayor Rudolph Giuliani in the pre-game tribute, televised nationally on ABC's Monday Night Football. The Jets fell to the 49ers, 19-17 (Oct. 1).

JETS ERASE 17-POINT HALFTIME DEFICIT; DEFEAT MIAMI FOR SEVENTH TIME IN A ROW — The Jets continued their dominance of the Dolphins, beating them for a seventh straight time and once again they did it with a big comeback, overcoming a 17-0 halftime deficit with three second half touchdowns for a 21-17 victory. The win earned the Jets a first place tie in the AFC East with Miami.

TESTAVERDE THROWS 175 CONSECUTIVE PASSES WITHOUT AN INT — Establishing a personal best streak of 175 straight passes without an interception, dating back to the 2000 season finale at Baltimore, Vinny Testaverde began the season with five straight games without an throwing an interception. The streak came to an end when St. Louis CB Aeneas Williams snared a deflected pass and returned it 35-yards for a TD (Oct. 21).

ABRAHAM TIES CLUB RECORD WITH FOUR SACKS IN WIN AT NEW ORLEANS — DE John Abraham tied a team record with four sacks in the Jets' 16-9 nationally televised win over the New Orleans Saints in the Louisiana Super Dome (Nov. 4).

EDWARDS BESTS VERMEIL IN JETS WIN OVER KC — In an emotional day for Herman Edwards and his former head coach, Dick Vermeil, the Jets put together perhaps their finest game of the 2001 season by defeating the Kansas City Chiefs, 27-7. Three Curtis Martin touchdown runs powered the Jets and the defense forced four turnovers and recorded three sacks (Nov. 11).

JETS SHUTOUT DOLPHINS FOR FIRST TIME SINCE 1970 — The Jets shutout of the Dolphins was the first for the Jets since 1997 and marked the first time the Dolphins had been shut out at home since 1970 (Nov. 19).

JETS TAKE OVER AFC EAST LEAD AFTER DEFEATING MIAMI FOR EIGHTH STRAIGHT WIN — The Jets entered their bye week alone in first place in the AFC East with a record of 7-3 (Nov. 20) after defeating the Miami Dolphins 24-0 in Miami.

PRO BOWLERS — Jets center Kevin Mawae, running back Curtis Martin and defensive end John Abraham were all elected as starters for the AFC Pro Bowl squad in Hawaii. Mawae's honor marked the fourth straight year he captured the award and was the fourth time Martin had been elected to play in the game. The Pro Bowl nomination marked the first time in Abraham's career he was elected to the all-star game (Dec. 27).

JETS POST BEST EVER ROAD RECORD — The Jets produced their best road record in franchise history when they beat the Raiders at Oakland, giving them a 7-1 road record. The previous best was 502 in 1968 (Jan. 6).

JETS EARN PLAYOFF BERTH BY BEATING RAIDERS IN OAKLAND IN SEASON FINALE — The Jets began their playoff season a week early and in a most dramatic fashion, shocking the Raiders, 24-22, in the season finale. The win helped the Jets earn the final AFC Wild Card spot and a return trip to Oakland. Kicker John Hall converted a 53-yard field goal attempt with 59 seconds left in the game to put the Jets ahead by the final margin (Jan. 6).

EDWARDS BECOMES FIRST COACH IN JETS HISTORY TO LEAD TEAM TO PLAYOFFS IN FIRST YEAR AT THE HELM — Edwards became the first coach in Jets history to lead the team to the playoffs in his first year at the helm. The win marked the ninth time the Jets entered the playoffs and the first time since 1998 (Jan. 6).

JETS DROP AFC WILDCARD GAME TO RAIDERS — The Jets dropped an AFC Wild Card playoff game against the Raiders in a nationally televised Saturday night shootout, 38-24 (Jan. 12).

4-0 PRESEASON — The Jets won all of their preseason games for just the fourth time in their history during the preseason and the first time since the 1997 season. All of the Jets' preseason games were against teams that were in the playoffs in 2001 with the exception of the New York Giants.

JETS WIN SEASON OPENER AT BUFFALO IN OT — The Jets ran back two kickoffs for touchdowns, including a 96-yarder to start overtime, lifting the Jets to a 37-31 victory over their AFC East rivals. Kickoff return man Chad Morton became the second player in NFL history to return an overtime kickoff for a TD and became the first player in NFL history to return a kickoff for a TD in both regulation and overtime. The Jets' win spoiled the debut of new Bills QB Drew Bledsoe (Sept. 8).

JETS HOST OLYMPIC GREATS — The Jets hosted over two dozen former Olympic medalists from all over the world as part of the team's support for New York City's 2012 Olympic bid. The Olympians were introduced to an enthusiastic crowd at halftime of the Jets' game vs. the Cleveland Browns (Oct. 27).

JETS BEGIN SEASON 2-5 — The Jets struggled through the first seven games of the season with a 2-5 record and were in last place in the AFC East (Oct. 27). "Times are tough right now," said Head Coach Herman Edwards. "I believe in these guys and we just need to make a few more plays a game and we can turn this thing around. We just have to keep fighting." (Oct. 27)

NEW YORK GETS USOC NOD — The United States Olympic Committee selects New York City as the United States' candidate to hold the 2012 Summer Olympics. In handily defeating the city of San Francisco, the city's bid was highlighted by the NYC2012's excellent leadership skills, the city's diversity, its security success with major events, its prominence as the world's financial capital and its proximity to corporations that are I.O.C sponsors (Nov. 3).

JETS FINISH THE REGULAR SEASON STRONG — The Jets won seven of their last of their last nine games; three of the last four; eight of the last ten; including the final two games of the season, and four in a row at home. (Nov. and Dec.).

JOHN ABRAHAM AND KEVIN MAWAE ELECTED TO PRO BOWL — Defensive End John Abraham is elected to his second straight trip to Hawaii. The 6-4, 256-pound third year player from South Carolina finished with 10 sacks after battling back from a sprained left medial collateral ligament sprain suffered early in training camp during a practice. He missed the entire preseason, but managed to return for the season opener against Buffalo on September 8th. His selection to the Pro Bowl marked the first time since 1985 that a Jets defensive lineman made consecutive trips to Honolulu. Defensive end Mark Gastineau and defensive tackle Joe Klecko were the last defensive linemen to have earned back-to-back All-Star honors. Center Kevin Mawae is voted to his fourth consecutive Pro Bowl appearance. The Louisiana State product became the first Jets player to go to four straight Pro Bowls since Gastineau (1981-85) and was the first Jets' offensive lineman to go to four straight Pro Bowls since tackle Winston Hill appeared in the first four Pro Bowls (1970-73) and became the first center in New York Jets history to be elected to four straight Pro Bowls. (Dec. 19).

GREEN AND WHITE SWAMPS GREEN BAY ON FINAL WEEK OF THE SEASON & CAPTURE AFC EAST TITLE — The AFC East champion New York Jets (9-7) qualified for the 2002 NFL postseason with a convincing 42-17 win over the Green Bay Packers on the final weekend of the season. In order to earn the division title, the Jets entered the last weekend of the season needing help to get into the postseason. For the division title, the Jets needed the New England Patriots (9-7) to defeat the Miami Dolphins (9-7) at Gillette Stadium in the 1:00 game. The Patriots, who trailed 24-13 in the fourth quarter, rallied and tied the game at 24-24 late in the fourth quarter. The Jets, though, had already taken the field and didn't know the twists and turns that were happening a few hundred miles up I-95. The three-way tie-breaker was determined by records in common opponent games, with the Jets holding 9-5 records against the Dolphins' and Patriots' 8-6 identical records in those games. The Patriots won the coin toss in overtime and promptly marched down the field and won the game on Adam Vinatieri's 35-yard field goal. The Jets and Packers were in a scoreless game in the first quarter when the final from Foxboro flashed on the scoreboard. The instant replay was then flashed on the scoreboard, and the Jets partisan crowd erupted in applause, as seemingly, did the Jets' offense. The murky path to the postseason was suddenly cleared, the Jets needed to win and they were "in." Yet, the 12-3 Packers, who were playing for home-field advantage throughout the NFC playoffs, stood in their way. (Dec. 29)

JETS CAPTURE AFC EAST TITLE — The Jets won the AFC East for the second time in their history and first time since 1998. Head Coach Herman Edwards became the first coach in NYJ history to lead the Jets to the playoffs in each of his first two seasons. (Dec. 29)

PENNINGTON FINISHES AS NFL'S TOP PASSER — Third year signal caller Chad Pennington's 104.2 passer rating was the top passer rating in the NFL this season and the 15th best in the history of the NFL. He became just the second Jets quarterback to lead the NFL in passer rating, joining Ken O'Brien's 96.2 rating in 1985 as the other top mark in team annals. (Dec. 30).

JETS SHUTOUT COLTS IN AFC WILD CARD GAME — The Jets recorded their first postseason shutout in Club history when they shut out the Colts in the AFC Wildcard game. The 41-0 win tied the New York Giants (2002 NFC Championship game vs. Minnesota) for the second most points in a shutout victory in NFL history, bested only by Chicago's 73-0 win over Washington in 1940 and the 41 points scored by the offense were the second most points ever scored by the Jets in the postseason (44 at Cincinnati on 1/9/83) (Jan. 4, 2003).

WEEB EWANK • HEAD COACH (1963-73) • GENERAL MANAGER (1963-74)

Weeb Ewbank is the only head coach in professional football history to build two teams from their inception into world champions and was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on July 29, 1978, the 11th coach to be enshrined in Canton. Upon his retirement from coaching in 1973, Ewbank's 130 wins ranked him fifth on the all-time coaching wins list only behind other greats George Halas, Curly Lambeau, Steve Owen and Paul Brown. He is the only coach ever to win World Championships in both the NFL (Baltimore Colts 1958-59) and AFL (New York Jets 1968). Ewbank was on the sidelines for two of the most important games in NFL history, the sudden death victory in the 1958 championship and Super Bowl III, won by the Jets. Ewbank was a college quarterback at Miami University in Oxford, Ohio, and was a teammate of fellow coaching legend Paul Brown. Brown gave him his first professional football job as an assistant coach of the Cleveland Browns from 1949-53. His first head coaching job came with the Colts, where he won championships in the fifth and sixth of his nine seasons in Baltimore. Ewbank joined the Jets in 1963 as head coach and general manager. The New Yorkers shocked the world by defeating Ewbank's former team, the Colts, 16-7 (the first victory for the AFL in the Super Bowl). Ewbank coached the Jets for 11 seasons through 1973 and stayed on as general manager for the 1974 season. He developed two of the greatest quarterbacks in league history, Joe Namath and Johnny Unitas, as well as other greats Don Maynard and Raymond Berry. NFL Hall of Fame coaches Bud Grant, Chuck Noll, Don Shula, and Chuck Knox came out of Weeb's influence.

JOE NAMATH • QUARTERBACK (1965-76) Joe Namath, "superstar", is an apt description for this illustrious Jets quarterback. He was a player who transcended the playing field to become a household name and put a whole league on the map, the AFL. Namath enjoyed a sparkling career and led the Jets to what experts call one of the greatest upsets in sports history when he guided the team to a 16-7 win over the Baltimore Colts, garnering MVP honors at the Orange Bowl in Miami in Super Bowl III January 12, 1969. Despite enduring five knee operations, "Broadway Joe" was one of the game's great quarterbacks and one of its most prolific passers. In 1967, Namath became the first player to throw for more than 4,000 yards, accomplishing the feat in a 14-game season. He still holds most of the Jets' passing records, including single-game marks set when he lit up the Colts for 496 yards and six touchdowns September 24, 1972. For his career, he completed 1,886 of 3,762 passes for 27,663 yards and 173 touchdowns. The $400,000 contract signed by Namath in 1965 gave the Jets and the AFL some much needed credibility and started the team down the road to a Super Bowl championship. His legendary coach from the University of Alabama Paul "Bear" Bryant said, "Joe Namath is the greatest athlete I have ever coached." Namath ended his storied career after spending one season with the Los Angeles Rams in 1977. He was inducted into the Hall of Fame August 3, 1985.

DON MAYNARD • WIDE RECEIVER (1960-72) When Don Maynard called it a career following the 1972 season, #13 was the all-time leading receiver in NFL history. Over his 13-year run, Maynard caught 633 passes for 11,834 yards (18.7 avg.) and scored 88 touchdowns. Maynard was a four-time AFL All-Star and is a member of the All-Time AFL team, chosen by the Pro Football Hall of Fame. He went over the 100-yard mark in receiving yardage in 50 games (also a record at his retirement). The native of El Paso, TX joined the AFL in 1960 was the first player to sign a contract in Titans/Jets franchise history. Maynard's most memorable game was the 1968 AFL Championship where he caught six balls for 118 yards and a pair of touchdowns (including the game-winner) to send the Jets past the Raiders and into Super Bowl III. The Texas Western (now known as the University of Texas at El Paso) alumnus was enshrined at Canton August 8, 1987.

JOHN RIGGINS • RUNNING BACK (1971-1975) John Riggins played the first five years of his Hall of Fame career with the Jets after being New York's first-round pick out of the University of Kansas in 1971. He became the first 1,000-yard rusher in Jets history when he gained 1,005 in 1975. "Riggo" totaled 3,880 yards rushing over his five-year Jet career, leading the team in four of those campaigns. Riggins signed as a free agent with Washington in 1976 and was the MVP of Super Bowl XVII, leading the Redskins to victory with 166 yards rushing, including a 43-yard game-winning touchdown run. He played nine seasons for the Redskins (1976-79, 1981-85). Over his career, Riggins ran for 11,352 yards and scored 104 touchdowns. The native of Seneca, KS was enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame August 1, 1992.

* Hall of Fame safety Ronnie Lott played the final two years of his career (1993-94) with the New York Jets.

DEC. 29, 1968 — SHEA STADIUM, NEW YORK 27, OAKLAND 23

The New York Jets climaxed their finest season in history (11-3) by scoring a 27-23 victory over Oakland. A title game record crowd of 62,627 sat in the chilly and windy proceedings at Shea Stadium and saw Joe Namath toss three touchdown passes. Despite the fact that Namath attempted a record 49 passes, the Jets still mixed their attack. Matt Snell and Emerson Boozer gained 71 and 51 yards, respectively, behind fine blocking from the front line. The Raiders carried the game down to the final minutes before Daryle Lamonica's lateral pass for Charlie Smith rolled free and was recovered by the Jets' Ralph Baker. The victory gave head coach Weeb Ewbank the honor of being the only coach to win titles in both the NFL and AFL.

SUPER BOWL III

JAN. 12, 1969 — MIAMI ORANGE BOWL, NEW YORK 16, BALTIMORE 7

Defying the oddsmakers (17 1/2 point underdogs) and the strength of traditions, the Jets became the first AFL team to win the Super Bowl by rumbling over and through the Baltimore Colts to record a 16-7 triumph. As it was in the AFL championship contest, Joe Namath led the way. The all-pro quarterback directed the Jets' attack flawlessly, driving the team to a second quarter touchdown by Matt Snell (four yards) and three second-half field goals by Jim Turner. Snell had an outstanding game, gaining 121 yards on 30 carries. The defense shared at least as much glory as the offensive unit, intercepting the Colts four times. Randy Beverly picked off two; Jim Hudson and Johnny Sample, one each. The defensive unit harassed Colts' quarterbacks Earl Morrall and Johnny Unitas all afternoon, allowing them to complete only 17 of 41 passes. The victory was the third in World Championship competition in as many tries for Weeb Ewbank and made him the only man ever to coach world champions in both the AFL and NFL.

1969 AFL PLAYOFF

Dec. 20, 1969 - SHEA STADIUM, KANSAS CITY 13, NEW YORK 6

The game was a classic battle of defenses, played in remarkably cold and windy conditions before a sellout 62,977 fans. Through the first three quarters, neither team could penetrate for a touchdown and the score stood at 6-3 for the Chiefs. Jim Turner had put New York out in front, 3-0, with a 28-yard field goal the first time the Jets had the ball, but the Chiefs' Jan Stenerud retaliated with a 23-yarder on the next series. Not until the fourth quarter did the breaks occur. With first and goal on the one-yard line, three cracks, including a Joe Namath bootleg, failed to bring a touchdown. Turner then kicked a 7-yard field goal to tie it, 6-6. Two plays later Kansas City was in the end zone. Len Dawson hit Otis Taylor for a 61-yard pass play to take the Chiefs to the Jets 19. Then Dawson fired the final 19 yards to Gloster Richardson for the only TD of the game. Namath threw 20 passes over the next two Jets' series, but a fourth down incomple- tion and a Jim Marsalis interception thwarted the Jets and put Kansas City on the road to the world cham- pionship.

1981 AFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF

DEC. 27, 1981 — SHEA STADIUM, BUFFALO 31, NEW YORK 27

In one of the most exciting playoff games ever played, the Buffalo Bills hung on to defeat the Jets, 31-27 as Bill Simpson made an interception on the two-yard line with time running out. The Bills scored on the opening kickoff when they recovered a Bruce Harper fumble and quickly built that to a 24-0 second quarter lead. The Jets rallied in the third quarter to make it 24-13. The game appeared over as Joe Cribbs busted a 45-yard TD to give Buffalo a 31-13 lead with 10:16 left. The Jets refused to die, however, and with Richard Todd at the controls, New York scored two quick TD and were now down 31-27 with 3:44 to go. A swarming defense forced the Bills to go three and out and with 2:36 left and the goal line 80-yards away, Todd started the Jets on their march. They drove to the Bills 11-yard line with 14 seconds on the clock, but Simpson made his game-saving interception and the Jets' season ended.

1982 AFC PLAYOFF

JAN. 9, 1983 — CINCINNATI RIVERFRONT STADIUM, NEW YORK 44, CINCINNATI 17

The Jets mixed solid and hard hitting football with a measure of razzle dazzle on offense and gimmicks on defense to beat the Bengals at Cincinnati in round one of the NFL Super Bowl Tournament. The game was highlighted by Freeman McNeil's 202 yards rushing, the third highest in playoff history, a TD pass from McNeil and a 98-yard INT for a TD by Darrol Ray to secure the win. The Bengals jumped to leads of 14-3 and 14-10 and were threatening to score again, when the Jets' defense might have made the play of the day. Nickel back Johnny Lynn made an interception at the Jets' one-yard line and with McNeil leading the way behind an awesome performance by the offensive line, the Jets surged to a 17-14 lead which they never surrendered. McNeil was the "cannon" being shot by Walt Michaels 22 times for 202 yards and one TD.

1983 AFC PLAYOFF

JAN. 15, 1983 – LOS ANGELES MEMORIAL COLISEUM

NEW YORK 17, L.A. RAIDERS 14

The Jets sprung upset number two in the second round of the Super Bowl Tournament, beating the Raiders to enter the AFC championship game. Richard Todd's 45-yard pass to Wesley Walker set up the winning one-yard TD run by Scott Dierking, but it took a pair of Lance Mehl interceptions in the last three minutes to wrap it up for the Jets. New York jumped to a 10-0 lead on a 20-yard TD pass from Todd to Walker and a Pat Leahy FG, but the Raiders came storming back in the second half to take a 14-10 lead. The Jets came back to take the lead at the 3:45 mark following the Todd to Walker bomb, but the Raiders still had plenty of time. It looked as if the Jets had put the Raiders away when Mehl intercepted Jim Plunkett at the Raiders' 27-yard line with only 2:49 left, but the Raiders got one more chance when they recovered a Freeman McNeil fumble at their own 33 with 2:26 to go. Then Mehl made his clinching interception and this time the Jets ran out the clock.

1982 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

JAN. 23, 1983 – MIAMI ORANGE BOWL, MIAMI 14, NEW YORK 0

On an extremely muddy field at Miami's Orange Bowl, the Jets and Dolphins waged a defensive battle which ended with Miami on top 14-0 to earn a trip to the Super Bowl. A.J. Duhe was the hero of the game, which saw a total of 12 turnovers, with three interceptions, returning the final one 35 yards for a touchdown early in the fourth quarter. Woody Bennett ran seven yards for the first Miami touchdown on the Dolphins' first possession of the third quarter, capping a 48-yard, seven-play drive following Duhe's second interception. The poor field conditions severely hurt the Jets' rushing attack as Freeman McNeil, who had rushed for 303 yards in the previous two playoff wins, was limited to only 46 yards on 17 carries due to the footing. It was the first time in NFL playoff history that two teams were deadlocked at 0-0 at halftime. The Jets passing game was also hindered as Richard Todd was intercepted a record-tying five times by Miami. The New York defense held Miami to only 198 net yards, intercepted David Woodley three times and forced three fumbles.

DEC. 28, 1985 - MEADOWLANDS, NEW ENGLAND 26, NEW YORK 14

New England came out on top 26-14 in a game that saw the Jets self-destruct. The Jets committed four costly turnovers which led to 17 Patriots points. New England, which went on to win the AFC championship, played an almost flawless game with no turnovers and only one penalty. The Jets were ahead 7-6, and driving late in the second quarter when Ken O'Brien was intercepted on the seven-yard line. New England came back with a TD pass from Tony Eason to Stanley Morgan on a blitz six plays later. O'Brien suffered a concussion on the final play of the half on an Andre Tippett sack and would only play the first series of the second half. Before Pat Ryan could relieve him though, New England added a FG and then scored a TD when the ensuing kickoff was fumbled by Johnny Hector and returned 15 yards by Johnny Rembert. With the Jets trailing 23-7, Ryan came in and directed a TD drive.

Dec. 28, 1986 – MEADOWLANDS, NEW YORK 35, KANSAS CITY 15

Joe Walton started Pat Ryan to give the team an emotional lift and it got just that from Ryan plus a key running play and a three-TD passing performance. The club also received Freeman McNeil's 135-yard rushing performance to spark the Jets' first home playoff win since 1968. Trailing 6-0, Ryan ran a QB draw for 24 yards from the Chief's 33-yard-line on a fourth-and-six play to set up the Jets' go ahead TD. On the first down of the ensuing series, the Jets defense forced a KC fumble and Ryan concluded a 12-play, 47-yard drive with a one-yard pass to McNeil. Just prior to the half, Ryan hit Al Toon with a TD pass for a 21-6 halftime edge. The Jets nailed the victory on the first play of the second half when Kevin McArthur swiped a Todd Blackledge pass and dashed 21 yards for a 28-6 margin. The Jets' defense allowed a season-low 241 yards total offense and had two sacks, two INT and a FR.

1986 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

Jan. 3, 1987 – CLEVELAND STADIUM, CLEVELAND 23, NEW YORK 20 (2 OTs)

In the third-longest game in NFL history (77:02), Cleveland staged an incredible comeback to send the game into OT before Mark Moseley's 27-yard FG advanced the Browns to the AFC Championship game. With Pat Ryan at QB, the Jets jumped on top 7-0 following a flea-flicker 42-yard TD pass from Ryan to Wesley Walker. Ryan was forced to leave the game in the second quarter with a groin injury and was replaced by Ken O'Brien. Meanwhile, the Jets defense was outstanding holding the Browns to just ten points and 302 total yards until late in the fourth quarter. Immediately after a Jerry Holmes interception, the Jets took a 20-10 lead on Freeman McNeil's 25-yard TD with 4:14 remaining in regulation. Bernie Kosar led the Browns 68 yards to set up Kevin Mack's one-yard run to make the score 20-17 with 1:57 left. Cleveland's defense forced the Jets to punt with :51 left before Kosar's 37-yard pass to Webster Slaughter to the 5fivyard line set up the tying 22-yard FG. The Jets got a second life when Moseley missed a 23-yard FG 6:06 into OT, but he redeemed himself by kicking the winning 27-yard FG on a first-and-goal play from the Jets' nine-yard line.

Dec. 29, 1991 – HOUSTON ASTRODOME, HOUSTON 17, NEW YORK 10

The Jets returned to the playoffs for the first time since 1986 and came close to registering an upset win at Houston. Trailing 17-10 with only :20 left at the Houston 47-yard line, the Jets were unsuccessful in their attempts to tie the game on two Hail Mary passes, the last of which was intercepted to end the game. The game started with Houston taking the opening drive 80 yards in 16 plays for a 7-0 lead. After Erik McMillan's INT halted the Oilers' next drive, the Jets tied the game on Al Toon's first TD of the season, a ten-yarder from Ken O'Brien. Warren Moon tossed his second TD pass of the game to Ernest Givens to give the Oilers a 14-10 half-time lead. Three key plays would doom the Jets in the second half. After taking the opening drive of the third quarter down to the Houston seven-yard line in 12 plays, O'Brien's pass intended for Mark Boyer was picked off by Bubba McDowell at the three-yard line. Houston then drove 62 yards in 14 plays for a 53-yard FG to go ahead 17-10. On the Jets' next drive attempting to tie the game from the Houston three-yard line, Brad Baxter was stopped on third-and-one for no gain, and then Freeman McNeil was halted on fourth-and-one. The Jets got another shot when Lonnie Young's hit forced Moon to fumble at the Houston 34-yard line with 4:59 left, but the Oilers' defense stopped the Jets on four downs. The Jets' defense played extremely well holding the high-powered Houston offense to just 17 points while registering four sacks (two by Mo Lewis), two FF and an INT. Toon tied for the second most catches by a Jets' WR in a playoff game with 8-96-1 TD.

1999 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

Jan. 10, 1999 - MEADOWLANDS, NEW YORK 34, JACKSONVILLE 24

It was playoff football at its wildest. It was a game in which the Jets dominated early, let Jacksonville get back in it, and finally put their foot down to cage the Jaguars 34-24 and earn a trip to the AFC Championship game in Denver. The Jets jumped off to a 17-0 second quarter lead only to see the Jaguars score on the last play of the half. Then they surged to another 17-point lead, 31-14, only to have Jacksonville close to 31-24 with 6:38 remaining. New York got ready to close the cage door again, driving to the Jaguars' 14-yard line, but Vinny Testaverde was intercepted in the end zone and the Jets had to call upon their defense to hold the Jaguars and to set up the offense for the final knockout again. The Green and White defense held the Jaguars on four straight downs and turned it over to the offense for the final shot-a John Hall 30-yard field goal that sent the Jets to their first conference championship game in 16 years. The Jets came out roaring, scoring on their opening drive, a seven-play, 70-yard march capped by Testaverde's 21-yard TD pass to Keyshawn Johnson. In the second quarter, the Jets held the ball for 14:09 and built their lead to 17-0 on Hall's 52-yard FG, a Jets' post-season record for longest FG; and a ten-yard end around run for a TD by Johnson. But the Jaguars didn't go quietly. With six seconds left in the half, Mark Brunell hit Jimmy Smith in stride with a 52-yard TD bomb cutting the lead to 17-7. Early in the third quarter the teams traded TD with Curtis Martin turning a Corwin Brown interception into a TD and Brunell taking advantage of an 88-yard kickoff return and then completing a three-yard TD pass to Keenan McCardell. But the Jets answered that right back with another 70-yard drive culminated by Martin's 2nd TD of the game, a one-yarder on a pitchout for a 31-14 lead. Jacksonville fought right back with another Brunell to Smith TD pass of 15 yards trimming the margin to 31-21. The Jaguars then took advantage of a rare occurrence, recovering a Wayne Chrebet fumble at the Jets' 41-yard line. New York's defense stiffened and Jacksonville had to settle for a 37-yard FG, but the Jags had cut the lead to 31-24. That's when it appeared the Jets were going to tame the Jaguars for the final time, but their four minute drive from their own 34 ended with Testaverde's INT in the end zone, giving the Jaguars one more life, but this time from their own one-yard line. The Jets' defense pressured Brunell into a scramble for seven yards and three incompletions, giving the Jets the ball at the Jax eight. Four plays later Hall made the 30-yard FG. Keyshawn Johnson wiped out the Jags' final chance with an INT on Brunell's Hail Mary. Johnson produced a rare football feat scoring touchdowns on a reception and a run, recovered a fumble and made an interception. The interception was on Jacksonville's final Hail Mary with 20 seconds remaining. The fumble recovery was a big play in the second quarter. The Jets were driving for a score at the Jacksonville 22-yard line, when Martin fumbled. Chris Hudson recovered the ball at the 18 and returned it 42 yards when he bobbled the ball and Johnson recovered it. The Jets then got back in gear again and Johnson concluded the 65-yard drive with his ten-yard end around for a TD. All totaled, Johnson tied a club postseason record for catches with 9-121-1 TD, and tied the club TD mark for postseason TD with two, which was also equaled by Martin. Martin had a big day with 36-124-2 TD rushing and 6-58 receiving for 182 yards from scrimmage. Testaverde was solid as he notched his 13th victory as a starter with 24-36-284-1-1. Jacksonville was led by Smith's 5-104-2 TD and Fred Taylor's 20-86 rushing. Brunell was 12-31-156-3-3. The Jets controlled the ball for 39:16, converting 10-14 third down plays and racking up 29 first downs and 429 total yards from scrimmage. Jacksonville hung in the game with big plays, but the Jets' defense held the Jaguars to only 251 yards.

1999 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Jan. 17, 1999 - MILE HIGH STADIUM, DENVER 23, NEW YORK 10

Appearing in the AFC Championship for the first time since 1982, the Jets battled the Super Bowl Champion Denver Broncos tough all day, but in the end were unable to play the type of mistake-free football that the team had played for most of the season. The Jets, who took the lead on a John Hall 32-yard FG on the last play of the first half, held the Broncos to only 108 yards of total offense in the first half, highlighted by a goal-line stand in the first quarter. The stunned Mile High Stadium crowd was further silenced when in the third quarter, rookie TE Blake Spence blocked Tom Rouen's punt and TE Fred Baxter recovered at the one-yard line. RB Curtis Martin scored on a one-yard plunge on the next play giving the Jets a 10-0 lead. The Broncos came right back on the next series when John Elway, playing in his last game at Mile High Stadium, hit WR Ed McCaffrey with a 47-yard bomb to the Jets' 17-yard line. Two plays later, Elway connected with FB Howard Griffith for an 11-yard TD. The ensuing kickoff, sailed into the teeth of gusting 45-mile per hour winds, and took a Denver bounce and was recovered by the Broncos at the NY 31. The defense held, but K Jason Elam connected on a 44-yard FG to tie the game at 10. Denver got its first lead 13-10 late in the third quarter on Elam's 48-yard FG. The Jets, who were experiencing success through the air behind the precision passing of Vinny Testaverde, abandoned the running game but were unable to hold onto the ball, fumbling four times and having two other passes deflected into the hands of Denver defenders. Denver widened the margin to 20-10 on Terrell Davis' 31-yard TD with 18 seconds left in the third quarter. Elam closed out the scoring with a 35-yard FG late in the fourth quarter for the final score of 23-10.

2003 AFC WILDCARD PLAYOFF GAME

JAN. 4, 2003 – MEADOWLANDS, INDIANAPOLIS 0, NEW YORK 41

After what they went through to make the playoffs, what a waste it would have been to exit early. That was the message Herman Edwards gave his New York Jets. They heeded it superbly, routing the befuddled Indianapolis Colts 41-0 Saturday. After barely getting into the postseason, the Jets emphatically showed they belong with their biggest playoff victory and their first postseason shutout. Chad Pennington, the sparkplug of their turnaround, threw for three touchdowns, LaMont Jordan ran for two and the defense had Peyton Manning and the Colts off-stride from the outset. "I am so proud of my teammates to see in every one of them that they are not complacent," Pennington said. "To me, it's special when you're able to step in the huddle and see the intensity and focus in the eyes of your teammates." New York (10-7) began the season 1-4, but won seven of its last nine to storm to the AFC East title on the final day of the season. The surge continued against the wild-card Colts (10-7). "This is a breath of fresh air, but it is only the first win on a long road," Wayne Chrebet said. The Jets will be at either Oakland or Tennessee next weekend. It was their first postseason victory since 1998, when they made it to the AFC championship game, and the score matched the last playoff game at the Meadowlands, when the Giants beat Minnesota for the 2000 NFC title. "I'm 82-0 in my last two playoffs here," said safety Sam Garnes, who was with those Giants. "It definitely feels good to do 41-0 as a Jet." The only more lopsided shutout win in NFL postseason history was Chicago's 73-0 victory over Washington for the 1940 title. This was the first NFL playoff game featuring two black head coaches. The Colts' Tony Dungy and the Jets' Edwards, longtime friends, are the only black head coaches in the league. Edwards spent five seasons as Dungy's top assistant in Tampa before becoming the Jets' coach in 2001. The student came out on top of the mentor because his offense was unstoppable, his defense stingy and his special teams dominant. "I'm just thankful for our friendship and the chance he gave me to stand here and be a head coach," Edwards said. Dungy said he'll be rooting for Edwards' team the rest of the way. "They played awfully well and made us look awfully bad," said Dungy, who took Indianapolis from 6-10 to 10-6 in his first season after being fired by the Bucs. On the Jets' fifth offensive play, Pennington's screen pass floated into Richie Anderson's hands and he rambled down the left side for a 56-yard score. The touchdown was the longest of his 10-year career, the longest this season for the Jets and the longest scoring play from scrimmage in their playoff history. The Peyton Manning-to-Marvin Harrison connection got the Colts moving -- for just about the only time -- immediately after the TD with three completions for 38 yards. But Mike Vanderjagt was short and wide with a 41-yard field goal into the wind. John Hall made one from the same spot early in the second quarter for a 10-0 lead. Troy Walters then fumbled the kickoff and Ray Mickens pounced on it at the Indianapolis 39. Jordan eventually swept left from the 1 for a 17-point lead. It became 24-0 with 37 seconds remaining in the first half when Pennington rolled out and found Santana Moss alone in the right corner of the end zone. Moss grabbed the high throw and barely got both feet in-bounds. In matching their biggest playoff output in a half, the Jets effectively secured their spot in the next round of the playoffs. But they didn't pull back. Chad Morton ran the second-half kickoff 70 yards to the Indy 19, setting up Hall's 39-yard field goal. Rookie tight end Chris Baker caught his first TD pass, a three-yarder late in the third quarter. And Jordan, who rushed for 102 yards (89 in the second half), scored again from the 1 in the fourth period. Manning was a miserable 14-for-31 for 137 yards and two interceptions, and his team had the ball for just 19:42 -- 7:44 in the second half. Manning, who consistently barked instructions to his teammates at the line of scrimmage -- often to no avail as New York's aggressive defense applied steady pressure -- is 0-3 in the playoffs, and this was the worst of those defeats. "I tried to be patient," Manning said, "but I got to be impatient because the more you get in the hole, the more they take you out of your game plan. So I ended up doing a lot of things I shouldn't have." He wasn't helped by six drops and an offensive line that couldn't keep pressure off him. Harrison, who smashed the NFL record with 143 receptions this season, had only four Saturday. "This was more than we could ask for," Jets linebacker Marvin Jones said. "But the job isn't done."

JAN. 12, 2003 – OAKLAND, CA, JETS 10, OAKLAND 30

League MVP Rich Gannon and the Raiders showed why this season might be different from all the others since 1983 with a 30-10 playoff win. They knew the surest road to the AFC championship game was to stay at home and avoid tuck rules and snowy night games in New England. Now they get Tennessee, whom they beat 52-25 at home in September, back at the Network Associates Coliseum for a shot at the Super Bowl. The Raiders have not been to the big game since winning it against Washington in 1984. "These chances are very rare," veteran All-Pro safety Rod Woodson said. "I think we are a mature team that understands what we have here." That chance has been there before -- two years ago, when they lost at home to Baltimore for the conference title, and last season, when Tom Brady and the controversial tuck rule did them in at New England. "WR Jerry Porter caught a 29-yard touchdown pass and set up a Jerry Rice nine-yard score with a 50-yard reception as the Raiders (12-5) made it a clean sweep for the home teams on divisional playoff weekend. Gannon began going downfield in the second half after a 10-10 tie, and it paid off. The Jets had the most efficient thrower in the league, Chad Pennington, but he had a tough day. Pennington, in his first season as a starter, had a 104.2 rating. But against Oakland he was 21-of-47 for 183 yards and a 44.9 rating. "There's a saying that as the quarterback goes, so does the team. I didn't go today," said Pennington, who threw two interceptions -- as many as he had in the last 10 games combined -- and lost two fumbles. "I was struggling all day long. I don't know why. It's one of those things I have to learn from, and have a short-term memory." The Raiders, winners of eight of their last nine games, got pickoffs from Tory James and Eric Barton in the second half. They also recovered the two fumbles by Pennington in earning their second trip to the AFC title game in three years. In the 2000 season, they lost at home to Baltimore 16-3 for the conference crown. "These opportunities are few and far between," said Gannon, who finished 20-of-30 for 283 yards. Rice's catch was his 21st postseason touchdown, tying an NFL record. The 40-year-old receiver also set a record for yards in the playoffs with 2,133 in an 18-year career. Oakland's defense harassed the usually unflappable Pennington and sacked him four times, twice by Rod Coleman. The Raiders beat the Jets for the third time in four games at home in the last year. After a strong first half, Pennington came couldn't get on track in the second half, throwing high and, at times, forcing passes. It was the second straight year the Raiders ended the Jets' season here in a playoff game. These teams have had some of the most memorable and bitter meetings in NFL history. The game was tied 10-10 at halftime. But after James' leaping sideline interception at the Jets 45, Gannon went downfield. He hit Brown for 16 yards, then found Porter streaking down the left sideline against a zone defense. Porter caught the ball in stride for a 29-yard touchdown. Oakland stopped the Jets on a fourth-and-3 when wide receiver Wayne Chrebet slipped on his pattern. Gannon then connected with Porter over the middle for 50 yards. It took three more plays for Gannon to hit Rice in the back of the end zone. Richie Anderson dropped a handoff and Pennington blamed for the fumble. But Damien Robinson intercepted Gannon's next pass. The Raiders returned the favor when Barton made a sideline interception, setting up Sebastian Janikowski's 34-yard field goal. Janikowski added a 31-yarder for the final score. New York (10-8), which scored at least 30 points in each of its last three games, got going early on Curtis Martin's 15-yard run and a 20-yard pass-interference penalty against Charles Woodson. John Hall's 38-yard field goal made it 3-0 about four minutes into the game. A motion penalty on fourth-and-inches at the New York 7 cost the Raiders early, and they wound up with Janikowski's 29-yard field goal to tie it. Then the ball got slippery. As he scrambled, Pennington had it knocked from his hands by Travian Smith, who recovered at the Jets 27. Two plays later, Charlie Garner bobbled a handoff, but guard Frank Middleton fell on it when Jets defensive end John Abraham failed to scoop up the loose ball. It was Garner's first fumble in 387 touches, but it didn't hurt his team. Moments later, Zack Crockett, Oakland's short-yardage specialist, scored his 10th touchdown of the season, from the one yard line. Although the Jets moved well on their next possession, they were done in by more mistakes -- a holding penalty on a long run and a dropped pass. Hall then missed wide right on a 49-yard field-goal attempt. An impressive 81-yard, 7-minute drive on which Pennington was 8-of-9 for 51 yards, tied it with 22 seconds left in the half. He converted four third downs with passes before hitting wide-open Jerald Sowell in the flat for a one-yard score.

WEEB EWBANK HALL

Weeb Ewbank Hall, named in honor of the Professional Football Hall of Fame head coach, is the New York Jets' year-round training facility, ticket office and office complex. It has served as the training complex for the players and coaches since 1974 and the overall franchise headquarters since June 10, 1990.

Located on an 8 1/2 acre site on the North Campus of Hofstra University in Hempstead, NY (approximately 25 miles east of Manhattan), the complex provides players, coaches and staff with the necessary components for daily practice, weekly game preparations, and general overall operations in one functional, state-of-the-art setting.

The complex has undergone several renovations throughout its 28-year existence, most recently including the expansion of the training/treatment areas used by the medical training staff and the installation of Field Turf, a state-of-the-art synthetic grass field used both indoors and outdoors.

In 1997, the complex's football operations were completely overhauled when a polymer teflon air support structure was installed over a 60-yard field. It provides the team with a year-round all-weather, fully lighted facility in which to practice. In addition, the team's former AstroTurf surface field was installed upon the team's move to the Meadowlands in 1984. The fields, which feature state-of-the-art drainage and watering facility capabilities, allow the team to work outside in virtually any weather conditions.

The two-story, 54,000 square-foot Weeb Ewbank Hall houses all offices and facilities. Upstairs at the complex are offices for coaches, accounting, video operations, business operations, pro scouting, college scouting and marketing/promotions/community relations. The upstairs also houses an 85-seat auditorium, offensive and defensive meeting rooms, and classrooms used for positional group meetings.

The ground floor contains a spacious dressing room area with room for 70 permanent lockers, the public relations offices, a media workroom, a media studio, a reception area, ticket operations, equipment operations, a modern weight-training room, a newly designed training room, mail operations and a new players lounge. The locker room also houses a hydrotherapy pool and a sauna.

BOB WISCHUSEN

Bob Wischusen is a key component of MSG Network's newsgathering operation as co-host of the MSG's "Talk of our Town" airing Monday-Friday afternoons and Tuesday and Wednesday nights. Wischusen is also entering his second season in the booth as MSG's Jets Radio play-by-play announcer.

Wischusen joined MSG Networks in July 2000 as a key component in the launch of FOX Sports Net's (FSN) ambitious "Regional Sports Report – New York Edition." Before joining MSG, Wischusen served as a host of Jets radio broadcasts on WABC-AM (since 1997) and continues to pitch in with New York Rangers hockey games (since 2000).

Wischusen came to MSG following a five-year run at WFAN-AM as a talk-show host and sports news update announcer from 1995-2000. It marked a return to the New York metropolitan area for the northern New Jersey native after working for three years (1993-1995) as a talk show host and update anchor for sports radio WQAM-AM in Miami.

Wischusen's time at WFAN was marked by one of his career highlights when he was working the overnight shift on the evening Mickey Mantle passed away.

The Boston College alum and Union Catholic High School Graduate maintained his close ties to the Garden State by calling local New Jersey college football, basketball, and baseball games for the Comcast network from 1997 through 2000. Since 1998, he has been called upon by the Westwood Radio Network for its college football and basketball broadcasts.

MARTY LYONS

Marty Lyons brings the same enthusiasm to MSG's Jets radio booth that he exhibited on the field during his stellar 11-year career with the New York Jets as a member of the New York Jets famous "New York Sack Exchange." Lyons is also in his sixth season as co-host of "Jets Journal" on MSG Network.

At the University of Alabama, Lyons played under head coach Paul "Bear" Bryant from 1975 to 1978. As a senior, he was named an All-American, and as the school's Defensive Player of the Decade (1970-80). In addition, he was selected to Alabama football's prestigious Team of the Century.

Lyons was the first round draft pick of the New York Jets in the 1979 NFL draft. The defensive lineman made an immediate impact on the New York sports scene. Together with teammates Mark Gastineau and Joe Klecko, Lyons helped lead the 1981 Jets to a franchise-record 66 sacks -- a record that still remains today. The "New York Sack Exchange" stood atop the NFL in sacks for the 1981, 1983 and 1984 seasons. Lyons ranks sixth all-time in New York Jets history with 43 career sacks.

Lyons began his broadcasting career almost immediately after his retirement from the NFL in 1990. From 1991 to 1997, he provided commentary for FOX Sports Net's (FSN) Hofstra college football broadcasts. He has been with MSG Networks since 1996, and has been a regular contributor to "Jets Journal." ESPN International hired him to do analysis on their NFL broadcasts throughout 1996 and 1997. He also provided commentary on FSN for New Jersey Red Dogs arena football from 1997 to 1998. Most recently, Lyons has been named the new New York Jets Radio Analyst alongside another MSG announcer, Bob Weischusen.

While a formidable force on the field, Lyons has made significant contributions off the field as well with his extensive charitable work. For his commitment to the community, he was named NFL Man of the Year in 1984. Lyons is the founder and chairman of the Marty Lyons Foundation, which tries to fulfill special wishes to children diagnosed with a terminal or chronic life-threatening illness. As a tribute to his longstanding charitable commitment, the New York Jets annually present the Marty Lyons Award to the player who gives the most back to his community as selected by the Jets staff. Lyons was the first recipient of this award in 1990.

When not calling Jets football action on the radio, Lyons enjoys playing golf and swimming and spending time with his family. He and his wife Christine currently reside in Smithtown, NY, with their four children -- Rocky, Jesse, Megan and Luke.

Fill-In Knicks and Mets Host

BILL DAUGHTRY

"What events have you covered?" That's not quite the right question to ask Bill Daughtry. Better to ask what event he doesn't cover. "Major" wouldn't begin to describe the events he's covered in over 25 years of broadcasting – five Super Bowls, two World Series, three NHL All-Star Games, two Major League Baseball All-Star Games, and the 1996 Summer Olympics, to name a few.

In the fall of 1997, Daughtry brought his 27 years of broadcasting experience to Madison Square Garden Network. For MSG, the native of Harlem, NY, is the co-host for one of the newest additions (debuted July 2002) to the nation's largest regional sports network's programming line-up, "Talk of our Town", airing Monday-Friday afternoons. Daughtry has just completed his first season as the host for MSG Radio's New York Jets games. Daughtry also co-hosts and reports for "MSG SportsDesk" while also serving as fill-in host for MSG's Knicks and Mets coverage.

From 1993-1997, Daughtry was a popular host on WFAN sports radio in New York. Over that span he served as a reporter and talk show host and anchored the "20/20 Sports Update" segments. In 1997, Daughtry hosted the New York Giants pre- and post-game shows as well as the "Jim Fassel Show," a weekly talk show with the Giants head coach.

After attending SUNY Albany, Daughtry began his broadcasting career as a weekend news reporter at WPTR radio in Albany, NY. In 1976, he got his first job in New York City as a news anchor at the National Black Network located at Columbus Circle. The next year, he worked in Westchester County, NY, as a sports and news reporter for WFAS radio.

From 1979 to 1986, his career took him from WGCH radio in Greenwich, CT, to WMCA radio in New York, where he hosted daily talk shows and worked as the between-periods host for the New Jersey Devils in their first two years of existence. While at WMCA, he also hosted the halftime show for the New Jersey Nets. In 1987, he moved to WCBS radio where he hosted and served as Associate Producer for the New York Jets pre- and post-game shows. From 1989-90, he taught at St. John's University as an adjunct professor in the TV and Radio Department.

A broadcast professional since 1974, Daughtry's career has taken him across the country, leaving him with a number of unforgettable moments. Daughtry was on the air with the NY Apples professional tennis team during the 1977 blackout that left most of the tri-state area in total darkness for two days. He also announced, during an Islanders pre-game show, that a resolution was made in the 1982 NFL players' strike. While covering the Olympics in Atlanta in 1996, he was in the International Broadcast Center adjacent to the Olympic Park at the time of the bombing and reported on the wounded visitors being attended to by paramedics and security. At the 1990 Super Bowl, one week after the Desert Storm conflict began, Daughtry witnessed Whitney Houston's rendition of the national anthem, a stadium full of American-flag waving fans and the fighter jets flying overhead, and credits it as one of the most emotional experiences of his life and career.

Daughtry, an asthma sufferer since childhood, started the "Fund For Fighting Asthma" Foundation to help those afflicted with asthma and help them improve their quality of life by learning how to better manage their condition. Daughtry, an avid golfer and bowler, lives in Union, NJ, with his wife, Carol. He has four children.

Spanish Radio Play-by Play Announcer

CLEMSON SMITH MUÑOZ

Clemson Smith Muñoz begins his second year as the Jets' Spanish language radio play-by-play announcer. Clemson Smith Muñoz has been the voice of the Knicks in Spanish since the first broadcast in 1994. President of Smith Muñoz Productions, Inc., Smith Muñoz and his company have helped MSG increase its Spanish-language radio and television broadcasts in the tri-state area. In 2000, MSG Radio launched the Jets on WADO 1280.

Raised in Puerto Rico, Smith Muñoz provided color commentary for ESPN Radio's Spanish-language broadcasts of the 1997 and 1998 Eastern Conference Finals, and the 1988 NBA Finals. In 1994, he was the first announcer to call St. John's basketball games in Spanish, on WXTV/Ch. 41 and the Big East Network. In 1993, he worked for MLB International as an analyst during the NLCS and worked as an on-camera reporter during the World Series. In the past, he covered the NBA and 1993 Olympics for El País of Madrid; St. John's for the New York Daily News; and the Yankees and the Boston Celtics for the Hartford Courant. Smith Muñoz also served as the New York Yankees' voice on WNJU Telemundo 47 for three seasons.

A graduate of the University of Pennsylvania, Smith Muñoz is an avid cyclist, scuba diver and wildlife photographer. He lives in Garrison, NY, with his wife, Mary Ann Coleman.

NEW YORK JETS ON THE AIR

The Jets' 2003 schedule will be broadcast on flagship station 77 WABC and simulcast on 1050 ESPN Radio, New York's only all-sports, 50,000-watt radio station. 77 WABC, the No. 1 rated talk station in the country, is a clear channel 50,000 watt station and enters its third season carrying the Green-and-White through their partnership with MSG Radio. The Jets are the only team in professional sports to have two 50,000-watt stations airing their games. Both stations will carry the game, pre-game and post-game shows.

"We're pleased to offer our fans such comprehensive broadcast coverage of Jets football," said Jets' President Jay Cross. "We have expanded our broadcasting this season thanks to the strong support of our broadcast partners. We're excited about having a strong radio team in place and looking forward to the great exposure we'll receive from our games airing on WABC and 1050 ESPN as well as our weekly television show featuring Herm Edwards on WCBS-2."

This year, a select schedule of games will be broadcast in Spanish on WADO 1280-AM with Clemson Smith Muniz as the play-by-play voice and Alfredo Bejar serving as the game analyst.

Jets Highlight Show on WCBS-2

Each season, the New York Jets, the NFL and Emmy Award-winning NFL Films team up to produce the immensely popular Jets' highlight film. The 2002 film, "You Play To Win The Game," looks back at the Jets' roller-coaster ride, from a thrilling overtime win at Buffalo in the season opener, to a frustrated team at 2-5, to eventual AFC East champions by virtue of winning seven of their last nine games. The film also focuses on the team's 41-0 shutout win over the Indianapolis Colts in the AFC Wild Card playoff game on January 4, 2003. NFL Films provides crisp and never-before seen footage of the action on the field, in the locker rooms and on the sidelines. The film is aired by WCBS-2 during the preseason and is available to purchase on www.newyorkjets.com.

Gary Apple's Jets Report on WCBS-2 SportsRap

Each Saturday during the regular season, WCBS-2's Gary Apple hosts a special game preview, complete with a timely interview and previews the Jets' upcoming game. The segment runs at 11:30 p.m. on Saturdays from September through January.

Generation Jets

The newest of the Jets' television properties is a cutting edge half-hour weekly children's show that combines animation with live action. The show features five animated school-aged children as New York's fabled landmarks inspire them to explore a virtue that made the creation of each landmark a reality. The characters will also interact with real players and coaches and, in the end, learn that the same qualities that went into the building of these great structures are similar to those necessary for building both a winning football team and a fulfilling life.
